Introduction

INTRODUCTION

Why this Office?

The Second Vatican Council expresses itself on the subject of the Office in these words:

Jesus Christ, High Priest of the New and Eternal Covenant, taking human nature, introduced into this earthly exile that hymn which is sung throughout all ages in the halls of heaven. He attaches to himself the entire community of mankind and has them join him in singing his divine song of praise ...

The Divine Office, in keeping with ancient Christian tradition, is so devised that the whole course of the day and night is made holy by the praise of God. Therefore, when this wonderful song of praise is Correctly celebrated by priests and others deputed to it by the Church, or by the faithful praying together with a priest in the approved form, then it is truly the voice of the Bride herself addressed to her Bridegroom. It is the very prayer which Christ himself together with his Body addresses to the Father.

Hence all who take part in the Divine Office are not only performing a duty for the Church, they are also sharing in what is the greatest honor for Christ's Bride; for by offering these praises to God they are standing before God's throne in the name of the Church, their Mother.

(Constitution on the Liturgy, IV.83-85)

Structure of the Canonical Hours

The Canonical Hours contained in this first volume of the English Carthusian Breviary are Prime, Terce, Sext, None, and Compline, often called the Little Hours. It is basically a translation of the Latin Office which is the Office sung in choir.

Biblical texts have been taken almost exclusively from the New American Bible (NAB). Texts from the Gospels, however, have been taken from the Revised Standard Version (RSV) and the Psalms are the Grail version.

Introduction to the Office. The Office is always preceded by a time of silent prayer, about the length of time it takes to recite an Our Father and a Hail Mary. This is represented in the text by: (Our Father, Hail Mary) Similar times of silent prayer occur also at other places in the Office.

Then we make the sign of the Cross and say the Introductory verse. The object of this Introduction is to place us in the presence of God; we ask God to help us to pray.

Hymn. This helps to put us into the liturgical setting of the particular Hour or the particular season or feast that is being celebrated.

In the text 6f of the Office two translations are given of the traditional Latin hymn, but those who desire may use any other translation which has been approved for liturgical use.

There are also alternative hymns at the end of the Breviary which can be substituted for those in the text.

Antiphon. This serves to introduce the psalm or canticle and helps to bring out its character. Often it serves as a short commentary on the psalm and its relationship with the feast that is being celebrated.

The antiphon said before a psalm or canticle is repeated at the end.

When the antiphon consists of the first words of the psalm or canticle, these words are omitted and the psalm or canticle is taken up at the sign t. If, however, the antiphon terminates with Alleluia the psalm or canticle is said from the beginning.

Psalmody. The prayer of the Church is in large measure in the words of those great hymns composed under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit by sacred writers of the Old Testament. (From "General Instruction on the Liturgy of the Hours" - LH,100).

The person who prays the psalms in the Liturgy of the Hours prays not so much in his own person as in the name of the Church, and, in fact, in the person of Christ himself. If one bears this in mind difficulties disappear when one notices in prayer that the feelings of the heart in prayer are different from the emotions expressed in the psalm. In the Divine Office the public cycle of the psalms is gone through, not as a private exercise but in the name of the Church, even by someone saying an Hour by himself. The person who prays the psalms in the name of the Church can always find a reason for joy or sadness, for the saying of the Apostle applies in this case also: "Rejoice with the joyful and weep with those who weep." (Rom. 12.15. from LH 108)

The psalms are, however, only a foreshadowing of the fullness of time that came to be in Christ the Lord, from which the prayer of the Church derives its power. (LH 101)

The person who prays the psalms in the name of the Church should be aware of their total meaning, especially their messianic meaning, which was the reason for the Church's introduction of the psalter into its prayer. This messianic meaning was fully revealed in the New Testament, and following this line of thought, the Fathers of the Church saw the whole psalter as a prophecy of Christ and the Church and explained it in this sense. On feast days especially, the choice of psalms is often based on their Christological meaning, and antiphons taken from these psalms are frequently used to throw light on this meaning. (LH 109)

In this Breviary a title is added at the head of each psalm to explain its meaning. These titles are intended only as an aid to prayer. (LH 111)

The psalms have been numbered according to the Latin Vulgate. At the end of each psalm or canticle we say:

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning, is now and will be for ever. Amen.

This gives to the Old Testament prayer a quality of praise linked to a Christological and trinitarian interpretation. (LH 123)

Reading. Prayer should accompany the reading of Sacred Scripture so that there may be a conversation between God and man: "We talk with God when we pray, we listen to him when we read God's words." (St. Ambrose, LH 56)

In accordance with tradition the gospels have been excluded from these short readings or chapters (capitula). They are chosen to give brief and precise expression to a reflection or exhortation. (LH 156)

They are terminated by: "Thanks be to God".

In private, on days when there are not 12 lessons at Matins and on days outside of Octaves, the Readings of all the Hours can be taken anywhere in the Bible.

Response. This is a response to the reading of the Word. It ought to transform the Reading into a prayer. Most often the Response is condensed in a short verse and may be for us a short acclamation which will occasion the deeper penetration of the Word into our hearts.

Prayers of Intercession, (or Preces) The Church has always felt the need to conclude her prayer with concrete intercession for people and their needs, thus prolonging Christ's own role as Mediator. Our own heart, united with Christ and the Church, opens to embrace all humanity. The Prayers of Intercession are always preceded by a silence.

Prayer. This concludes the series of Prayers of Intercession, and is a final invocation which closes the Hour, often summing up the theme of the Hour. It is normally preceded by: "Let us pray", followed by a short silence.

On ferial days, in private, in addition to the choice of prayers given for each Hour, one can choose freely at any Hour, any prayer in the Breviary which is of the same liturgical season.

On feasts of saints of 3 lessons the prayer at Matins is that of Sext.

In private, on feasts of saints, one can say the proper prayer of Terce at any Hour. One can also say, at any Hour, any of the prayers of an appropriate Common On Memorials the proper prayer, which is said at Lauds and Vespers, can also be said in private at Terce, Sext and None. When in the proper of the saints, one prayer only appears for any saint, this is to be understood to be the prayer of Terce spoken of above.

The prayer is normally concluded thus:

This we ask through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. If Christ is mentioned towards the end it is concluded thus:

Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. If it is directed to the Son it is concluded thus:

You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

If, however, another Hour of the Canonical Office is to be said immediately a short ending is used:

This we ask through Christ our Lord. Who lives and reigns for ever and ever. You live and reign for ever and ever.

Simplifications

Certain adaptations are allowed so as to make the Office more conformed to solitary recitation, e.g.

When there are several Alleluias it is permitted to say only one.

At the beginning of the Prayers of Intercession the invocations:

Lord, have mercy; Christ, have mercy; Lord, have mercy; may be said only once.

When, for some legitimate reason, two Little Hours are recited in succession in private, it is allowed, as an exceptional case, to say at the first of these Hours the hymn which is most in keeping with the time of day; and when one has completed the Reading for that Hour with its Response, to begin immediately the antiphon and psalms of the second Hour, which is then continued in the usual way. But one can choose the prayer which best fits the time of day.

Ceremonies of the Office in private

Our heads remain always uncovered except when we are reciting the psalms, but we cover only after the first verse of the first psalm.

We kneel for the silent prayer and Glory to the Father of the Introduction, and the Prayers of Intercession, on ferial days, Memorials and feasts of 3 lessons, outside of Christmastide and Eastertide. We rise for the sign of the cross etc. On the other days and for the rest of the Office we stand.

The Carthusian Nuns

In order to celebrate the Office more fruitfully in private, it is permitted:

At the Little Hours to choose other psalms. At the end of the Prayers of Intercession to say another psalm instead of Ps. 50. To choose other psalms in place of the Penitential Psalms. At Prime, to say the Profession of Faith of St. Bruno, instead of the others suggested.

For all other rubrics refer to Stat. Books 5-8.

THE OFFICE OF THE CONVERSE AND DONATE BROTHERS AND SISTERS

In conformity with the Stat. 43.10, for each Hour of the Office, the Brother or Sister always enjoys freedom of choice between:

- an Office composed of Our Father's & Hail Mary's;
- an Office composed of psalms.

On the other hand, when the Brother or Sister is present in church during an Office, besides the above two possibilities, one can chant in the choir, or one can unite oneself freely in silent prayer with the Office which is being sung.

But, whatever the form of prayer adopted, this liturgical prayer is an Office of the Church.

THE OFFICE OF OUR FATHER'S AND HAIL MARY'S

Signs in use:

- ± = sign of the cross, standing with hoods down and bowing slightly at "Amen".
- I = standing with hoods down
- i = standing with hoods up

THE DIVINE OFFICE IN PSALMS

1) The Complete Office

The Office can be discharged by following integrally the rubrics indicated in the Breviary.

2) The Simplified Office

The Office can be discharged by introducing the following simplifications, in whole or in part:

at all the Hours, the litany of intercession, as well as psalm 50, can be omitted. The Prayers of Intercession could be comprised only of:

Lord have mercy, Christ have mercy, Lord have mercy.

a silent pause

the prayer (and the verses which follow)

At Lauds and Vespers, however, one should always say the Our Father before the prayer. At Prime, the “I confess to God” is always said (and the verse which precedes it).. At Compline, the “I confess to God” is said at the beginning of the Office.

At Vespers, 2 psalms may be said, choosing from the 4 psalms of the day.

At Lauds, 2 psalms may be said (or one psalm and the canticle), choosing from those assigned for the day; in all cases these are followed by psalms 148-150. (The canticle on Saturday counts as 2 psalms.)

At Matins, for each of the first two, nocturns, 3 psalms may be said (with an antiphon chosen from those of the nocturn). For the third nocturn, (when there is one), a single canticle may be said. At each nocturn, one may always say a single lesson without a Response. When there is a reading from the Bible, the text will be taken from the book of the Bible in accordance with Stat. 45.7. When there is a patristic reading, the text will be taken from the appropriate lectionary.

THE OFFICE OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN IN PSALMS

The Brother or Sister may discharge the Office of the Blessed Virgin by following integrally the rubrics in the Breviary.

It may also be discharged by introducing the following simplifications, in whole or in part:

At Matins:

a single psalm may be said each day (with the corresponding antiphon);

one lesson may be chosen from among the three, and the Response may be omitted; the Te Deum may always be omitted.

At Lauds:

one may say either 2 psalms chosen from psalms 92, 99, 62/66, or one of these psalms and the Benedicite, or psalms 148-150.

The Salve Regina may be omitted.

At the Little Hours:

a single psalm may be said (or one strophe of Ps. 118). Merely as a suggestion, one could begin Ps. 118 at Prime on Sunday, and then continue it by taking one strophe for each Little Hour until Terce on Friday; then one could say Ps. 119-124 until None on Saturday

At Vespers:

2 psalms may be said at one's choice.

At Compline:

2 psalms may be said at one's choice; the Salve Regina may be omitted.

OFFICE OF THE DEAD AND SUFFRAGES

Anniversary

For the anniversaries, the converse and donates may recite an Office of Our Father's and Hail Mary's, or an Office of psalms.

1) The Office of Our Father's and Hail Mary's:

The converse (including the novices) each day say 3 OF and HM; The donates say 10 OF and HM each week.

2) The Office of psalms:

An Office of the Dead each week, which can be discharged integrally as indicated in the Breviary, or by introducing the following simplifications, in whole or in part:

At Vespers:

2 psalms may be said choosing from the 5;

Ps. 145 which precedes the prayer may be omitted.

At Matins:

one may say just one of the 3 nocturns;

Ps. 119 which precedes the prayer may be omitted.

At Lauds:

one may say either 2 psalms chosen from Ps. 50, 64, 62, 456;

or one of these psalms and the canticle;

or psalms 148-150.

Ps. 129 which precedes the prayer may be omitted.

The General Prayer:

The converse and donates say either 3 OF and HM or Vespers of the Blessed Virgin or Vespers of the Dead.

The Special Prayer:

The converse and donates say either 3 OF and HM or Vespers of the Dead.

Obituary:

When a monk or nun dies in the house where the converse or donate is staying, one says in private: either 3 OF and HM, as follows: 10 OF and HM 1 Glory, with veniam; and repeated three times; or an Office of the Dead in psalms.

The converse, donates and novices belonging to the house of which the deceased is a professed monk, donate or novice, are bound by the same obligations.

For the other suffrages, see Statutes ch. 60.

The Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary

RUBRICS

Except for the omission of the Alleluia during Lent this Office does not change at all with the liturgical seasons.

We kneel always for the silent prayer of introduction and for the Salve Regina. The other ceremonies are as for the Canonical Office. We sit for the lessons and Responses at Matins, and may also sit for the psalms if there is sufficient reason.

When an Hour of the Office of the Blessed Virgin is said immediately before an Hour of the Office of the Day, as normally happens when the Little Hours are said in private, or vice versa as at Compline, the prayer of the first Hour has a short conclusion (p. 8). After praying in silence one then says the introductory verse of the following Hour without making the sign of the cross.

It is permitted to change the psalms given in the Breviary for any others of one's choice.

The Prior or Prioress can commute this Office, either in whole or in part, to another form of prayer according to the needs of each one.

For the simplifications permitted for the converse and donates see p. 14.

For all other rubrics refer in the Statutes of the monks to 43.12; 48.4-5: in the Statutes of the nuns to 38.15; 43.9-11.

MATINS

INTRODUCTION

Silent prayer (about the time of 3 Hail Mary's)
Sign of the cross.

O Lord, open my lips.
And my mouth shall proclaim your praise.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning, is now and will be for ever. Amen.

Alleluia. In Lent: Praise to you, Lord, King of eternal glory.

INVITATORY

Psalm 94 A call to praise
God

Hail Mary, full of grace: the Lord is with you. (Lk 1,28)
Here we take veniam; those who wish may say the psalm without interruption and simply repeat: Hail Mary... at the end.

Come, ring out our joy to the Lord; hail the rock who saves us. Let us come before him, giving thanks, with songs let us hail the Lord.

Hail Mary, full of grace: the Lord is with you.

A mighty God is the Lord,
a great king above all gods.
In his hand are the depths of the earth;
the heights of the mountains are his.
To him belongs the sea, for he made it and the dry land shaped by his hands.

The Lord is with you.

Come in; let us bow and bend low;
let us kneel before the God who made us for he is our God and we the people who belong to his pasture, the flock that is led by his hand.

Hail Mary, full of grace: the Lord is with you.

O that to-day you would listen to his voice!
'Harden not your hearts as at Meribah, as on that day at Massah in the desert
when your fathers put me to the test;
when they tried me, though they saw my work.

The Lord is with you.

For forty years I was wearied of these people and I said: "Their hearts are astray, these people do not know my ways." Then I took an oath in my anger:
"Never shall they enter my rest."

Hail Mary, full of grace: the Lord is with you.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning,
is now and will be for ever. Amen.

The Lord is with you.

Hail Mary, full of grace: the Lord is with you.

HYMN

The mystery of the Church we tell in this hymn to Christ: Father's eternal Word born a maiden's child.

Of all women throughout time you alone were chosen and merited to bear your Lord within your womb.

The prophets of ancient time foretold what came to pass: A virgin would conceive and bear the Emmanuel.

A great and awesome mystery this: That Mary should behold the God who made all things

come forth a man from her.

Glory be to you, Lord God, glory to your only Son, glory to the Holy Spirit, till the end of time. Amen.

Alternative version:

We sing the mystery of the Church as now our hymn to Christ we raise: He, the Father's timeless Word, born on earth the Virgin's babe.

She alone of womankind was chosen from the human race, worthy in her sacred womb to bear the Lord of time and space.

The holy prophets long ago foretold what now has come to pass: a virgin would conceive and bear Emmanuel - our God with us.

Great mystery surpassing all: that Mary is allowed to see the God by whom all things were made proceed from her virginity.

All glory be to you, O Lord, and to your sole-begotten Son, who with the Spirit e'er abide through endless ages wholly One. Amen.

Or one can say any other hymn of the Office of the B.V.
Mary, or an appropriate hymn from pages 482-489.

PSALMODY

SUNDAY, MONDAY, THURSDAY

Ant. Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. Lk 1,42

Psalm 8 The majesty of the Lord and man's dignity

How great is your name, O Lord our God,
through all the earth!

Your majesty is praised above the heavens;
on the lips of children and of babes

You have found praise to foil your enemy, to silence the foe and the rebel.

When I see the heavens, the work of your hands,
the moon and the stars which you arranged,
What is man that you should keep him in mind, mortal man that you care for him?

Yet you have made him little less than a god; with glory and honor you crowned him, Gave him power over the works of your hand, put all things under his feet.

All of them, sheep and cattle,
yes, even the savage beasts,
Birds of the air, and fish
that make their way through the waters.

How great is your name, O Lord our God,
through all the earth!

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning,
is now and will be for ever. Amen.

This doxology Glory to the Father,... is said at the end of all psalms and canticles unless otherwise indicated.

Psalm 18

Praise of God, Creator of all, who gave us the law of love The heavens proclaim the glory of God

and the firmament shows forth the work of his hands.
Day unto day takes up the story
and night unto night makes known the message.

