The Out-of-Body Travel Foundation's Art Book

By Marilyn Hughes

This collection presents paintings inspired by what Marilyn Hughes has seen and experienced during thousands of out-of-body experiences and journeys into the spiritual realms. Each original painting represents a vision, place, being, symbol, or sacred reality encountered through these extraordinary experiences, bringing into visual form things that are ordinarily beyond the physical senses.

Presented alongside the original paintings are new AI reimaginings of these works. These contemporary interpretations do not replace the originals; rather, they offer another way of envisioning the spiritual landscapes and mystical realities that inspired them. Together, the original paintings and their reimagined counterparts create a dialogue between the vision as it was originally expressed and a new visual interpretation of the same unseen worlds.

The paintings encompass the mysteries of consciousness, death and dying, the afterlife, spiritual transformation, celestial realms, sacred beings, mystical landscapes, and the continuing journey of the soul beyond the physical body. They are not simply works of imagination, but visual expressions arising from a lifetime of exploration through out-of-body travel and mystical experience.

This art collection serves as a companion to The Mysteries of the Redemption: A Treatise on Out-of-Body Travel Foundation and Galactica: A Treatise on Death, Dying and the Afterlife, by Marilyn Hughes. Together, these works explore the territories beyond ordinary physical perception and invite the reader to contemplate the possibility that consciousness extends far beyond the boundaries of the material world.