No speech, no word, no voice is heard
yet their span extends through all the earth,
their words to the utmost bounds of the world.

There he has placed a tent for the sun;
it comes forth like a bridegroom coming from his tent,
rejoices like a champion to run its course.

At the end of the sky is the rising of the sun; to the furthest end of the sky is its course. There is nothing concealed from its burning heat.

The law of the Lord is perfect, it revives
the soul. The rule of the Lord is to be trusted, it gives wisdom to the simple.

The precepts of the Lord are right,
they gladden the heart. The command of the Lord is clear, it gives light to the eyes.

The fear of the Lord is holy,
abiding forever.

The decrees of the Lord are truth and all of them just.

They are more to be desired than gold,
than the purest of gold And sweeter are they than honey, than honey from the comb.

So in them your servant finds instruction;
great reward is in their keeping. But who can detect all his errors? From hidden faults acquit me.

From presumption restrain your servant and let it not rule me.

Then shall I be blameless,
clean from grave sin.

May the spoken words of my mouth, the thoughts of my heart, Win favor in your sight, O Lord, my rescuer, my rock!

Psalm 23 The Lord's entry into his temple

The Lord's is the earth and its fullness, the world and all its peoples. It is he who set it on the seas; on the waters he made it firm.

Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord?
Who shall stand in his holy place?
The man with clean hands and pure heart,
who desires not worthless things,
who has not sworn so as to deceive his neighbor.

He shall receive blessings from the Lord and reward from the God who saves him. Such are the men who seek him, seek the face of the God of Jacob.

O gates, lift high your heads; grow higher, ancient doors. Let him enter,
the king of glory!

Who is the king of glory?
The Lord, the mighty, the valiant,
the Lord, the valiant in war.

O gates, lift high your heads; grow
higher, ancient doors. Let him enter,
the king of glory!

Who is he, the king of glory? He,
the Lord of armies, he is the king of glory.

Ant. Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. Lk 1,42

V/. Grace is poured out upon your lips.

R/. Thus God has blessed you forever. Ps 44,3.

For the rest turn to page 32.

TUESDAY AND FRIDAY

Ant. A man was born of her, and he who established her is the Most High Lord. Ps. 86,5

Psalm 44 The marriage of the king

My heart overflows with noble words.
To the king I must speak the song I have made;
my tongue as nimble as the pen of a scribe.

You are the fairest of the children of men and graciousness is poured upon your lips:
because God has blessed you forevermore.

O mighty one, gird your sword upon your thigh:
in splendor and state, ride on in triumph for the cause of truth and goodness and right.

Take aim with your bow in your dread right hand.
Your arrows are sharp: peoples fall beneath you. The foes of the king fall down and lose heart.

Your throne, O God, shall endure forever.
A sceptre of justice is the sceptre of your kingdom.
Your love is for justice; your hatred for evil.

Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above other kings: your robes are fragrant with aloes and myrrh.

From the ivory palace you are greeted with music. The daughters of kings are among your loved ones. On your right stands the queen in gold of Ophir.

Listen, O daughter, give ear to my words: forget your own people and your father's house. So will the king desire your beauty: He is your lord, pay homage to him.

And the people of Tyre shall come with gifts, the richest of the people shall seek your favor. The daughter of the king is clothed with splendor, her robes embroidered with pearls set in gold.

She is led to the king with her maiden companions. They are escorted amid gladness and joy; they pass within the palace of the king.

Sons shall be yours in place of your fathers: you will make them princes over all the earth. May this song make your name forever remembered. May the peoples praise you from age to age.

Psalm 45 God our refuge and strength

God is for us a refuge and strength,
a helper close at hand, in time of distress:
So we shall not fear though the earth should rock,
though the mountains fall into the depths of the sea,
Even though its waters rage and foam,
even though the mountains be shaken by its waves.

The Lord of hosts is with us:
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.

The waters of a river give joy to God's city, the holy place where the Most High dwells. God is within, it cannot be shaken; God will help it at the dawning of the day. Nations are in tumult, kingdoms are shaken: he lifts his voice, the earth shrinks away.

The Lord of hosts is with us:
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.

Come, consider the works of the Lord
 the redoubtable deeds he has done on the earth.
 He puts an end to wars over all the earth;
 the bow he breaks, the spear he snaps.
 He burns the shields with fire.
 "Be still and know that I am God, supreme among the nations, supreme on the earth!"
 The Lord of hosts is with us:
 the God of Jacob is our stronghold.

Psalm 86 Jerusalem is mother of us all

On the holy mountain is his city cherished by the Lord.
 The Lord prefers the gates of Zion to all Jacob's dwellings.
 Of you are told glorious things,
 O city of God!
 "Babylon and Egypt I count among those who know me; Philistia, Tyre, Ethiopia, these will be her children.
 And Zion shall be called 'Mother' for all shall be her children."

It is he, the Lord Most High, who gives each his place.
 In his register of peoples he writes:

Psalm 95 The Lord, king and judge of the world

O sing a new song to the Lord, sing to the Lord all the earth.
O sing to the Lord, bless his name.

Proclaim his help day by day, tell among the nations his glory and his wonders among all the peoples.

The Lord is great and worthy of praise, to be feared above all gods;
the gods of the heathens are naught.

It was the Lord who made the heavens, his are majesty and state and power and splendor in his holy place.

Give the Lord, you families of peoples, give the Lord glory and power, give the Lord the glory of his name.

Bring an offering and enter his courts, worship the Lord in his temple. O earth, tremble before him.

Proclaim to the nations: "God is king." The world he made firm in its place; he will judge the peoples in fairness.

Let the heavens rejoice and earth be glad, let the sea and all within it thunder praise, Let the land and all it bears rejoice, all the trees of the wood shout for joy

At the presence of the Lord, for he comes,
he comes to rule the earth.
With justice he will rule the world,
he will judge the peoples with his truth.

Psalm 96 The glory of the Lord in his decrees for the world

The Lord is king, let earth rejoice, let all the coastlands be glad. Cloud and darkness are his raiment; his throne, justice and right.

A fire prepares his path; it burns up his foes on every side. His lightnings light up the world, the earth trembles at the sight.

The mountains melt like wax before the Lord of all the earth. The skies proclaim his justice; all peoples see his glory.

Let those who serve idols be ashamed, those who boast of their worthless gods. All you spirits, worship him. Zion hears and is glad;
the people of Judah rejoice because of your judgments O Lord.

For you indeed are the Lord most high above all the earth exalted far above all spirits.

The Lord loves those who hate evil: he guards the souls of his saints; he sets them free from the wicked.

Light shines forth for the just and joy for the upright of heart. Rejoice, you just, in the Lord; give glory to his holy name.

Psalm 97 The Lord triumphs in his judgment

Sing a new song to the Lord, for he has worked wonders. His right hand and his holy arm have brought salvation.

The Lord has made known his salvation; has shown his justice to the nations. He has remembered his truth and love for the house of Israel.

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. Shout to the Lord, all the earth, ring out your joy.

Sing psalms to the Lord with the harp, with the sound of music. With trumpets and the sound of the horn acclaim the King, the Lord.

Let the sea and all within it, thunder; the world, and all its peoples. Let the rivers clap their hands and the hills ring out their joy

At the presence of the Lord: for he comes, he comes to rule the earth. He will rule the world with justice and the peoples with fairness.

LESSONS

The 3 lessons which follow may be read one after the other, in which case any one of the Responses is said at the end, with Glory to the Father...

LESSON 1

Lk. 1,26-33

In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of Galilee named Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. And he came to her and said, "Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you!"

But she was greatly troubled at the saying, and considered in her mind what sort of greeting this might be. And the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus. He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High; and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David, and he will reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there will be no end." B. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSE

Cant. 2,13-14; 3,6; 5,12; 4,11; 2,1; Eccles. 50,8

I saw a beautiful one like a dove ascending beside the running waters, whose garments sent forth an incomparable fragrance. ± As in the springtime, she was surrounded by roses in bloom and lilies of the valley.

V. The daughters of Zion saw her and declared her fortunate; the queens, and they sang her praises. Cant. 6,8.

Repeat #. from ± As in the springtime...

Lk 1,34-38

And Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, since I have no husband?" And the angel said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be called holy, the Son of God. And behold, your kinswoman Elizabeth in her old age has also conceived a son; and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren. For with God nothing will be impossible." And Mary said, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord; let it be to me according to your word." And the angel departed from her.

R/. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSE

Cant. 3,6

Who is this coming up from the desert, like a column of smoke, laden with myrrh, with frankincense, and with the perfume of every exotic dust?

V/. Sweetmeats and milk are under your tongue; and the fragrance of your garments is the fragrance of Lebanon. Cant. 4,11. Repeat from ±.

Lk. 1,39-45

Mary arose and went with haste into the hill country, to a city of Judah, and she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. And when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit and she exclaimed with a loud cry, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb! And why is this granted me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For behold, when the voice of your greeting came to my ears, the babe in my womb leaped for joy. And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfilment of what was spoken to her from the Lord."

R/. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSE

Lk. 1,48-49

All generations will call me blessed; for he who is mighty has done great things for me, * and holy is his name.

y* My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior. Lk-1,46-47. Repeat from ±.

Glory to the Father ... Repeat from *, and holy is his name.

TE DEUM

Only on days when it is sung in choir.

You are God: we praise you;

You are the Lord; we acclaim you;

You are the eternal Father:

All creation worships you.

To you all angels, all the powers of heaven,

Cherubim and Seraphim, sing in endless praise: Holy, holy, holy, Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

The glorious company of apostles praise you.

The noble fellowship of prophets praise you.

The white-robed army of martyrs praise you.

Throughout the world the holy Church acclaims you:

Father, of majesty unbounded, your true and only

Son, worthy of all worship, and the Holy Spirit, advocate and guide.

You, Christ, are the king of glory, the eternal Son of the Father.

When you became man to set us free you did not spurn the Virgin's womb.

You overcame the sting of death, and opened the kingdom of heaven to all believers.

You are seated at God's right hand in glory.

We believe that you will come, and be our judge.

Come then, Lord, and help your people, bought with the price of your own blood, and bring us with your saints to glory everlasting.
Save your people, Lord, and bless your inheritance.
Govern and uphold them now and always.
Day by day we bless you.
We praise your name for ever.
Keep us today, Lord, from all sin.
Have mercy on us, Lord, have mercy.
Lord, show us your love and mercy;
for we put our trust in you.
In you, Lord, is our hope:
and we shall never hope in vain.

* * *

V/. God will help her by his presence.

R/. God is within her, she cannot be shaken. Ps. 45,6

PRAYER

Lord, fill our hearts with your love, and as you revealed to us by an angel the coming of your Son as man, so lead us through his suffering and death to the glory of his resurrection, who lives and reigns...

V/. O Lord, hear my prayer. R/. And let my cry come to you. V/. Let us praise the Lord. R/. And give him thanks.

LAUDS

INTRODUCTION

Silent prayer (about the time of a Hail Mary) Sign of the cross. O God, come to my assistance. Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now and will be for ever. Amen. Alleluia. In Lent: Praise to you, Lord, King of eternal glory.

HYMN

Truly you are full of grace, you are glorious.
From you was born for us the Christ who made all things.

When the shepherds heard of this they sang God's praise. They went in haste to Bethlehem to see the Lord.

The Magi from the East have come, led by a star;
first of all the Gentile tribes to bring him gifts.

All peoples of the earth must pray God's virgin Mother and ask her to obtain for us peace and pardon.

Glory be to you, Lord God, and to your Son, with the Spirit Paraclete, for ever. Amen.

Alternative version:

Truly you are full of grace and for ever glorious:

the Christ by whom all things are made from your womb was born for uns.

Shepherds, when they heard the news, glorified God with one accord; • they went in haste to Bethlehem to contemplate their new-born Lord.

Wise men came from eastern lands - a guiding star lit up their way -Gentiles' representatives the first adoring homage pay.

Let us pray most fervently God's virgin Mother pure, that her pleas on our behalf peace and pardon may secure.

All glory be to you, O Lord, and to your sole-begotten Son, who with the Spirit e'er abide through endless ages wholly One. Amen.

PSALMODY

Ant. Ah, you are beautiful, my beloved, ah, you are beautiful; your eyes are doves! Cant. 4,1

Psalm 92 Splendor of God the Creator

The Lord is king, with majesty enrobed; the Lord has robed himself with might, he has girded himself with power.

The world you made firm, not to be moved; your throne has stood firm from of old. From all eternity, O Lord, you are.

The waters have lifted up, O Lord, the waters have lifted up their voice, the waters have lifted up their thunder.

Greater than the roar of mighty waters, more glorious than the surgings of the sea, the Lord is glorious on high.

Truly your decrees are to be trusted.
Holiness is fitting to your house, O Lord,
until the end of time.

Psalm 99 The joyful song of those entering God's temple

Cry out with joy to the Lord, all the earth.
Serve the Lord with gladness. Come before him, singing for joy.

Know that he, the Lord, is God.
He made us, we belong to him,
we are his people, the sheep of his flock.

Go within his gates, giving thanks. Enter his courts with songs of praise. Give thanks to him and bless his name.

Indeed, how good is the Lord, eternal his merciful love. He is faithful from age to age.

Psalm 62 A soul thirsting
for God

O God, you are my God, for you I long;
for you my soul is thirsting.

My body pines for you
like a dry, weary land without water.
So I gaze on you in the sanctuary to see your strength and your glory.

For your love is better than life, my lips
will speak your praise. So I will bless you all my life, in your name I will lift up my hands.

My soul shall be filled as with a banquet, my mouth shall praise you with joy.

On my bed I remember you.

On, you I muse through the night

For you have been my help;

in the shadow of your wings I rejoice.

My soul clings to you;

your right hand holds me fast.

Those who seek to destroy my life

shall go down to the depths of the earth.

They shall be put into the power of the sword

and left as the prey of the jackals.

But the king shall rejoice in God;

all that swear by him shall be blessed,

for the mouth of liars shall be silenced.

Glory to the Father is not said here.

Psalm 66 People of all nations will worship the Lord

O God, be gracious and bless us and let your face shed its light upon us. So will your ways be known upon earth and all nations learn your saving help.

Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all
the peoples praise you.

Let the nations be glad and exult for you rule the world with justice. With fairness you rule the peoples, you guide the nations on earth.

Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all
the peoples praise you.

The earth has yielded its fruit for God, our God, has blessed us.

May God still give us his blessing till the ends of the earth revere him.

Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all
the peoples praise you.

Canticle “Benedicite”

Dan. 3,57-88.56

Let all creatures praise the Lord

Bless the Lord, all you works of the Lord, praise and exalt him above all forever. Angels of the Lord,

bless the Lord;

You heavens,

bless the Lord. All you waters above the heavens,

bless the Lord; All you hosts of the Lord,

bless the Lord.

Sun and moon,

bless the Lord;

Stars of heaven,

bless the Lord. Every shower and dew,

bless the Lord;

All you winds,

bless the Lord.

Fire and heat,

bless the Lord;

Cold and chill,

bless the Lord.

Dew and rain,

bless the Lord;

Frost and chill,

bless the Lord.

Ice and snow,

bless the Lord;

Nights and days, bless the Lord.
Light and darkness, bless the Lord; Lightnings and clouds, bless the Lord. Let the earth bless the Lord, praise and exalt him above all forever.
Mountains and hills, bless the Lord; Everything growing from the earth,
 bless the Lord.
You springs,
 bless the Lord;
Seas and rivers, bless the Lord. You dolphins and all water creatures,
 bless the Lord; All you
birds of the air, bless the Lord. All you beasts, wild and tame,
 bless the Lord;
You sons of men,
 bless the Lord. O Israel, bless the Lord; praise and exalt him above all forever. Priests
of the Lord,
 bless the Lord;
Servants of the Lord, bless the Lord. Spirits and souls of the just, bless the Lord; Holy men of humble heart,
 bless the Lord.
Hananiah, Azariah, Mishaël, bless the Lord; praise and exalt him above all forever. Let us bless the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Let us praise and exalt God forever. Blessed are you in the firmament of heaven, praiseworthy and glorious forever.

Glory to the Father is not said here.

Psalm 148 Praise to the Lord, the Creator

Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise him in the heights. Praise him,
all his angels, praise him, all his host.

Praise him, sun and moon, praise him,
shining stars. Praise him, highest heavens and the waters above the heavens.

Let them praise the name of the Lord. He commanded: they were made. He fixed them forever, gave a law which shall not pass away.

Praise the Lord from the earth, sea creatures and all oceans, Fire and hail, snow and mist, stormy winds that obey his word;

All mountains and hills, all fruit trees and cedars, Beasts, wild and tame, reptiles and birds on the wing;

All earth's kings and peoples, earth's princes and rulers; Young men and maidens, old men together with children.

Let them praise the name of the Lord for he alone is exalted. The splendor of his name

reaches beyond heaven and earth.

He exalts the strength of his people. He is the praise of all his saints, Of the sons of Israel, of the people to whom he conies close.

Glory to the Father is not said here.

Psalm 149 The joy of God's holy people

Sing a new song to the Lord,
his praise in the assembly of the faithful.
Let Israel rejoice in its Maker,
let Zion's sons exult in their king.
Let them praise his name with dancing
and make music with timbrel and harp.

For the Lord takes delight in his people. He crowns the poor with salvation. Let the faithful rejoice in their glory, shout for joy and take their rest. Let the praise of God be on their lips and a two-edged sword in their hand,

To deal out vengeance to the nations and punishment on all the peoples; To bind their kings in chains and their nobles in fetters of iron; To carry out the sentence pre-ordained:
this honor is for all his faithful.

Glory to the Father is not said here.

Psalm 150 Praise
the Lord

Praise God in his holy place, praise him in his mighty heavens.

Praise him for his powerful deeds, praise his surpassing greatness.

O praise him with sound of trumpet, praise him with lute and harp. Praise him with timbrel and dance, praise him with strings and pipes.

O praise him with resounding cymbals, praise him with clashing of cymbals. Let everything that lives and that breathes give praise to the Lord.

Benedictus

Lk. 1,68-79

The Messiah and his forerunner

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he has visited and redeemed his people, and has raised up
a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David, as he spoke by the mouth
of his holy prophets from of old,
that we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all who hate us;

to perform the mercy promised to our fathers,
and to remember his holy covenant,
the oath which he swore to our father Abraham,
to grant us
that we, being delivered from the hand
of our enemies,
might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him all the days of our life.

And you, child, will be called
the prophet of the Most High;
for you will go before the Lord to prepare his ways, to give knowledge of salvation to his people in the forgiveness of their sins, through the tender mercy of our God, when the day shall dawn upon us from on high to give light to those who sit in darkness
and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Ant. You are an enclosed garden, my sister, an

PRAYER

Let us pray.

Father, you gave the human race eternal salvation through the motherhood of the Virgin Mary. May we experience the help of her prayers in our lives, for through her we received the very source of life, your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns...

V/. O Lord, hear my prayer,

R/. And let my cry come to you.

V/. Let us praise the Lord,

R/. And give him thanks.

V/. May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy, of God rest in peace.

R/. Amen.

ANTHEM “SALVE REGINA”

Hail, Queen of mercy, (Here we take veniam.) the sweetness of our life and our hope. To you do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To you do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears. Turn then, most gracious advocate, your eyes of mercy toward us, and after this exile show merciful to us the blessed fruit of your womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

The preceding Antiphon, Salve Regina, with the V. is always said after Lauds (or after the Office of the Mass if this is said immediately after Lauds) and also after Compline. Those who wish may say it also after the other Hours of the Office of the Blessed Virgin.

GOSPEL

Jn. 1,1-14

t Beginning of the holy gospel according to John. R/.
Glory to you, Lord.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God; all things were made through him, and without him was not anything made that was made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came for testimony, to bear witness to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but came to bear witness to the light.

The true light that enlightens every man was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world knew him not. He came to his own home, and his own people received him not. But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God; who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth; we have beheld his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father.

READING

Sir. 24,1.3-4.8-12.18-20

A reading from the book of Sirach.

Wisdom sings her own praises, before her own people she proclaims her glory: "From the mouth of the Most High I came forth, and mistlike covered the earth. In the highest heavens did I dwell, my throne on a pillar of cloud. Then the Creator of all gave me his command, and he who formed me chose the spot for my tent, saying, 'In Jacob make your dwelling, in Israel your inheritance.'"

Before all ages, in the beginning, he created me, and through all ages I shall not cease to be. In the holy tent I ministered before him, and in Zion I fixed my abode. Thus in the chosen city he has given me rest, in Jerusalem is my domain. I have struck root among the glorious people, in the portion of the Lord, his heritage.

Come to me, all you that yearn for me, and be filled with my fruits; you will remember me as sweeter than honey, better to have than the honeycomb.

He who eats of me will hunger still, he who drinks of me will thirst for more."

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you!

V/. Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!

V/. You will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall call his name Emmanuel.

V/. "How can this be, since I have no husband?" And the angel said to her:

V/. "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you.

V/. Therefore the child to be born will be called holy, the Son of God."

From Easter until the Ascension the Response is omitted and a second ALLELUIA is said:

ALLELUIA

Ps. 105,1

Alleluia. V/. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting. Alleluia.

After the Ascension the 2nd. ALLELUIA is:

ALLELUIA

Jn. 14,18.28; 16,22

Alleluia. V/. The Lord said: I will not leave you orphans. I am going away, but I will come back to you, and your hearts will rejoice. Alleluia.

On the Sunday and Monday of Pentecost the 2nd. ALLELUIA is:

ALLELUIA

Alleluia, V/. Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of your love. Alleluia.

GOSPEL

Lk. 11,27-28

± A reading from the holy gospel according to Luke. R/.
Glory to you, Lord.

As Jesus was speaking, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said to him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts that you sucked!"

But he said, "Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and keep it!"

COMMUNION ANT.

Blessed is the womb of the Virgin Mary: she carried the Son of the eternal Father.

PRAYER

Let us pray.

Lord, fill our hearts with your love, and as you revealed to us by an angel the coming of your Son as man, so lead us through his suffering and death to the glory of his resurrection, who lives and reigns for ever and ever. V/. O Lord, hear my prayer, R/. And let my cry come to you. V/. Let us praise the Lord, R/. And give him thanks.

GOSPEL

Jn. 1,1-14

t Beginning of the holy gospel according to John. R/.
Glory to you, Lord.

In the beginning .was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God; all things were made through him, and without him was not anything made that was made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came for testimony, to bear witness to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but came to bear witness to the light.

The true light that enlightens every man was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world knew him not. He came to his own home, and his own people received him not. But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God; who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth; we have beheld his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father.

R/. Amen.

ANT.

Cf. Ps. 64,1

You are worthy of praise, you are worthy of hymns. To you, O God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER

(Any one of the following may be said.)

All-powerful God, renew us by the incarnation of your Son and free us from our slavery to sin. This we ask...

God, light of all nations, give us the joy of lasting peace. Just as once you enlightened the minds of the Magi, so fill our hearts with your radiant light, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns...

God our Father and protector, without you nothing is holy, nothing has value. Guide us to everlasting life by helping us to use wisely the blessings you have given to the world. This we ask...

V/. O Lord, hear my prayer, R/. And let my cry come to you. V/. Let us praise the Lord, R/. And give him thanks.

V/. May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. R/. Amen.

ANTHEM "SALVE REGINA"

Hail, Queen of mercy, (Here we take veniam.) the sweetness of our life and our hope. To you do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To you do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears. Turn then, most gracious advocate, your eyes of mercy toward us, and after this exile show merciful to us the blessed fruit of your womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

For proud men have risen against me, ruthless men seek my life. They have no regard for God.

But I have God for my help. The Lord upholds my life. Let the evil recoil upon my foes: you who are faithful, destroy them.

I will sacrifice to you with willing heart and praise your name for it is good:
For you have rescued me from all my distress and my eyes have seen the downfall of my foes.

SUNDAY, MONDAY, WEDNESDAY AND FRIDAY

Psalm 118,1-8:1 (Aleph)

Meditation on God's law

They are happy whose life is blameless,
who follow God's law!

They are happy who do his will,
seeking him with all their hearts,
Who never do anything evil
but walk in his ways.

You have laid down your precepts
to be obeyed with care.

May my footsteps be firm
to obey your statutes.

Then I shall not be put to shame
as I heed your commands.

I will thank you with an upright heart
as I learn your decrees.

I will obey your statutes:
do not forsake me.

Psalm 118,9-16: II (Beth)

How shall the young remain sinless?

By obeying your word.

I have sought you with all my heart:
let me not stray from your commands.

I treasure your promise in my heart
lest I sin against you.

Blessed are you, O Lord;
teach me your statutes.

With my tongue I have recounted
the decrees of your lips.

I rejoiced to do your will
as though all riches were mine.

I will ponder all your precepts
and consider your paths.

I take delight in your statutes; I will not forget your word.

TUESDAY, THURSDAY AND SATURDAY

Psalm 118,89-96: XII (Lamed)

Your word, O Lord, forever
stands firm in the heavens:
Your truth lasts from age to age,
like the earth you created.
By your decree it endures to this day;
for all things serve you.
Had your law not been my delight
I would have died in my affliction.
I will never forget your precepts
for with them you give me life.
Save me, for I am yours
since I seek your precepts.
Though the wicked lie in wait to destroy me
yet I ponder on your will.
I have seen that all perfection has an end
but your command is boundless.

Psalm 118,97-104: XIII (Mem)

Lord, how I love your law!
It is ever in my mind.
Your command makes me wiser than my foes;
for it is mine forever.
I have more insight than all who teach me
for I ponder your will.
I have more understanding than the old
for I keep your precepts.
I turn my feet from evil paths
to obey your word.
I have not turned away from your decrees;
you yourself have taught me.

Your promise is sweeter to my taste than honey in the mouth. I gain understanding from your precepts and so I hate false ways.

SUNDAYPsalm 119 Longing for peace

To the Lord in the hour of my distress I call and he answers me. "O Lord, save my soul from lying lips, from the tongue of the deceitful."

What shall he pay you in return,
O treacherous tongue?

The warrior's arrows sharpened
and coals, red-hot, blazing.

Alas, that I abide a stranger in Meshech, dwell
among the tents of Kedar!

Long enough have I been dwelling with those who hate peace.
I am for peace, but when I speak,
they are for fighting.

Psalm 120
Guardian of his people

I lift my eyes to the mountains: from where shall come my help? My help shall come from the Lord who made heaven and earth.

May he never allow you to stumble! Let him sleep not, your guard. No, he sleep not nor slumbers, Israel's guard.

The Lord is your guard and your shade; ay your right side he stands. By day the sun shall not smite you nor the moon in the night.

The Lord will guard you from evil,
he will guard your soul.
The Lord will guard your going and coming
both now and forever.

Psalm 121 The holy city,
Jerusalem

I rejoiced when I heard them say:
"Let us go to God's house." And now our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem.

Jerusalem is built as a city strongly compact. It is there that the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord.

For Israel's law it is, there to praise the Lord's name. There were set the thrones of judgment of the house of David.

For the peace of Jerusalem pray:
"Peace be to your homes! May peace reign in your walls, in your palaces,
peace!"

For love of my brethren and friends I say:
"Peace upon you!" For love of the house of the Lord I will ask for your good.

MONDAY, WEDNESDAY AND FRIDAY

Psalm 118,17-24: III (Gimel)

Meditation on God's law

Bless your servant and I shall live
and obey your word.
Open my eyes that I may consider
the wonders of your law.
I am a pilgrim on the earth;
show me your commands.
My soul is ever consumed
in longing for your decrees.
You threaten the proud, the accursed,
who turn from your commands.
Relieve me from scorn and contempt
for I do your will.
Though princes sit plotting against me
I ponder on your statutes.
Your will is my delight;
your statutes are my counsellors.

Psalm 118,25-32: IV (Daleth)

My soul lies in the dust;
by your word revive me.
I declared my ways and you answered:
teach me your statutes.
Make me grasp the way of your precepts
and I will muse on your wonders.
My soul pines away with grief;
by your word raise me up.
Keep me from the way of error
and teach me your law.
I have chosen the way of truth
with your decrees before me.
I bind myself to do your will;
Lord, do not disappoint me.

I will run the way of your commands; you give freedom to my heart.

Psalm 118,33-40: V (He)

Teach me the demands of your statutes and I will keep them to the end. Train me to observe your law, to keep it with my heart. Guide me in the path of your commands; for there is my delight. Bend my heart to your will and not to love of gain. Keep my eyes from what is false: by your word, give me life. Keep the promise you have made to the servant who fears you. Keep me from the scorn I dread, for your decrees are good. See, I long for your precepts: then in your justice, give me life. For the rest turn to p. 69.

TUESDAY, THURSDAY AND SATURDAY

Psalm 118,105-112: XIV (Nun)

Your word is a lamp for my steps
and a light for my path.
I have sworn and have determined
to obey your decrees.
Lord, I am deeply afflicted:
by your word give me life.
Accept, Lord, the homage of my lips
and teach me your decrees.
Though I carry my life in my hands,
I remember your law.

Though the wicked try to ensnare me I do not stray from your precepts. Your will is my heritage forever, the joy of my heart. I set myself to carry out your statutes in fullness, forever.

Psalm 118,113-120: XV (Samech)

I have no love for half-hearted men;
my love is for your law.
You are my shelter, my shield;
I hope in your word.
Leave me, you who do evil;
I will keep God's command.
If you uphold me by your promise I shall live;
let my hopes not be in vain.
Sustain me and I shall be saved
and ever observe your statutes.
You spurn all who swerve from your statutes;
their cunning is in vain.
You throw away the wicked like dross:
so I love your will.
I tremble before you in terror;
I fear your decrees.

Psalm 118,121-128: XVI (Ayin)

I have done what is right and just:
let me not be oppressed.
Vouch for the welfare of your servant
lest the proud oppress me.
My eyes yearn for your saving help
and the promise of your justice.
Treat your servant with love
and teach me your statutes.
I am your servant, make me understand;
then I shall know your will.

It is time for the Lord to act
for your law has been broken.
That is why I love your commands
more than finest gold.
That is why I rule my life by your precepts:
I hate false ways.

SUNDAY

Psalm 122 The Lord, unfailing hope of his people

To you have I lifted up my eyes, you who dwell in the heavens: My eyes, like the eyes of slaves on the hands of their lords.

Like the eyes of a servant
on the hand of her mistress,
So our eyes are on the Lord our God
till he show us his mercy.

Have mercy on us, Lord, have mercy. We are filled with contempt. Indeed all too full is our soul with the scorn of the rich, with the proud man's disdain.

Psalm 123 Our help is in the name of the Lord

"If the Lord had not been on our side,"
this is Israel's song.

"If the Lord had not been on our side
when men rose against us,
Then would they have swallowed us alive
when their anger was kindled.

Then would the waters have engulfed us, the torrent gone over us;

Over our head would have swept the raging waters."

Blessed be the Lord who did not give us a prey to their teeth! Our life, like a bird, has escaped from the snare of the fowler.

Indeed the snare has been broken and we have escaped. Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 124 The Lord, the guardian of his people

Those who put their trust in the Lord
are like Mount Zion, that cannot be shaken,
that stands forever.

Jerusalem! The mountains surround her, so the Lord surrounds his people both now and forever.

For the sceptre of the wicked shall not rest over the land of the just For fear that the hands of the just should turn to evil.

Do good, Lord, to those who are good,
to the upright of heart;
But the crooked and those who do evil,
drive them away!
On Israel, peace!

MONDAY, WEDNESDAY AND FRIDAY

Psalm 118,41-48: VI (Vau)
Meditation on God's law

Lord, let your love come upon me,

the saving help of your promise.
And I shall answer those who taunt me
for I trust hi your word.
Do not take the word of truth from my mouth
for I trust hi your decrees.
I shall always keep your law
forever and ever.
I shall walk in the path of freedom
for I seek your precepts.
I will speak of your will before kings
and not be abashed.
Your commands have been my delight;
these I have loved.
I will worship your commands and love them
and ponder your statutes.

Psalm 118,49-56: VII (Zayin)

Remember your word to your servant
by which you gave me hope.
This is my comfort in sorrow
that your promise gives me life.
Though the proud may utterly deride me
I keep to your law.
I remember your decrees of old
and these, Lord, console me.
I am seized with indignation at the wicked
who forsake your law.
Your statutes have become my song
in the land of exile.
I think of your name in the night-time
and I keep your law.
This has been my blessing,
the keeping of your precepts.

Psalm 118,57-64: VIII (Heth)

My part, I have resolved, O Lord, is to obey your word.

With all my heart I implore your favor;
show the mercy of your promise.
I have pondered over my ways
and returned to your will.
I made haste and did not delay
to obey your commands.
Though the nets of the wicked ensnared me
I remembered your law.
At midnight I will rise and thank you
for your just decrees.
I am a friend of all who revere you,
who obey your precepts.
Lord, your love fills the earth.
Teach me your statutes.

For the rest turn to p. 76.

TUESDAY, THURSDAY AND SATURDAY

Psalm 118,129-136: XVII (Pe)

Your will is wonderful indeed;
therefore I obey it.
The unfolding of your word gives light
and teaches the simple.
I open my mouth and I sigh
as I yearn for your commands.
Turn and show me your mercy;
show justice to your friends.
Let my steps be guided by your promise;
let no evil rule me.
Redeem me from man's oppression
and I will keep your precepts.
Let your face shine on your servant
and teach me your decrees.
Tears stream from my eyes
because your law is disobeyed.

Psalm 118,137-144: XVIII (Sade)

Lord, you are just indeed;
your decrees are right.
You have imposed your will with justice
and with absolute truth.
I am carried away by anger
for my foes forget your word.
Your promise is tried hi the fire,
the delight of your servant.
Although I am weak and despised
I remember your precepts.
Your justice is eternal justice
and your law is truth.
Though anguish and distress have seized me,
I delight in your commands.
The justice of your will is eternal:
if you teach me, I shall live.

Psalm 118,145-152: XIX (Koph)

I call with all my heart; Lord, hear me,
I will keep your statutes.
I call upon you, save me
and I will do your will.
I rise before dawn and cry for help,
I hope in your word.
My eyes watch through the night
to ponder your promise.
In your love hear my voice, O Lord;
give me life by your decrees.
Those who harm me unjustly draw near:
they are far from your law.
But you, O Lord, are close:
your commands are truth.
Long have I known that your will
is established forever.

SUNDAYPsalm 125 Joyful hope in God

When the Lord delivered Zion from bondage, It seemed like a dream. Then was our mouth filled with laughter, on our lips there were songs.

The heathens themselves said: "What marvels the Lord worked for them!" What marvels the Lord worked for us! Indeed we were glad.

Deliver us, O Lord, from our bondage as streams in dry land. Those who are sowing in tears will sing when they reap.

They go out, they go out, full of tears, carrying seed for the sowing: They come back, they come back, full of song, carrying their sheaves.

Psalm 126 Apart from God our labors are worthless

If the Lord does not build the house, in vain do its builders labor; If the Lord does not watch over the city, in vain does the watchman keep vigil.

In vain is your earlier rising,
your going later to rest,
you who toil for the bread you eat:
when he pours gifts on his beloved while they slumber.

Truly sons are a gift from the Lord, a blessing, the fruit of the womb. Indeed the sons of youth are like arrows in the hand of a warrior.

O the happiness of the man
who has filled his quiver with these arrows!
He will have no cause for shame
when he disputes with his foes in the gateways.

Psalm 127 Happiness of family life rooted in God

O blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways!

By the labor of your hands you shall eat.
You will be happy and prosper;
Your wife like a fruitful vine
in the heart of your house;
Your children like shoots of the olive,
around your table.

Indeed thus shall be blessed
the man who fears the Lord.
May the Lord bless you from Zion
all the days of your life!
May you see your children's children
in a happy Jerusalem!
On Israel, peace!

For the rest turn to p. 83.

MONDAY, WEDNESDAY AND FRIDAY

Psalm 118,65-72: IX (Teth)

Meditation on God's law

Lord, you have been good to your servant
according to your word.
Teach me discernment and knowledge
for I trust in your commands.
Before I was afflicted I went astray
but now I keep your word.
You are good and your deeds are good;
teach me your statutes.
Though proud men smear me with lies
yet I keep your precepts.
Their minds are closed to good
but your law is my delight.
It was good for me to be afflicted,
to learn your statutes.
The law from your mouth means more to me
than silver and gold.

Psalm 118,73-80: X (Yod)

It was your hands that made me and shaped me:
help me to learn your commands.
Your faithful will see me and rejoice
for I trust in your word.
Lord, I know that your decrees are right,
that you afflicted me justly.
Let your love be ready to console me
by your promise to your servant.
Let your love come to me and I shall live
for your law is my delight.
Shame the proud who harm me with lies
while I ponder your precepts.
Let your faithful turn to me,
those who know your will.

Let my heart be blameless in your statutes lest I be ashamed.

Psalm 118,81-88: XI (Caph)

I yearn for your saving help;
I hope in your word.
My eyes yearn to see your promise.
When will you console me?
Though parched and exhausted with waiting
I remember your statutes.
How long must your servant suffer?
When will you sentence my oppressors?
For me the proud have dug pitfalls,
against your law.
Your commands are all true; then help me
when lies oppress me.
They almost made an end of me on earth
but I kept your precepts.
Because of your love give me life
and I will do your will.

For the rest turn to p. 83.

TUESDAY, THURSDAY AND SATURDAY

Psalm 118,153-160: XX (Resh)

See my affliction and save me
for I remember your law.
Uphold my cause and defend me;
by your promise, give me life.
Salvation is far from the wicked
who are heedless of your statutes.
Numberless, Lord, are your mercies;
with your decrees give me life.
Though my foes and oppressors are countless
I have not swerved from your will.

I look at the faithless with disgust;
they ignore your promise. See how I love your precepts; in your mercy give me life. Your word is founded on truth: your decrees are eternal.

Psalm 118,161-168: XXI (Shin)
Though princes oppress me without cause I stand in awe of your word. I take delight in your promise like one who finds a treasure.
Lies I hate and detest but your law is my love.
Seven times a day I praise you for your just decrees. The lovers of your law have great peace; they never stumble. I await your saving help, O Lord, I fulfil your commands.
My soul obeys your will and loves it dearly. I obey your precepts and your will; all that I do is before you.

Psalm 118,169-176: XXII (Tau) Lord, let my cry come before you: teach me by your word. Let my pleading come before you; save me by your promise. Let my lips proclaim your praise because you teach me your statutes. Let my tongue sing your promise for your commands are just. Let your hand be ready to help me, since I have chosen your precepts.

Lord, I long for your saving help
and your law is my delight.
Give life to my soul that I may praise you.
Let your decrees give me help.
I am lost like a sheep; seek your servant
for I remember your commands.

EVERYDAY

Ant. Jesus said to his mother: "Woman, there is your son." In turn he said to the disciple: "There is your mother." Jn. 19,26-27

READING

Rev. 12,2

The woman was with child, and she wailed aloud in pain as she labored to give birth. R/. Thanks be to God.

V/. In embroidered apparel she is borne in to the king.

R/. Behind her the virgins of her train are brought to you. Cf. Ps. 44,15

PRAYER

Let us pray.

All-powerful God, preserve us, your children from all dangers by the power of your might, and through the intercession of blessed Mary ever-virgin, let us enjoy both present and future well-being. This we ask through Christ our Lord.

The Office of None of the Day follows immediately. If, by exception, it does not, then the Prayer terminates with the long ending and the following verses:

y. O Lord, hear my prayer,
If. And let my cry come to you.
V. Let us praise the Lord,
If. And give him thanks.

VESPERS

INTRODUCTION

Silent prayer (about the time of a Hail Mary)

Sign of the cross.

O God, come to my assistance.

Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, is now and will be for ever. Amen.

Alleluia. In Lent: Praise to you, Lord, King of eternal glory.

HYMN

Hail, Virgin Mary, Star of the sea, God's holy Mother and heaven's fair gate.

Through Gabriel's "Ave" you are the new Eve who restores what had fallen and brings lasting peace.

Free us from bondage, give light to the blind; save us from evil, and pray for our good.

Through you may your Son receive our prayers; from you he was born: Be a mother to us.

Incomparable Virgin, meekest of all, make us pure and gentle and free from our sins.

Make our life holy, our pilgrimage safe, until we see Jesus in joy without end.

Let one praise be given to God the Father,

to Christ in his glory and their Holy Spirit. Amen.

Alternative version:

Hail, O star of ocean,
Portal of the sky, Ever-virgin Mother of the Lord most high.

O by Gabriel's "Ave", uttered long ago, Eva's name reversing, establish peace below.

Break the captive's fetters, light on blindness pour, all our ills expelling, every bliss implore.

Show yourself a Mother, offer him our prayer, who, for us incarnate, digned your flesh to share.

Virgin of all virgins, meekest of the mild, free from guilt preserve us, meek and undefiled.

Still as on we journey help our weak endeavor, till with you and Jesus we rejoice for ever.

Through the highest heaven to the almighty Three, Father, Son and Spirit, one same glory be.
Amen.

PSALMODY

Ant. As a lily among thorns, so is my beloved among women. Cant. 2,2

Psalm 109 The Messiah, king and priest

The Lord's revelation to my Master:

"Sit on my right:

your foes I will put beneath your feet."

The Lord will wield from Zion

your sceptre of power:

rule in the midst of all your foes.

A prince from the day of your birth

on the holy mountains;

from the womb before the dawn I begot you.

The Lord has sworn an oath he will not change.

"You are a priest forever,

a priest like Melchizedek of old."

The Master standing at your right hand will shatter kings in the day of his wrath.

He, the Judge of the nations, will heap high the bodies;

heads shall be shattered far and wide.

He shall drink from the stream by the wayside and therefore he shall lift up his head.

Psalm 112 Praise the name of the Lord

Praise, O servants of the Lord, praise the name of the Lord!

May the name of the Lord be blessed both now and forevermore!

From the rising of the sun to its setting praised be the name of the Lord!

High above all nations is the Lord,

above the heavens his glory.

Who is like the Lord, our God, who has risen on high to his throne Yet stoops from the heights to look down, to look down upon heaven and earth?

From the dust he lifts up the lowly, from the dungheap he raises the poor To set him in the company of princes, yes, with the princes of his people. To the childless wife he gives a home and gladdens her heart with children.

Psalm 121 The holy city,
Jerusalem

I rejoiced when I heard them say: "Let us go to God's house." And now our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem.

Jerusalem is built as a city strongly compact. It is there that the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord.

For Israel's law it is, there to praise the Lord's name. There were set the thrones of judgment of the house of David.

For the peace of Jerusalem pray:
"Peace be to your homes! May peace
reign in your walls, in your palaces,
peace!"

For love of my brethren and Mends I say:
"Peace upon you!" For love of the house of the Lord I will ask for your good.

Psalm 126 Apart from God our labors are
worthless

If the Lord does not build the house, in vain do its builders labor; if the Lord does not watch over the city, in vain does the watchman keep vigil.

In vain is your earlier rising,
your going later to rest,
You who toil for the bread you eat:
when he pours gifts on his beloved while they slumber.

Truly sons are a gift from the Lord, a blessing, the fruit of the womb. Indeed the sons of youth are like arrows in the hand of a warrior.

O the happiness of the man
who has filled his quiver with these arrows!
He will have no cause for shame
when he disputes with his foes in the gateways.

Psalm 147 The restoration of Jerusalem

O praise the Lord, Jerusalem!
Zion, praise your God!

He has strengthened the bars of your gates, he has blessed the children within you. He established peace on your borders, he feeds you with finest wheat.

He sends out his word to the earth and swiftly runs his command. He showers down snow white as wool, he scatters hoar-frost like ashes.

He hurls down hailstones like crumbs. The waters are frozen at his touch; He sends forth his word and it melts them: at the breath of his mouth the waters flow.

He makes his word known to Jacob, to Israel his laws and decrees. He has not dealt thus with other nations; he has not taught them his decrees.

Ant. As a lily among thorns, so is my beloved among women. Cant. 2,2

READING

Sir. 24,13-14

Like a cedar on Lebanon I am raised aloft, like a cypress on Mount Hermon, like a palm tree in Engedi, like a rosebush in Jericho. R/. Thanks be to God. V/. Hail Mary, full of grace, R/. The Lord is with you. Lk. 1,28

GOSPEL CANTICLE

Ant. You are all-beautiful, my beloved, and there is no blemish in you. Cant. 4,7

Magnificat

Lk. 1,46-55

My soul magnifies the Lord,
and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,
for he has regarded the low estate

of his handmaiden.

For behold, henceforth all generations

will call me blessed;

for he who is mighty has done great things for me, and holy is his name. And his mercy is on those who fear him from generation to generation.

He has shown strength with his arm,
 he has scattered the proud in the imagination
 of their hearts,
 he has put down the mighty from their thrones, and exalted those of low degree; he has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent empty away.
 He has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy, as he spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and to his posterity for ever.

Ant. You are all-beautiful, my beloved, and there is no blemish in you. Cant. 4,7

PRAYER

Let us pray.

Father, you gave the human race eternal salvation
 through the motherhood of the Virgin Mary. May
 we experience the help of her prayers in our lives, for through her we received the very source of life, your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

R/. Amen.

V/. O Lord, hear my prayer,

R/. And let my cry come to you.

V/. Let us praise the Lord,

R/. And give him thanks.

COMPLINE OF THE DAY

This Office precedes Compline of the B. Virgin.

INTRODUCTION

Silent prayer. Examination of conscience.

I confess to God that I have sinned exceedingly by my fault through pride, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do; I ask blessed Mary and all the saints to pray for me.

May almighty God have mercy on me through the intercession of blessed Mary and all the saints. May he forgive me all my sins and lead me to everlasting life.

Sign of the cross.

Restore us, O God our savior,

And abandon your displeasure against us. Ps. 84,5

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, is now and will be for ever.
Amen.

Alleluia. In Lent: Praise to you, Lord, King of eternal glory.

HYMN

O Christ, you are true day, who scatter the dark of night; Light from Light, you lead us to light that has no end.

We ask you, Lord, defend us and be yourself our rest, and may the night approaching be one of calm and peace.

Lest troubled sleep disturb us, or demon catch off guard, and passion yield to prompting and we be charged with guilt:

While eyes are closed in sleep let hearts keep constant watch. May your protection keep us, who serve you, Lord, with love.

Stand by us, our defender! Ward off all attacks. Guide us, your faithful servants, purchased with your blood.

Remember us, O Lord! The body weighs us down. Keep our souls in safety and never leave us, Lord.

Glory to God the Father and to his only Son, as to the Holy Spirit, both now and evermore. Amen.

THE DOXOLOGY FOR THE DIFFERENT LITURGICAL SEASONS

From Christmas Day until Epiphany exclusive:

Glory to you, Lord, Born of a virgin, To the Father and the Spirit, Through endless ages. Amen.

From the Epiphany until the Baptism of our Lord inclusive:

Glory to you, Lord, who showed yourself today; to the Father and the Spirit, through endless ages. Amen.

From Easter Sunday until the Ascension exclusive:

Glory to you, Lord, risen from the dead, to the Father and the Spirit, through endless ages. Amen.

From the Ascension until Pentecost exclusive:

Glory to you, Lord, who ascended above the stars; to the Father and the Spirit, through endless ages. Amen.

Pentecost Sunday and Monday:

Praise be to the Father, to the Son, and also to the Holy Counselor;

may the Son send us
the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Alternative version:

O Christ, true Light, eternal Day, you chase night's darkness far away; O splendor of the Father's light, you show his glories to our sight.

O holy Lord, hear our request: Defend us through the nightly hours. O may it be upon your breast that peaceful sleep and rest be ours.

Drive far the heavy sleep of sin lest the untiring foe steal in, and with his foul and deadly guile the weak consenting flesh defile.

Grant while our eyes are closed in sleep our hearts may watch continually, and let your arm securely keep each one of this your family.

O Christ our Savior, you behold our enemy both sly and bold; defend and guide your servants whom your Precious Blood redeemed from doom.

Forget us not, O blessed Lord, weighed down with body, flesh and sin. O Jesus, of our souls the guard, preserve our hearts and dwell therein.

All glory to the Father be, to Son be glory equally, whom with the Spirit we adore, one God both now and evermore. Amen.

THE DOXOLOGY FOR THE DIFFERENT LITURGICAL SEASONS

From Christmas until Epiphany exclusive:

We praise you, Christ, of David's stem, of Virgin born in Bethlehem, who with the Father reign above, in the one Spirit, One in Love. Amen.

From the Epiphany until the Baptism of our Lord inclusive:

We praise you, Christ, Eternal Light, whose glory now transforms our night, who with the Father reign above, in the one Spirit, One in Love. Amen.

From Easter Sunday until the Ascension exclusive:

O Lion of Judah, praise to you! who shatter death, and life renew! who with the Father reign above, in the one Spirit,
One in Love. Amen.

From the Ascension until Pentecost exclusive:

We praise you, Christ, whose battle scars have raised mankind above the stars! who with the Father reign above, in the one Spirit, One in Love.
Amen.

Pentecost Sunday and Monday:

May Jesus, who for us has died and risen, at the Father's side now send the Spirit to make us free! All praise to you, O Trinity. Amen.

PSALMODY

Ant. Alleluia.

Ant. in Lent: Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit. Ps. 30,6

Psalm 4 Thanksgiving

When I call, answer me, O God of justice;
from anguish you released me,

have mercy and hear me!

O men, how long will your hearts be closed, will you love what is futile and seek what is false?

It is the Lord who grants favors

to those whom he loves;
the Lord hears me whenever I call him.

Fear him; do not sin: ponder on your bed and be still.
Make justice your sacrifice and trust in the Lord.

"What can bring us happiness?" many say.
Lift up the light of your face on us, O Lord.

You have put into my heart a greater joy than they have from abundance of corn and new wine.

I will lie down in peace and sleep comes at once for you alone, Lord, make me dwell in safety.

Psalm 90 Safe in God's sheltering care

He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High and abides in the shade of the Almighty Says to the Lord:
"My refuge, my stronghold, my God in whom I trust!"

It is he who will free you from the snare of the fowler who seeks to destroy you; He will conceal you with his pinions and under his wings you will find refuge.

You will not fear the terror of the night nor the arrow that flies by day, Nor the plague that prowls in the darkness nor the scourge that lays waste at noon.

A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand fall at your right, You, it will never approach; his faithfulness is buckler and shield.

Your eyes have only to look to see how the wicked are repaid,
You who have said: "Lord, my refuge!"
and have made the Most High your dwelling.

Upon you no evil shall fall, no plague approach where you dwell. For you has he commanded his angels, to keep you in all your ways.

They shall bear you upon their hands lest you strike your foot against a stone. On the lion and the viper you will tread and trample the young lion and the dragon.

Since he clings to me in love, I will free him;
protect him for he knows my name.
When he calls I shall answer: "I am with you."
I will save him in distress and give him glory.
With length of life I will content him;
I shall let him see my saving power.

Psalm 133 Evening prayer in the Temple

O come, bless the Lord,
all you who serve the Lord,
Who stand in the house of the Lord,
in the courts of the house of our God.
Lift up your hands to the holy place
and bless the Lord through the night.

May the Lord bless you from Zion, he who made both heaven and earth.

Ant. Alleluia.

Ant. in Lent: Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit. Ps. 30,6

READING

Jer. 14,9

You are in our midst, O Lord, your name we bear; do not forsake us, O Lord, our God. R/. Thanks be to God.

V/. Keep us, O Lord, as the apple of your eye, R/. Hide us in the shadow of your wings. (Alleluia, alleluia.) Ps.
16,8

PROFESSION OF FAITH

The Apostles' Creed

We believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

We believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, Our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

Lord, have mercy (3). Christ, have mercy (3). Lord, have mercy (3).

Silent prayer (Our Father, Hail Mary).

Blessed are you, O Lord, the God of our fathers, And praiseworthy, and glorious, and exalted above all for ever. Dan. 3,52

Let us bless the Father and the Son with the Holy Spirit; Let us praise and exalt him above all for ever.

Blessed are you, O Lord, in the firmament of heaven;

And praiseworthy, and glorious, and exalted above all for ever. Dan. 3,56

May the all-powerful God bless us. Amen.

Keep us this night, Lord,
From all sin.

Lord, show us your love and mercy, For we put our trust in you. Ps. 32,22

Let your priests be clothed with holiness; Let your faithful ring out their joy. Ps. 131,9

Lord, assist those who govern;
Answer us when we call upon you. Cf. Ps. 19,10

Save your people, Lord, bless your heritage; Ps. 27,9 Be their shepherd and carry them for ever.

Grant us to live in peace under your protection; Keep our hearts free from care. Cf. Ps. 121,7

Be mindful of the faithful who have died. Grant them eternal rest, O Lord, and may your light shine on them
for ever.

Lord, remember our brothers who are absent. Take care of them for they put their trust in you.

Lord, be generous to our benefactors. Grant them everlasting life for the sake of your holy name.

Have compassion on those who suffer or are held in captivity.

Deliver them, O God of Israel, from all their tribulations.
Cf. Ps. 24,22

Draw us back to yourself, O Lord, our God.
Show us your face and we shall be saved. Cf. Ps. 79,4

On days when we kneel for the Prayers of Intercession, unless it be a feast of 3 lessons, Ps. 50 is said. The Converse and Donates are not obliged to. The nuns may say another psalm of their choice.

Psalm 50 O God, have mercy on me
(Miserere)

Have mercy on me, God, in your kindness. In your compassion blot out my offence. O wash me more and more from my guilt and cleanse me from my sin.

My offences truly I know them; my sin is always before me. Against you, you alone, have I sinned; what is evil in your sight I have done.

That you may be justified when you give sentence and be without reproach when you judge. O see, in guilt I was born, a sinner was I conceived.

Indeed you love truth in the heart;
then in the secret of my heart teach me wisdom.
O purify me, then I shall be clean;
O wash me, I shall be whiter than snow.

Make me hear rejoicing and gladness, that the bones you have crushed may thrill. From my sins turn away your face and blot out all my guilt.

A pure heart create for me, O God, put a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me away from your presence, nor deprive me of your holy spirit.

Give me again the joy of your help; with a spirit of fervor sustain me, That I may teach transgressors your ways, and sinners may return to you.

O rescue me, God, my helper,
and my tongue shall ring out your goodness.
O Lord, open my lips
and my mouth shall declare your praise.

For in sacrifice you take no delight, burnt offering from me you would refuse. My sacrifice, a contrite spirit. A humbled, contrite heart you will not spurn.

In your goodness, show favor to Zion:
rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.
Then you will be pleased with lawful sacrifice,
burnt offerings wholly consumed,
then you will be offered young bulls on your altar.

PRAYER

Let us pray.

The recitation of the prayers on the days indicated is not obligatory.

Sunday:

Lord, we beg you to visit this house and banish from it all the deadly power of the enemy. May your holy angels dwell here to keep us in peace, and may your blessing be upon us always. This we ask...

On feasts of 12 lessons, in Octaves, and on the Vigil of Christmas¹:

Father, may we be attentive to your Holy Spirit who dwells within us. May he be present in our silence and watch over us as we sleep. This we ask...

Monday, Wednesday, Friday:

Stay with us, Lord, during this night. May we eagerly await the first light of day to spend it in praising you. This we ask...

Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday

Father, we are tired after the day's work. Send peaceful sleep to refresh us so that, in Christ we may rise from sleep in the vigor of your Spirit. This we ask...

COMPLINE OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN

INTRODUCTION

Silent prayer (about the time of a Hail Mary).

Restore us, O God our savior,
And abandon your displeasure against us. Ps. 84,5 Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now and will be for ever. Amen. Alleluia. In Lent:
Praise to you, Lord, King of eternal glory.

HYMN

Remember, Lord our Savior, that for us you once were born as man from the Virgin's womb.

O Mary, Mother of Grace and Steadfast Love, protect us from the foe and at death's hour.

O Mary, Mother of Christ, the Father's Son, give help to all who have recourse to you.

O Virgin blest, with Father, Son and Spirit, be present and grant comfort when we die.

Lord Jesus, Virgin-born, we give you praise, with Father and Holy Spirit eternally. Amen. Alternative version

Remember, O Creator Lord, that in the Virgin's sacred womb you were conceived, and of her flesh did our mortality assume.

Mother of grace, O Mary blest, merciful Mother, hear our cry: Preserve us from the devil's power support us when we come to die.

Mary, Mother of our Lord, the Eternal Father's only Son, bring us timely help and grace when in prayer to you we run.

O Virgin, with your Son divine, with Father and with Spirit too, be present when we breathe our last to strengthen those who trust in you.

All glory be to you, O Lord, born on earth the Virgin's Son; to Father and to Paraclete while endless ages run.
Amen.

PSALMODY

Ant. I will put enmity between you and the woman; she will crush your head. Gen. 3,15

Psalm 4 Thanksgiving

I will lie down in peace and sleep comes at once for you alone, Lord, make me dwell in safety.

Psalm 30,2-6 Trustful prayer in adversity

In you, O Lord, I take refuge. Let me never be put to shame. In your justice, set me free, hear me and speedily rescue me.

Be a rock of refuge for me,
a mighty stronghold to save me,
For you are my rock, my stronghold.
For your name's sake, lead me and guide me.

Release me from the snares they have hidden for you are my refuge, Lord.
Into your hands I commend my spirit.
It is you who will redeem me, Lord.

Psalm 133 Evening prayer in the Temple

O come, bless the Lord,
all you who serve the Lord,
Who stand in the house of the Lord,
in the courts of the house of our God.
Lift up your hands to the holy place
and bless the Lord through the night.
May the Lord bless you from Zion, he who made both heaven and earth.

woman; she will crush your head. Gen. 3,15

READING

Rev. 12,1

A great sign appeared in the sky, a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. R/. Thanks be to God. V/“ God will help her by his presence R/. God is within her, she cannot be shaken. Ps. 45,6

Ant. The queen takes her place at your right hand in gold of Ophir. Ps. 44,10

Nunc dimittis

Lk. 2,29-32

Lord, now you let your servant go in peace; your word has been fulfilled: my own eyes have seen the salvation which you have prepared in the sight of every people: a light to reveal you to the nations and the glory of your people Israel.

Ant. The queen takes her place at your right hand in gold of Ophir. Ps. 44,10

PRAYER

Let us pray.

Lord, take away the sins of your people. May the prayers of Mary the mother of your Son help us, for alone and unaided we cannot hope to please you. This we ask...

One may say here the short ending and the devotional antiphon and prayer which follow, with the gospel reading; or one may say the long ending and pass directly to the concluding verses and the Salve Regina below.

Ant. Holy Mary, you are the help of the unfortunate and the strength of the weak. Console the afflicted, pray for all people, intercede for men and women consecrated to God. Let all those who remember you with devotion experience your help. V/“ Accept my praise, O holy Virgin, R/. Give me strength against your enemies.

PRAYER

Let us pray.

Lord God, give to your people the joy of continual health in mind and body. With the prayers of the Virgin Mary to help us, guide us through the sorrows of this life to eternal happiness in the life to come. This we ask...

Silent prayer (about the time of 3 Our Fathers and 3 Hail Marys.

GOSPELJn. 1,1-14

± Beginning of the holy gospel according to John. R/.

Glory to you, Lord.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God; all things were made through him, and without him was not anything made that was made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came for testimony, to bear witness to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but came to bear witness to the light.

The true light that enlightens every man was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world knew him not. He came to his own home, and his own people received him not. But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God; who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth; we have beheld his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father.

R/. Amen.

ANT.

Cf. Ps. 64,1

You are worthy of praise, you are worthy of hymns. To you, O God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER (Any one of the following may be said.)

All-powerful God, renew us by the incarnation of your Son and free us from our slavery to sin. This we ask...

God, light of all nations, give us the joy of lasting peace. Just as once you enlightened the minds of the Magi, so fill our hearts with your radiant light, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns...

God our Father and protector, without you nothing is holy, nothing has value. Guide us to everlasting life by helping us to use wisely the blessings you have given to the world. This we ask...

CONCLUSION

V/. O Lord, hear my prayer, R/. And let my cry come to you. V/. Let us praise the Lord, R/. And give him thanks.

V/. May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. R/. Amen.

ANTHEM "SALVE REGINA"

Hail, Queen of mercy, (Here we take veniam.) the sweetness of our life and our hope. To you do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To you do we send up our sighs,

mourning and weeping in this vale of tears.
 Turn then, most gracious advocate,
 your eyes of mercy toward us,
 and after this exile
 Show merciful to us the blessed fruit of your womb, Jesus.
 O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

Those who wish may add the V/. and one of the prayers which follow:

y. Hail Mary, full of grace, IV.
 The Lord is with you.

PRAYER

Let us pray.

Lord, take away the sins of your people. May the prayers of Mary the mother of your Son help us, for alone and unaided we cannot hope to please you.
 This we ask... 1.

Lord, receive the prayers of your Church so that it may serve you in freedom, safe from all adversity and error. This we ask... 2.

In your love for us, Lord, show us your mercy. Deliver us from our sins and from the punishment we deserve. Grant us peace in our time and preserve us from all adversity. This we ask... 3.

TO IMPLORE PEACE.

The same Sovereign Pontiff Pius IX., by a decree of the S.

Congr. of Indulgences of May 18 and Sept. 18, 1848, grants -

i. The indulgence of 100 days, to all the faithful, every time that with contrite hearts they say the following Antiphon and Prayer to implore peace from God.

ii. The plenary indulgence to those who shall have said it once a day for a whole month; to be gained on the day when, having Confessed and Communicated, they shall visit a public church, and pray there for a time according to the mind of his Holiness.

Ant. Da pacem, Domine, in diebus nostris: quia non est alius qui pugnet pro nobis, nisi tu Deus noster.

V. Fiat pax in virtute tua,

R. Et abundantia in turribus tuis.

Oremus.

Deus, a quo sancta desideria, recta consilia, et justa sunt opera: da servis tuis illam, quam mundus dare non potest, pacem: ut et corda nostra mandatis tuis dedita, et hostium sublata formidine, tempora sint tua protectione tranquilla. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

TRANSLATION.

Ant. Give peace, O Lord, in our days; for there is none other to fight for us, but only Thou, our God.

V. Let peace be in Thy strength, O Lord,

R. And plenty in Thy strong places.

Let us pray.

O God, from whom proceed all holy desires, all right counsels and just works; grant unto us Thy servants that peace which the world cannot give, that our hearts may be devoted to Thy commands, and that, being delivered from the fear of our enemies, we may pass our time in peace under Thy protection. Through Christ our Lord. Amen. - Raccolta

The Office of the Day

PRIME

INTRODUCTION

Silent prayer (Our Father, Hail Mary)

Sign of the cross. (If no other Office precedes this.)

O God, come to my assistance.

Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, is now and will be for ever. Amen.

Alleluia. In Lent: Praise to you, Lord, King of eternal glory.

HYMN

Now the sun has risen let us ask our God in all we do today to keep us safe from harm.

May he guard our every word that discord not arise, and also shield our eyes from seeing what is vain.

Keep pure our inmost heart, sin's folly far away, while temperance in food and drink restrains unchecked desire.

So that as day declines and night again draws near, made clean through self-denial we may sing your praise.

Glory to God the Father and to his only Son, as to the Holy Spirit, both now and evermore. Amen.

THE DOXOLOGY FOR THE DIFFERENT LITURGICAL SEASONS

From Christmas Day until Epiphany exclusive:

Glory to you, Lord, Born of a virgin, To the Father and the Spirit, Through endless ages.
Amen.

From the Epiphany until the Baptism of our Lord inclusive:

Glory to you, Lord, who showed yourself today; to the Father and the Spirit, through endless ages.
Amen.

From Easter Sunday until the Ascension exclusive:

Glory to you, Lord, risen from the dead, to the Father and the Spirit, through endless ages.
Amen.

From the Ascension until Pentecost exclusive:

Glory to you, Lord, who ascended above the stars; to the Father and the Spirit, through endless ages. Amen.

Pentecost Sunday and Monday:

Praise be to the Father, to the Son, and also to the Holy Counselor; may the Son send us
the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Alternative version:

The star of morn to night succeeds; we therefore humbly pray: may God, in all our words and deeds, keep us from harm this day.

May he in love our tongue restrain lest words of strife our speech should stain, and wrap around and close our eyes to earth's absorbing vanities.

May every heart be pure from sin and folly find no place therein; excess of food and drink denied wear down in us the body's pride.

So when the weary day is o'er and night and stillness come once more, we, free from cares the world affords, may chant the praise that is our Lord's.

All praise to God the Father be, to Son and Spirit equally; three Persons yet in Godhead
One, unchanged while endless ages run. Amen.

THE DOXOLOGY FOR THE DIFFERENT LITURGICAL SEASONS

From Christmas until Epiphany exclusive:

We praise you, Christ, of David's stem, of Virgin born in Bethlehem, who with the Father reign above, in the one Spirit, One in Love. Amen.

From the Epiphany until the Baptism of our Lord inclusive:

We praise you, Christ, Eternal Light, whose glory now transforms our night, who with the Father reign above, in the one Spirit, One in Love. Amen.

From Easter Sunday until the Ascension exclusive:

O Lion of Judah, praise to you! who shatter death, and life renew! who with the Father reign above, in the one Spirit, One in Love. Amen.

From the Ascension until Pentecost exclusive:

We praise you, Christ, whose battle scars have raised mankind above the stars! who with the Father reign above, in the one Spirit, One in Love.
Amen.

Pentecost Sunday and Monday:

May Jesus, who for us has died and risen, at the Father's side now send the Spirit to make us free! All praise to you, O Trinity.
Amen.

PSALMODY

SUNDAY Ant.

Alleluia (4 times).

Psalm 118,1-8:1 (Aleph) Meditation on God's law

They are happy whose life is blameless,
who follow God's law!
They are happy who do his will,
seeking him with all their hearts,
Who never do anything evil
but walk in his ways.
You have laid down your precepts
to be obeyed with care.
May my footsteps be firm
to obey your statutes.
Then I shall not be put to shame
as I heed your commands.
I will thank you with an upright heart
as I learn your decrees.
I will obey your statutes:
do not forsake me.

Psalm 118,9-16: II (Beth)

How shall the young remain sinless?
By obeying your word.
I have sought you with all my heart:
let me not stray from your commands.
I treasure your promise in my heart
lest I sin against you.
Blessed are you, O Lord;
teach me your statutes.
With my tongue I have recounted
the decrees of your lips.

I rejoiced to do your will
as though all riches were mine.
I will ponder all your precepts
and consider your paths.
I take delight in your statutes;
I will not forget your word.

Psalm 118,17-24: III (Gimel)

Bless your servant and I shall live
and obey your word.
Open my eyes that I may consider
the wonders of your law.
I am a pilgrim on the earth;
show me your commands.
My soul is ever consumed
in longing for your decrees.
You threaten the proud, the accursed,
who turn from your commands.
Relieve me from scorn and contempt
for I do your will.
Though princes sit plotting against me
I ponder on your statutes.
Your will is my delight;
your statutes are my counsellors.

Psalm 118,25-32: IV (Daleth)

My soul lies in the dust;
by your word revive me.
I declared my ways and you answered:
teach me your statutes.
Make me grasp the way of your precepts
and I will muse on your wonders.
My soul pines away with grief;
by your word raise me up.
Keep me from the way of error
and teach me your law.

I have chosen the way of truth
with your decrees before me.
I bind myself to do your will;
Lord, do not disappoint me.
I will run the way of your commands;
you give freedom to my heart.

Ant. Alleluia (4).

MONDAY Ant. Serve

the Lord with awe. Ps. 2,11

Psalm 1 There are two ways a man may take

Happy indeed is the man who follows not the counsel of the wicked;
Nor lingers in the way of sinners
nor sits in the company of scorners,
But whose delight is the law of the Lord and who ponders his law day and night.

He is like a tree that is planted beside the flowing waters, That yields its fruit in due season and whose leaves shall never fade; And all that he does shall prosper.
Not so are the wicked, not so!

For they like winnowed chaff shall be driven away by the wind.
When the wicked are judged they shall not stand, nor find room among those who are just;
For the Lord guards the way of the just but the way of the wicked leads to doom.

Psalm 2 The Messiah, king and conqueror

Why this tumult among nations, among peoples this useless murmuring?
They arise, the kings of the earth,
princes plot against the Lord and his Anointed.
"Come, let us break their fetters, come, let us cast off their yoke."

He who sits in the heavens laughs; the Lord is laughing them to scorn. Then he will speak in his anger, his rage will strike them with terror. "It is I who have set up my king on Zion, my holy mountain."

I will announce the decree of the Lord: The Lord said to me: "You are my Son. It is I who have begotten you this day. Ask and I shall bequeath you the nations, put the ends of the earth in your possession. With a rod of iron you will break them, shatter them like a potter's jar."

Now, O kings, understand, take warning, rulers of the earth;
Serve the Lord with awe and trembling, pay him your homage Lest he be angry and you perish;
for suddenly his anger will blaze.
Blessed are they who put their trust in God.

Psalm 6 A suffering man cries to God for mercy

Lord, do not reprove me in your anger;
punish me not, in your rage.
Have mercy on me, Lord, I have no strength;

Lord, heal me, my body is racked; my soul is racked with pain.

But you, O Lord... how long?
Return, Lord, rescue my soul.
Save me in your merciful love;
for in death no one remembers you;
from the grave, who can give you praise?

I am exhausted with my groaning;
every night I drench my pillow with tears;
I bedew my bed with weeping.
My eye wastes away with grief;
I have grown old surrounded by my foes.

Leave me, all you who do evil; for the Lord has heard my weeping. The Lord has heard my plea; The Lord will accept my prayer. All my foes will retire in confusion, foiled and suddenly confounded.

Ant. Serve the Lord with awe. Ps. 2, 11 For the rest turn to page 134.

TUESDAY Ant. Lord God, I take refuge in you. Ps. 7, 1 t

Psalm 7

Prayer of a God-fearing man who is being calumniated

Lord God, I take refuge in you. t
From my pursuer save me and rescue me,
Lest he tear me to pieces like a lion
and drag me off with no one to rescue me.

Lord God, if my hands have done wrong, if I have paid back evil for good, I who saved my unjust oppressor: Then let my foe pursue me
and seize me, let him trample my life to the ground and lay my soul in the dust.

Lord, rise up in your anger,
rise against the fury of my foes;
my God, awake! You will give judgment.
Let the company of nations gather round you,
taking your seat above them on high.
The Lord is judge of the peoples.

Give judgment for me, Lord; I am just
and innocent of heart.
Put an end to the evil of the wicked!
Make the just stand firm,
you who test mind and heart,
O just God!

God is the shield that protects me,
who saves the upright of heart.
God is a just judge
slow to anger;
But he threatens the wicked every day,
men who will not repent.

God will sharpen his sword;
he has braced his bow and taken aim.
For them he has prepared deadly weapons;
he barbs his arrows with fire.
Here is one who is pregnant with malice,
conceives evil and brings forth lies.

He digs a pitfall, digs it deep;
and in the trap he has made he will fall.
His malice will recoil on himself;
on his own head his violence will fall.

I will thank the Lord for his justice: I will sing to the Lord, the Most High.

Psalm 8 The majesty of the Lord and man's dignity

How great is your name, O Lord our God,
through all the earth!

Your majesty is praised above the heavens; on the lips of children and of babes you have found praise to foil your enemy, to silence the foe and the rebel.

When I see the heavens, the work of your hands, The moon and the stars which you arranged, What is man that you should keep him in mind, mortal man that you care for him?

Yet you have made him little less than a god; with glory and honor you crowned him, Gave him power over the works of your hand, put all things under his feet.

All of them, sheep and cattle,
yes, even the savage beasts,
Birds of the air, and fish
that make their way through the waters.

How great is your name, O Lord our God,
through all the earth!

Psalm 9, A Thanksgiving for victory

I will praise you, Lord, with all my heart;
I will recount all your wonders.
I will rejoice in you and be glad,
and sing psalms to your name, O Most High.

See how my enemies turn back,
how they stumble and perish before you.

You upheld the justice of my cause; you sat enthroned, judging with justice.

You have checked the nations, destroyed the wicked; you have wiped out their name forever and ever. The foe is destroyed, eternally ruined. You uprooted their cities; their memory has perished.

But the Lord sits enthroned forever. He has set up his throne for judgment; He will judge the world with justice, he will judge the peoples with his truth.

For the oppressed let the Lord be a stronghold, a stronghold in times of distress. Those who know your name will trust you: you will never forsake those who seek you.

Sing psalms to the Lord who dwells in Zion. Proclaim his mighty works among the peoples; For the Avenger of blood has remembered them, has not forgotten the cry of the poor.

Have pity on me, Lord, see my sufferings, you who save me from the gates of death; That I may recount all your praise at the gates of the city of Zion and rejoice in your saving help.

The nations have fallen in the pit which they made, their feet caught in the snare they laid. The Lord has revealed himself, and given judgment. The wicked are snared in the work of their own hands.

Let the wicked go down among the dead, all the nations forgetful of God. For the needy shall not always be forgotten nor the hopes of the poor be in vain.

Ant. Lord God, I take refuge in you. Ps. 7,1

For the rest turn to page 134.

WEDNESDAY

Ant. Arise, Lord, let men not prevail. Ps. 9,20 ±

Psalm 9 B Thanksgiving

Arise, Lord, let men not prevail! t Let the nations be judged before you. Lord, strike them with terror, let the nations know they are but men.

Lord, why do you stand afar off and hide yourself in tunes of distress?
The poor man is devoured by the pride of the wicked:
he is caught in the schemes that others have made.

For the wicked man boasts of his heart's desires; the covetous blasphemes and spurns the Lord. In his pride the wicked says: "He will not punish. There is no God." Such are his thoughts.

His path is ever untroubled; your judgment is far from his mind. His enemies he regards with contempt. He thinks: "Never shall I falter: misfortune shall never be my lot."

His mouth is full of cursing, guile, oppression, mischief and deceit under his tongue. He lies in wait among the reeds; the innocent he murders in secret.

His eyes are on the watch for the helpless man.
He lurks in hiding like a lion in his lair;
He lurks in hiding to seize the poor;
he seizes the poor man and drags him away.

He crouches, preparing to spring,
and the helpless fall beneath his strength.

He thinks in his heart: "God forgets, he hides his face, he does not see."

Arise then, Lord, lift up your hand!

O God, do not forget the poor!

Why should the wicked spurn the Lord and think in his heart: "He will not punish"?

But you have seen the trouble and sorrow, you note it, you take it in hand. The helpless trusts himself to you; for you are the helper of the orphan.

Break the power of the wicked and the shiner! Punish his wickedness till nothing remains! The Lord is king forever and ever. The heathen shall perish from the land he rules.

Lord, you hear the prayer of the poor; you strengthen their hearts; you turn your ear To protect the rights of the orphan and oppressed: so that mortal man may strike terror no more.

Psalm 10 God is the unfailing support of the just

In the Lord I have taken my refuge. How can you say to my soul: "Fly like a bird to its mountain.

See the wicked bracing their bow; they are fixing their arrows on the string To shoot upright men in the dark.

Foundations once destroyed, what can the just do?"

The Lord is in his holy temple, the Lord, whose throne is in heaven. His eyes look down on the world; his gaze tests mortal men.

The Lord tests the just and the wicked: the lover of violence he hates.

He sends fire and brimstone on the wicked; he sends a scorching wind as their lot.

The Lord is just and loves justice: the upright shall see his face.

Psalm 11 A cry for God's help against powerful oppressors

Help, O Lord, for good men have vanished: truth has gone from the sons of men.
Falsehood they speak one to another, with lying lips, with a false heart.

May the Lord destroy all lying lips, the tongue that speaks high-sounding words, Those who say:
"Our tongue is our strength; our lips are our own,
who is our master?"

"For the poor who are oppressed and the needy who groan I myself will arise," says the Lord. "I will grant them the salvation for which they thirst." The words of the Lord are words without alloy, silver from the furnace, seven times refined.

It is you, O Lord, who will take us in your care and protect us forever from this generation. See how the wicked prowl on every side, while the worthless are prized highly

by the sons of men.

Ant. Arise, Lord, let men not prevail. Ps. 9,20 For the rest turn to page 134.

THURSDAY Ant. Let me sing to the Lord for his goodness to me. Ps. 12,7

Psalm 12

The lament of the just man who does not lose hope in God

How long, O Lord, will you forget me? How long will you hide your face? How long must I bear grief in my soul, this sorrow in my heart day and night? How long shall my enemy prevail?

Look at me, answer me, Lord my God! Give light to my eyes lest I fall asleep in death, Lest my enemy say: "I have overcome him"; lest my foes rejoice to see my fall.

As for me, I trust in your merciful love. Let my heart rejoice in your saving help: Let me sing to the Lord for his goodness to me, singing psalms to the name of the Lord,

the Most High.

Psalm 13 The foolishness of sinners

The fool has said in his heart: "There is no God above." Their deeds are corrupt,

From heaven the Lord looks down on the sons of men To see if any are wise, if any seek God.

All have left the right path, depraved, every one: There is not a good man left, no, not even one.

Will the evil-doers not understand? They eat up my people As though they were eating bread: they never pray to the Lord.

See how they tremble with fear without cause for fear:
for God is with the just.
You may mock the poor man's hope,
but his refuge is the Lord.

O that Israel's salvation might come from Zion! When the Lord delivers his people from bondage, then Jacob will be glad and Israel rejoice.

Psalm 14 Who is worthy to stand in God's presence?

Lord, who shall be admitted to your tent and dwell on your holy mountain?

He who walks without fault; he who acts with justice And speaks the truth from his heart;
he who does not slander with his tongue; He who does no wrong to his brother, who casts no slur on his neighbor, Who holds the godless in disdain, but honors those who fear
the Lord;

He who keeps his pledge, come what may; who takes no interest on a loan And accepts no bribes against the innocent. Such a man will stand firm forever.

Ant. Let me sing to the Lord for his goodness to me.
Ps. 12,7

For the rest turn to page 134.

FRIDAY Ant. Preserve me, God, I take refuge in you. Ps. 15,1 ±

Psalm 15 The Lord himself is my heritage

Preserve me, God, I take refuge in you. ± I say to the Lord: "You are my God. My happiness lies in you alone."

He has put into my heart a marvelous love for the faithful ones who dwell in his land. Those who choose other gods increase then* sorrows. Never will I offer their offerings of blood. Never will I take their name upon my lips.

0 Lord, it is you who are my portion and cup;
it is you yourself who are my prize.
The lot marked out for me is my delight: welcome indeed the heritage that falls to me!

I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel, who even at night directs my heart.
I keep the Lord ever in my sight:
since he is at my right hand, I shall stand firm.

And so my heart rejoices, my soul is glad; even my body shall rest in safety. For you will not leave my soul among the dead, nor let your beloved know decay.

You will show me the path of life, the fullness of joy in your presence, at your right hand happiness forever.

Psalm 16
Save me, Lord, from those who hate you Lord, hear a cause that is just,

pay heed to my cry.
Turn your ear to my prayer:
no deceit is on my lips.
From you may my judgment come forth.
Your eyes discern the truth.

You search my heart, you visit me by night. You test me and you find in me no wrong. My words are not sinful as are men's words.

I kept from violence because of your word, I kept my feet firmly in your paths; there was no faltering in my steps.

I am here and I call, you will hear me, O God. Turn your ear to me; hear my words. Display your great love, you whose right hand saves your friends from those who rebel against them.

Guard me as the apple of your eye. Hide me in the shadow of your wings from the violent attack of the wicked.

My foes encircle me with deadly intent.
Their hearts tight shut, their mouths speak proudly.
They advance against me, and now they surround me.

Their eyes are watching to strike me to the ground as though they were lions ready to claw or like some young lion crouched in hiding.

Lord, arise, confront them, strike them down! Let your sword rescue my soul from the wicked; Let your hand, O Lord, rescue me from men, from men whose reward is in this present life.

You give them their fill of your treasures; they rejoice in abundance of offspring and leave their wealth to their children.

As for me, in my justice I shall see your face and be filled, when I awake,

with the sight of your glory.

Psalm 17,2-25

Thanksgiving for salvation and victory I love you, Lord, my strength, my rock, my fortress, my savior. My God is the rock where I take refuge; my shield, my mighty help, my stronghold. The Lord is worthy of all praise: when I call I am saved from my foes.

The waves of death rose about me; the torrents of destruction assailed me; The snares of the grave entangled me; the traps of death confronted me.

In my anguish I called to the Lord; I cried to my God for help. From his temple he heard my voice; my cry came to his ears.

Then the earth reeled and rocked; the mountains were shaken to their base: they reeled at his terrible anger. Smoke came forth from his nostrils and scorching fire from his mouth: coals were set ablaze by its heat.

He lowered the heavens and came down, a black cloud under his feet. He came enthroned on the cherubim, he flew on the wings of the wind.

He made the darkness his covering, the dark waters of the clouds, his tent. A brightness shone out before him with hailstones and flashes of fire.

The Lord thundered in the heavens; the Most High let his voice be heard. He shot his arrows, scattered the foe, flashed his lightnings, and put them to flight.

The bed of the ocean was revealed; the foundations of the world were laid bare At the thunder of your threat, O Lord, at the blast of the breath of your anger.

From on high he reached down and seized me; he drew me forth from the mighty waters. He snatched me from my powerful foe, from my enemies whose strength I could not match.

They assailed me in the day of my misfortune, but the Lord was my support. He brought me forth into freedom, he saved me because he loved me.

He rewarded me because I was just, repaid me, for my hands were clean, For I have kept the way of the Lord and have not fallen away from my God.

For his judgments are all before me: I have never neglected his commands. I have always been upright before him; I have kept myself from guilt. He repaid me because I was just and my hands were clean in his eyes.

Ant. Preserve me, God, I take refuge in you. Ps. 15,1 For the rest turn to page 134.

SATURDAY

Ant. Long life to the Lord! Praised be the God who saves me. Ps. 17,47

Psalm 17,26-51 Hymn of thanksgiving

You are loving with those who love you:

you show yourself perfect with the perfect.

With the sincere you show yourself sincere, but the cunning you outdo in cunning. For you save a humble people but humble the eyes that are proud.

You, O Lord, are my lamp,
my God who lightens my darkness.
With you I can break through any barrier, with my God I can scale any wall.

As for God, his ways are perfect; the word of the Lord, purest gold. He indeed is the shield of all who make him their refuge.

For who is God but the Lord? Who is a rock but our God? The God who girds me with strength and makes the path safe before me.

My feet you made swift as the deer's; you have made me stand firm on the heights. You have trained my hands for battle and my arms to bend the heavy bow.

You gave me your saving shield; you upheld me, trained me with care. You gave me freedom for my steps; my feet have never slipped.

I pursued and overtook my foes, never turning back till they were slain. I smote them so they could not rise; they fell beneath my feet.

You girded me with strength for battle; you made my enemies fall beneath me, You made my foes take flight; those who hated me I destroyed.

They cried, but there was no one to save them; they cried to the Lord, but in vain. I crushed them fine as dust before the wind; trod them down like dirt in the streets.

You saved me from the feuds of the people and put me at the head of the nations. People unknown to me served me: when they heard of me they obeyed me.

Foreign nations came to me cringing:
foreign nations faded away.
They came trembling out of their strongholds.

Long life to the Lord, my rock!
Praised be the God who saves me, The God who gives me redress and subdues people under me.

You saved me from my furious foes.
You set me above my assailants.
You saved me from violent men,
So I will praise you, Lord, among the nations:
I will sing a psalm to your name.

He has given great victories to his king and shown his love for his anointed, for David and his sons forever.

Psalm 18
Praise of the Lord, Creator of all, who gave us the law of love

The heavens proclaim the glory of God
and the firmament shows forth the work of his hands.
Day unto day takes up the story
and night unto night makes known the message.

No speech, no word, no voice is heard
yet their span extends through all the earth,
their words to the utmost bounds of the world.

There he has placed a tent for the sun;
it comes forth like a bridegroom coming from his tent,
rejoices like a champion to run its course.

At the end of the sky is the rising of the sun; to the furthest end of the sky is its course. There is nothing concealed from its burning heat.

The law of the Lord is perfect, it revives
the soul. The rule of the Lord is to be trusted, it gives wisdom to the simple.

The precepts of the Lord are right,
they gladden the heart. The command of the Lord is clear, it gives light to the eyes.

The fear of the Lord is holy,
abiding forever.

The decrees of the Lord are truth and
all of them just.

They are more to be desired than gold,
than the purest of gold and sweeter are they than honey, than honey from the comb.

So in them your servant finds instruction;
great reward is in their keeping. But who can detect all his errors? From hidden faults
acquit me.

From presumption restrain your servant and let it not rule me. Then shall I be blameless, clean from grave sin.

May the spoken words of my mouth, the thoughts of my heart, Win favor in your sight, O Lord, my rescuer, my rock!

Psalm 19 A prayer for the king's victory

May the Lord answer in time of trial; may the name of Jacob's God protect you.

May he send you help from his shrine and give you support from Zion. May he remember all your offerings and receive your sacrifice with favor.

May he give you your heart's desire and fulfil every one of your plans. May we ring out our joy at your victory and rejoice in the name of our God. May the Lord grant all your prayers.

I am sure now that the Lord will give victory to his anointed, Will reply from his holy heaven with the mighty victory of his hand.

Some trust in chariots or horses, but we in the name of the Lord. They will collapse and fall, but we shall hold and stand firm.

Give victory to the king, O Lord, give answer on the day we call.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Any one of the three Creeds which follow:

The Apostles' Creed

We believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

We believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, Our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, one in Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he was born of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered, died, and was buried. On the third day he rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the body, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Creed attributed to St Athanasius

Creed attributed to St Athanasius

Whoever holds the Catholic faith and wishes to be saved must preserve this faith whole and untarnished.

Now the Catholic faith is this: that we worship one God in Trinity, and Trinity in Unity.

Neither confounding the persons, nor dividing the nature.

For the person of the Father is distinct, the person of the Son is distinct, and the person of the Holy Spirit is distinct.

But the Godhead of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit is one, the glory equal, the majesty co-eternal. Such as the Father is, such is the Son, and such is the Holy Spirit:

The Father uncreated, the Son uncreated, the Holy Spirit uncreated; the Father infinite, the Son infinite, the Holy Spirit infinite; the Father eternal, the Son eternal, the Holy Spirit eternal.

And yet there are not three eternals, but one Eternal, as also there are not three uncreateds, nor three infinities, but one Uncreated and one Infinite.

So likewise the Father is almighty, the Son is almighty, the Holy Spirit is almighty,

And yet there are not three almighties, but one Almighty.

So also the Father is God, the Son is God, and the Holy Spirit is God,

And yet there are not three Gods, but one God.

So too the Father is Lord, the Son is Lord, and the Holy Spirit is Lord,

And yet there are not three Lords, but one Lord.

For just as we are compelled by Christian truth to profess that each Person is individually God and Lord, so are we also forbidden by the Catholic religion to hold that there are three Gods or three Lords.

The Father was made by no one, being neither created nor begotten.

The Son is from the Father alone, not made, nor created, but begotten.

The Holy Spirit is from the Father and the Son, not made, nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding.

So there is one Father, not three Fathers, there is one Son, not three Sons, there is one Holy Spirit, not three Holy Spirits.

And in this Trinity there is no before or after, there is no greater or lesser, but all three Persons are co-eternal and co-equal, so that in every respect the Unity in Trinity and Trinity in Unity is worshipped.

That is what we must believe about the Trinity if we want to arrive at salvation.

We must also believe rightly in the Incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The true faith is that we believe and confess that our Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is God and man:

God, begotten of the Father before the world began;

Man, born in the world of a human mother:

Perfect God and perfect man, composed of a rational soul and a human body.

Equal to the Father as God, less than the Father as man.

And, although he is God and Man, still he is only one Christ, not two:

One, however, not by changing of the Godhead into flesh, but by taking of the manhood into God;

One only, not by confusion of natures, but by the unity of his Person.

For, just as the rational soul and the body form one man, so God and man form one Christ.

He suffered for our salvation, he descended to the dead,

On the third day he rose again.

He ascended into heaven, and sits at the right hand of God the Father almighty.

He will come to judge the living and the dead.

At his coming all people shall rise with their bodies and shall give account for their deeds.

Those who have done good shall go into eternal life but those who have done evil into eternal fire.

This is the Catholic faith.

Whoever believes it fully and firmly is on the way of eternal salvation.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, is now and will be for ever. Amen.

Choice of this Creed is reserved to the nuns.

The Creed of St. Bruno

I firmly believe in the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit: the unbegotten Father, the only-begotten Son, and the Holy Spirit who proceeds from them both. I believe these three Persons are one God.

I believe further that this Son of God was conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary, a Virgin most pure not only before giving birth, but also in the act, and forever thereafter. I believe that the Son of God was conceived as a man among men, yet without sin; that he was arrested and treated with contempt: unjustly bound, spat upon, and scourged; that he died, was buried, and descended to the nether world to deliver the faithful who were captive there. He descended to set us free, then rose, and ascended into heaven, and from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the sacraments, according to the faith and devotion of the Catholic Church; in particular, that what is consecrated on the altar is the true Body of Our Lord Jesus Christ, his real Flesh and Blood, which we receive for the forgiveness of our sins, and in hope of eternal salvation. I believe in the resurrection of the body and life eternal. Amen.

I believe and confess that the holy and ineffable Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, is one only God, of one substance and nature, one dignity and power. We believe, moreover, that the Father is neither born nor created, but is unbegotten; that, whereas the Son is born from him, and the Spirit proceeds from him, he draws his origin from no one. He is therefore the source and origin of the entire Divinity. Ineffable in his essence, ineffable also is the manner in which he begot the Son from his own substance, not as something different from himself, but as God from God, Light from Light. From him, then, comes all Paternity, in heaven and on earth. Amen.

May holy Mary and all the saints intercede for us to the Lord, our God, that we may obtain grace and salvation from him who lives and reigns in perfect Trinity, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

PRAYER

Let us pray.

The recitation of the prayers on the days indicated is not obligatory.

Sunday:

All-powerful, eternal God, you have given your children the true faith: they adore you in the glory of your Trinity and in the Oneness of your power and majesty. May the firmness of this belief strengthen us in the face of life's difficulties. This we ask through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

On feasts of 12 lessons, in Octaves, and on the Vigil of Christmas:

Lord, as we begin this day (or: feast day in honor of...) fill us with your grace, so that as we rejoice throughout the day we may find our delight in praising you. This we ask...

Monday, Wednesday, Friday:

Almighty Father, you have brought us to the beginning of a new day: keep us safe the whole day through and preserve us from every sinful inclination. In everything we do inspire us to aim at pleasing you. This we ask...

Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday:

Father, all-powerful and ever-living God, direct our minds and bodies throughout this day, and make us holy. Keep us faithful to your law in thought, word and deed. Be our helper now and always, free us from sin, and bring us to salvation in your kingdom. This we ask...

V/. O Lord, hear my prayer,

R/. And let my cry come to you.

V/. Let us praise the Lord,

R/. And give him thanks.

PSALMODY

SUNDAY Ant.

Alleluia (4 times).

Psalm 118,33-40: V (He)

Teach me the demands of your statutes and I will keep them to the end.
Train me to observe your law,
to keep it with my heart.
Guide me in the path of your commands;
for there is my delight.
Bend my heart to your will
and not to love of gain.
Keep my eyes from what is false:
by your word, give me life.
Keep the promise you have made to the servant who fears you.
Keep me from the scorn I dread,
for your decrees are good.
See, I long for your precepts:
then in your justice, give me life.

Psalm 118,41-48: VI (Vau)

Lord, let your love come upon me,
the saving help of your promise.
Arid I shall answer those who taunt me
for I trust in your word.
Do not take the word of truth from my mouth
for I trust in your decrees.
I shall always keep your law
forever and ever.
I shall walk in the path of freedom
for I seek your precepts.
I will speak of your will before kings
and not be abashed.
Your commands have been my delight;
these I have loved.
I will worship your commands and love them
and ponder your statutes.

Psalm 118,49-56: VII (Zayin)

Remember your word to your servant
by which you gave me hope.
This is my comfort in sorrow
that your promise gives me life.
Though the proud may utterly deride me
I keep to your law.
I remember your decrees of old
and these, Lord, console me.
I am seized with indignation at the wicked
who forsake your law.
Your statutes have become my song
in the land of exile.
I think of your name in the night-time
and I keep your law.
This has been my blessing,
the keeping of your precepts.

Ant. Alleluia (4).

Meditation on God's law

Your word is a lamp for my steps
and a light for my path.
I have sworn and have determined
to obey your decrees.
Lord, I am deeply afflicted:
by your word give me life.
Accept, Lord, the homage of my lips
and teach me your decrees.
Though I carry my life in my hands,
I remember your law.
Though the wicked try to ensnare me
I do not stray from your precepts.
Your will is my heritage forever,
the joy of my heart.
I set myself to carry out your statutes in fullness, for ever.

Psalm 118,113-120: XV (Samech)

I have no love for half-hearted men;
my love is for your law.
You are my shelter, my shield;
I hope in your word.
Leave me, you who do evil;
I will keep God's command.
If you uphold me by your promise I shall live;
let my hopes not be in vain.
Sustain me and I shall be saved
and ever observe your statutes.
You spurn all who swerve from your statutes;
their cunning is in vain.
You throw away the wicked like dross:
so I love your will.
I tremble before you in terror;
I fear your decrees.

Psalm 118,121-128: XVI (Ayin)

I have done what is right and just:
let me not be oppressed.
Vouch for the welfare of your servant
lest the proud oppress me.
My eyes yearn for your saving help
and the promise of your justice.
Treat your servant with love
and teach me your statutes.
I am your servant, make me understand;
then I shall know your will.
It is time for the Lord to act
for your law has been broken.
That is why I love your commands
more than finest gold,
That is why I rule my life by your precepts:
I hate false ways.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION: turn to page 387.

PRAYER

Let us pray.

The choice is completely free:

Monday and Thursday:

1.

Lord, by the sacraments of your Church you conform us to the likeness of Christ and make us sharers in the divine life. Let the light of your face shine upon us. This we ask through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

2.

Lord, you have signed us with Christ's cross and anointed us with the Holy Spirit. May the grace of our baptism reach its full development by a life lived in fidelity to our engagement. This we ask...

3.

Father, you have drawn us by your Spirit and led us into solitude to make us one with you in ultimate love. Make your divine love burn always in our hearts as we listen in the silence for your Word, who lives and reigns...

4.

God of mercy, you give understanding to simple hearts. Guide us always by your Wisdom, and let your Holy Spirit teach us to do your will today. This we ask...

5.

All-powerful Father, your Son abides with you, clothed now with our human nature. By the gift of the Holy Spirit inspire in all your children a longing to be with him close to you, where he lives and reigns...

Tuesday and Friday:

O God, awaken in us the desire to see you face to face, and make this longing for the fulfilment of our hope so ardent as to efface the sufferings of this life. This we ask through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

7.

Father, pur heart longs for your Spirit but knows itself unworthy of such a guest. Let him come himself to prepare hi us his dwelling place. This we ask...

8.

Lord our God, every being recognizes you as its Creator. Touch our hearts with compunction in your presence so that we may turn each day more towards you. This we ask...

9.

Lord, we know that without you we would not even exist. Inspire us to think and to do always what is right so that we may live according to your will. This we ask...

10.

Father, you shed your light in our mind and heart when we turn to you. Accept our lives as a sacrifice of praise so that, faithful to our engagement, we may advance joyfully on the way of salvation. This we ask...

Wednesday and Saturday:

11.

Increase for us your mercy, Lord, so that in silent seclusion we may acquire that placid glance that wounds your heart, and that love which through its purity allows you to be seen. This we ask...

Eternal Word, you taught your mother to choose the better part. Grant that in imitating her we may seek the food which endures to eternal life, you who live and reign...

13.

Lord God, fill us with that holy fear which is the beginning of wisdom. May our efforts to penetrate the secrets of your law lead us to a fuller understanding of who you are. This we ask...

14.

Lord God, neither space nor time can separate you from those whom you love. By obedience to your will may we also abide always and everywhere close to you. This we ask...

15.

Lord Jesus, you are the wellspring of our salvation. From the dawn of this new day may we be eager to do good, and arrive at contemplating you through the mystery of your resurrection, for you live and reign...

PSALMODY

SUNDAY Ant.

Alleluia (6 times).

Psalm 118,57-64: VIII (Heth)

My part, I have resolved, O Lord, is to obey your word.
With all my heart I implore your favor;
show the mercy of your promise.
I have pondered over my ways
and returned to your will.
I made haste and did not delay
to obey your commands.
Though the nets of the wicked ensnared me
I remembered your law.
At midnight I will rise and thank you
for your just decrees.
I am a friend of all who revere you,
who obey your precepts.
Lord, your love fills the earth.
Teach me your statutes.

Psalm 118,65-72: IX (Teth)

Lord, you have been good to your servant
according to your word.
Teach me discernment and knowledge
for I trust in your commands.
Before I was afflicted I went astray
but now I keep your word.
You are good and your deeds are good;
teach me your statutes.
Though proud men smear me with lies
yet I keep your precepts.
Their minds are closed to good
but your law is my delight.
It was good for me to be afflicted,
to learn your statutes.
The law from your mouth means more to me
than silver and gold.

Psalm 118,73-80: X (Yod)

It was your hands that made me and shaped me:
help me to learn your commands.
Your faithful will see me and rejoice
for I trust in your word.
Lord, I know that your decrees are right,
that you afflicted me justly.
Let your love be ready to console me
by your promise to your servant.
Let your love come to me and I shall live
for your law is my delight.
Shame the proud who harm me with lies
while I ponder your precepts.
Let your faithful turn to me,
those who know your will.
Let my heart be blameless in your statutes lest I be ashamed.

Ant. Alleluia (6).

PRAYERLet us pray.

At all other times refer to the Proper. Ordinary Time, Sundays 1-10 inclusive:

Lord, you have created us to praise your glory. Let your Spirit of love dwell in our hearts that we may be filled with joy. This we ask through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Ordinary Time, Sundays 11-20 inclusive:

Father, all-powerful, you have sent the Spirit of your Son to pray in our hearts. Make us docile to his inspirations that we may be your heirs, and coheirs with Christ, who lives and reigns...

Ordinary Time, Sundays 21-30 inclusive:

Lord Jesus, by shedding your blood you conferred on us a royal priesthood. United thus more intimately with you may we give unending praise to the Father in the Spirit, for you live and reign...

MONDAY

Ant. Turn, Lord, and show me your mercy.

Ps. 118,132

Psalm 118,129-136: XVII (Pe)

Meditation on God's law

Your will is wonderful indeed;
therefore I obey it.
The unfolding of your word gives light
and teaches the simple.
I open my mouth and I sigh
as I yearn for your commands.
Turn and show me your mercy;
show justice to your friends.
Let my steps be guided by your promise;
let no evil rule me.
Redeem me from man's oppression
and I will keep your precepts.
Let your face shine on your servant
and teach me your decrees.
Tears stream from my eyes
because your law is disobeyed.

Psalm 118,137-144: XVIII (Sade)

Lord, you are just indeed;
your decrees are right.
You have imposed your will with justice
and with absolute truth.
I am carried away by anger
for my foes forget your word.
Your promise is tried in the fire,
the delight of your servant.
Although I am weak and despised
I remember your precepts.
Your justice is eternal justice
and your law is truth.

Though anguish and distress have seized me, I delight in your commands. The justice of your will is eternal: if you teach me, I shall live.

Psalm 118,145-152: XIX (Koph)

I call with all my heart; Lord, hear me,
I will keep your statutes.
I call upon you, save me
and I will do your will.
I rise before dawn and cry for help,
I hope in your word.
My eyes watch through the night
to ponder your promise.
In your love hear my voice, O Lord;
give me life by your decrees.
Those who harm me unjustly draw near:
they are far from your law.
But you, O Lord, are close:
your commands are truth.
Long have I known that your will
is established forever.

Ant. Turn, Lord, and show me your mercy.

Psalm 122 The Lord, unfailing hope of his people

To you have I lifted up my eyes, you
who dwell in the heavens: My eyes, like the eyes of slaves on the hand of their lords.

Like the eyes of a servant
on the hand of her mistress,
So our eyes are on the Lord our God
till he show us his mercy.

the Lord

"If the Lord had not been on our side,"
this is Israel's song.

"If the Lord had not been on our side
when men rose against us,
Then would they have swallowed us alive
when their anger was kindled.

Then would the waters have engulfed us,
the torrent gone over us;
Over our head would have swept the raging waters."

Blessed be the Lord who did not give us a prey to their teeth! Our life, like a bird, has escaped from the snare of the fowler.

Indeed the snare has been broken and we have escaped.

Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

guardian of his people

Those who put their trust in the Lord
are like Mount Zion, that cannot be shaken,
that stands forever.

Jerusalem! The mountains surround her, so the Lord surrounds his people both now and forever.

For the sceptre of the wicked shall not rest over the land of the just For fear that the hands of the just should turn to evil.

Do good, Lord, to those who are good,
to the upright of heart;
But the crooked and those who do evil,
drive them away!
On Israel, peace!

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION: Turn to page 387.

PRAYER

Let us pray.

The choice is completely free.

Monday and Thursday:

16.

Holy Father, faithful God, you sent your promised Spirit to reunite men scattered by sin. Help us to strive for peace and unity in the world. This we ask through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

17.

Lord, bring to -perfection the work you have begun in us, for of ourselves we can do nothing.

Let us become poor like Christ so as to be enriched by his poverty, who lives and reigns...

Lord God, in the marvelous ways of your wisdom the Church is tried by adversity and consoled by prosperity. Grant us to turn to you in all our troubles and give you thanks in all our joys, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns...

19.

Lord Jesus, you became poor and needy for our sake. Come quickly to help your Church in its trials and bring to your Bride the riches of your heavenly gifts, for you live and reign...

20.

O God, you know the secrets of hearts and never fail to hear our unspoken prayers. Help us to make our silence bear witness to your transcendent majesty. This we ask...

Tuesday and Friday:

Lord, may our soul be like a fruitful olive tree in your house, that through its fervor nourishes the Church throughout the world. This we ask...

22.

Holy Lord, Father all-powerful, let justice spring up on the earth and your people dwell in the beauty of peace. This we ask...

23.

Lord, may the fear of offending you purify our hearts so that, ever confident in your love, we may adore you in spirit and in truth. This we ask...

24.

God of mercy, help us to forget what we have left for your sake. In simplicity of heart and purity of mind may we fix our thoughts and affections continually in you. This we ask...

25.

Heavenly Father, the immensity of your divine goodness abides in everything you have created. Enable us to see your image in all people and to serve you in them. This we ask...

Wednesday and Saturday:

Lord, fill us with the light of your Holy Spirit. Help us to follow Mary's example by treasuring everything that comes from you and meditating it in our heart. This we ask...

God our Creator, in you we live and move and have our being. Be present in our work so that it may play its part in bringing to perfection your work of creation. This we ask...

28.

Holy Father, send your Spirit to us who know not how to pray as we ought. May he help us in our frailty, and ask for us those gifts which will make us pleasing to you. This we ask...

29.

Father of all that is good, keep us faithful in serving you, for to serve you is our lasting joy. This we ask...

God of wisdom and love, source of all good, send your Spirit to teach us your truth and guide our actions. This we ask through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

PSALMODY

SUNDAY

Ant. Alleluia (7 times).

Psalm 118,81-88: XI (Caph)

I yearn for your saving help;
I hope in your word.
My eyes yearn to see your promise.
When will you console me?
Though parched and exhausted with waiting
I remember your statutes.
How long must your servant suffer?
When will you sentence my oppressors?
For me the proud have dug pitfalls,
against your law.
Your commands are all true; then help me
when lies oppress me.
They almost made an end of me on earth
but I kept your precepts.
Because of your love give me life
and I will do your will.

Psalm 118,89-96: XII (Lamed)

Your word, O Lord, forever
stands firm in the heavens:
Your truth lasts from age to age,
like the earth you created.
By your decree it endures to this day;
for all things serve you.
Had your law not been my delight
I would have died in my affliction.
I will never forget your precepts
for with them you give me life.
Save me, for I am yours
since I seek your precepts.
Though the wicked lie in wait to destroy me
yet I ponder on your will.
I have seen that all perfection has an end
but your command is boundless.

Psalm 118,97-104: XIII (Mem)

Lord, how I love your law!
It is ever in my mind.
Your command makes me wiser than my foes;
for it is mine forever.
I have more insight than all who teach me
for I ponder your will.
I have more understanding than the old
for I keep your precepts.
I turn my feet from evil paths
to obey your word.
I have not turned away from your decrees;
you yourself have taught me.
Your promise is sweeter to my taste than honey in the mouth.
I gain understanding from your precepts and so I hate false ways.

Ant. Alleluia (7).

PRAYER

Let us pray.

At all other times refer to the Proper.

Ordinary Time, Sundays 1-10 inclusive:

Most Holy Trinity, purify our hearts that we may live always so as to please you and share in your interior life of love which is our unfailing hope. This we ask through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Ordinary Time, Sundays 11-20 inclusive:

Most gentle Father, you have implanted in us a desire for the eternal and our hearts are restless until they rest in you. Help us to cling to you alone. This we ask...

Ordinary Time, Sundays 21-30 inclusive:

God our Father, we have built our foundations on you who are eternal. Let us not be swept away with the world of time, but let it rather be our boast to be crucified with Christ, for he lives and reigns...

MONDAY

Ant. Let your hand be ready to help me, Lord, since I have chosen your precepts. Ps. 118,173

Psalm 118,153-160: XX (Resh)

See my affliction and save me
for I remember your law.
Uphold my cause and defend me;
by your promise, give me life.
Salvation is far from the wicked
who are heedless of your statutes.
Numberless, Lord, are your mercies;
with your decrees give me life.
Though my foes and oppressors are countless
I have not swerved from your will.
I look at the faithless with disgust;
they ignore your promise.
See how I love your precepts;
in your mercy give me life.
Your word is founded on truth:
your decrees are eternal.

Psalm 118,161-168: XXI (Shin)

Though princes oppress me without cause
I stand in awe of your word.
I take delight in your promise like one who finds a treasure.
Lies I hate and detest
but your law is my love.
Seven times a day I praise you
for your just decrees.
The lovers of your law have great peace;
they never stumble.
I await your saving help, O Lord,
I fulfil your commands.

My soul obeys your will and loves it dearly.
I obey your precepts and your will;
all that I do is before you.

Psalm 118,169-176: XXII (Tau)

Lord, let my cry come before you:
teach me by your word.
Let my pleading come before you;
save me by your promise.
Let my lips proclaim your praise because you teach me your statutes.
Let my tongue sing your promise for your commands are just.
Let your hand be ready to help me,
since I have chosen your precepts.
Lord, I long for your saving help
and your law is my delight.
Give life to my soul that I may praise you.
Let your decrees give me help.
I am lost like a sheep; seek your servant
for I remember your commands.

Wednesday & Saturday: He will have no cause for shame when he disputes with his foes in the gateways.
Ps. 126,5

Thursday: Blessed are those who fear the Lord.

Ps. 127,1

Psalm 125 Joyful hope in God

When the Lord delivered Zion from bondage, It seemed like a dream. Then was our mouth filled with laughter, on our lips there were songs.

The heathens themselves said: "What marvels the Lord worked for them!" What marvels the Lord worked for us! Indeed we were glad.

Deliver us, O Lord, from our bondage as streams in dry land. Those who are sowing in tears will sing when they reap.

They go out, they go out, full of tears, carrying seed for the sowing: They come back, they come back, full of song, carrying their sheaves.

Psalm 126 Apart from God our labors are worthless

If the Lord does not build the house, in vain do its builders labor; If the Lord does not watch over the city, in vain does the watchman keep vigil.

In vain is your earlier rising,
your going later to rest,
you who toil for the bread you eat:
when he pours gifts on his beloved while they slumber.

Truly sons are a gift from the Lord, a blessing, the fruit of the womb. Indeed the sons of youth are like arrows in the hand of a warrior.

O the happiness of the man
who has filled his quiver with these arrows!
He will have no cause for shame
when he disputes with his foes in the gateways.

Psalm 127 Happiness of family life rooted in God

O blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways!

By the labor of your hands you shall eat.
You will be happy and prosper;
Your wife like a fruitful vine
in the heart of your house;
Your children like shoots of the olive,
around your table.

Indeed thus shall be blessed
the man who fears the Lord.
May the Lord bless you from Zion
all the days of your life!
May you see your children's children
in a happy Jerusalem!
On Israel, peace!

PRAYER

Let us pray.

The choice is completely free.

Monday and Thursday:

31.

Father, under the faithful protection of the angels, who stand for ever in your presence, let us always seek your face. This we ask through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Lord God, through no merit on our part you have called us to the repose of solitude and silence. Help us to live our vocation faithfully and thus play our part in bringing the fruit of redemption to the Church and the world. This we ask...

33.

Lord, when we seek you perseveringly in prayer, reward our humble efforts and grant us the joyful certitude of having found you. This we ask...

34.

Lord God, you are the author of all life. Make us obedient to your commands, so that you may turn everything to our good. This we ask...

35.

Lord, let us rejoice to do your will as though all riches were ours. Since we know you are near let us have no fear to be in need. This we ask...

Tuesday and Friday:

O God of infinite goodness, you let us taste even now your divine wisdom when you give us the Holy Spirit. Keep always before our eyes how beautiful it is to abide under his guidance. This we ask...

37.

Lord, help us show by our life what we believe and love. Through an eager and responsible obedience lead us to the fullness of liberty and love. This we ask...

38.

Lord, give us your Spirit to be our strength so that, with our exterior conduct formed by monastic discipline, we may seek you the more ardently in the depths of our souls. This we ask...

39.

Lord our God, you command us to speak the truth and to judge with uprightness. Help us show by our sincere words the purity of our love for others. This we ask...

40.

Lord God, pour forth your love into the hearts of those who seek you, so that, with those who have left all to follow you, we may find you in all things. This we ask...

Wednesday and Saturday:

God our Father, may we love you in all things and above all things, and reach the joy you have prepared for us beyond all our imagining. This we ask...

42.

Lord, make us one with all the angels in silent prayer as we joyfully adore your majesty. This we ask...

43.

O God, you are our supreme peace that a soul in conflict cannot grasp. Help us restore peace by forgetting all injuries, and hold fast to the good will that brings harmony. This we ask...

NOVENA PREPARATORY TO CHRISTMAS

In order to the devout preparation of ourselves for the glorious Birthday of our most loving Saviour, Jesus Christ, which the holy Church recalls to our memory every year on the 25th of December, and at the same time to render Him thanks for this great benefit, Pope Pius VII., by a Rescript of the Segretaria of the Memorials, dated August 12th, 1815 (which said Rescript is preserved in the Segretaria of the Vicariate), granted to all faithful Christians who, being contrite in heart, should prepare themselves for that great solemnity by a novena, consisting of pious exercises, prayers, acts of virtue, &c. -

- i. An indulgence of 300 days each day of the said novena, and -
- ii. A plenary indulgence to be gained on Christmas day, or on some day in its octave, by those who, after Confession and Communion, shall have made the said novena every day, and who shall pray according to the intentions of the Sovereign Pontiff: and note that the Confession and Communion may be made on any one of the days of the said novena, provided the novena is correctly kept. This was declared by Pope Pius VIII., of holy memory, by means of the S. Congr. of Indulgences, July 9, 1830. These indulgences were extended by the above-named Pius VII. to one other time in the year, besides the the specified, when any one should make the aforesaid novena in honour of the Child Jesus.

NOVENA IN PREPARATION FOR THE TWENTY-FIFTH DAY OF EVERY MONTH.

In order to call to mind more frequently the august Mystery of the Incarnation and Birth of the Divine Word made Man, his Holiness the Sovereign Pontiff Pius IX., by a decree of the S. Congr. of Indulgences, dated Sept. 23, 1846, grants -

An indulgence of one year, to be gained each day of the following novena, which may be made either in public or private, nine days previous to the 25th day of any month provided that the faithful assist at it with a contrite heart.

The Novena is to be begun on the 16th day of every month.

i. Offering. Eternal Father, I offer to Thy honour and glory, and for my own salvation, and for the salvation of all the world, the mystery of the Birth of our Divine Saviour.

Gloria Patri, &c.

ii. Offering. Eternal Father, I offer to Thy honour and glory, and for my eternal salvation, the sufferings of the most holy Virgin and of St. Joseph in that long and weary journey from Nazareth to Bethlehem; I offer Thee their anxiety of heart when they found no place wherein to shelter themselves, when the Saviour of the world was to be born.

Gloria Patri, &c.

iii. Offering. Eternal Father, I offer to Thy honour and glory, and for my eternal salvation, the stable where Jesus was born, the hard straw which served Him for a bed, the cold He suffered, the swaddling clothes which bound Him, the tears he shed, and His tender infant cries.

Gloria Patri, &c.

iv. Offering. Eternal Father, I offer to Thy honour and glory, and for my eternal salvation, the pain which the holy Child Jesus felt in His tender infant body when He submitted it to the keen knife of circumcision; I offer Thee that Precious Blood which then first He shed for the salvation of the whole race of man.

Gloria Patri, &c.

v. Offering. Eternal Father, I offer to Thy honour and glory, and for my eternal salvation, the humility, mortification, patience, charity, all the virtues of the Child Jesus; and I thank Thee, and I love Thee, and I bless Thee without end, for this ineffable mystery of the Incarnation of the Divine Word.

Gloria Patri, &c.

V. Verbum caro factum est.

R. Et habitavit in nobis.

Oremus.

Deus, cujus Unigenitus in substantia nostra carnis apparuit; praesta quaesumus, ut per Eum, quem similem nobis foris agnovimus, intus reformari mereamur. Qui tecum vivit et regnat in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

V. The Word was made Flesh.

R. And dwelt amongst us.

Let us pray.

O God, whose only begotten Son was made manifest to us in the substance of our flesh; grant, we beseech Thee, that through Him our souls may be internally renewed, whom we acknowledge externally like unto ourselves. Who liveth and reigneth with Thee for ever and ever. Amen. - Raccolta

PRAYER

On Sundays, if the Office is said in private, the prayer of the Mass is said, which is also the prayer of Lauds.

Let us pray.

1st Sunday:

All-powerful God, increase our strength of will for doing good that Christ may find an eager welcome at his coming and call us to his side in the kingdom of heaven, where he lives and reigns...

2nd-Sunday:

God of power and mercy, open our hearts in welcome. Remove the things that hinder us from receiving Christ with joy, so that we may share his wisdom and become one with him when he comes in glory, for he lives and reigns...

3rd - Sunday:

Almighty Father, give us the joy of your love to prepare the way for Christ our Lord. May his coming help us to serve you with hearts that are pure. This we ask...

4th - Sunday:

God of love and mercy, help us to follow the example of Mary, always ready to do your will. At the message of an angel she welcomed your eternal Son and, filled with the light of your Spirit, she became the temple of your Word, who lives and reigns...

H: * *

Monday and Thursday:

Come, Lord Jesus, be with your Church as you have promised, until the end of time, for you live and reign...

Tuesday and Friday:

Come, Lord Jesus, we long to be one with you. Bring light to our minds that we may breathe in your Spirit. You live and reign ...

Wednesday and Saturday:

Lord, let your glory dawn to take away our darkness. May we be revealed as the children of light at the coming of your Son, who lives and reigns...

SEXT

PRAYER

Let us pray.

Father, by the power of the Holy Spirit you anointed your only Son Messiah and Lord of creation; you have given us a share in his consecration to priestly service in your Church. Help us to be faithful witnesses in the world to the salvation Christ won for all mankind. This we ask...

ORDINARY TIME

From Jan. 14 until Lent the Office is taken from the Ordinary, unless a feast occurs.

For the prayer at Terce on Sunday until Septuagesima, when the Office is said in private, turn to page 267.

From Septuagesima Sunday, however, the prayers at Terce, Sext and None are as follows. In private the possibility of choosing among the prayers of Ordinary Time remains.

FROM SEPTUAGESIMA UNTIL ASH WEDNESDAY

TERCE

PRAYER

Let us pray.

Monday and Thursday:

Lord, deliver us from all our sins and grant us joy in your peace. This we ask...

Tuesday and Friday:

Lord, give us back the innocence you love by drawing our hearts to yourself. Let the fervor of your Spirit be reborn there to strengthen our faith and make us generous in doing good. This we ask...

Wednesday and Saturday:

In your mercy, Lord, listen to our prayers. You want to give us all that we desire: help us desire only what pleases you. This we ask...

Sunday (when said in private):

Septuagesima:

Father, guide and protector of your people, grant us an unfailing respect for your name, and keep us always in your love. This we ask...

Sexagesima:

Lord God, your word of life gives us a new birth. May we receive it with open hearts, live it with joy, and express it in love. This we ask...

Quinquagesima:

God our Father, your light of truth guides us to the way of Christ. May all who follow him reject what is contrary to the gospel. This we ask...

SEXT

PRAYER

Let us pray.

Monday and Thursday:

Deliver us, Lord, from the attachments that still hold us enslaved to sin, and in your kindness spare us the punishments our sins have deserved. This we ask...

Tuesday and Friday:

Lord, grant health of soul and body to your people.
Enabled thus to strive wholeheartedly for what is good, may we know always the power of your grace.
This we ask...

Wednesday and Saturday:

Lord, you are the founder of your people and their guide; drive away from them the evil by which they are assailed, that they may always please you and live in peace under your protection.

This we ask...

Sunday:

Lord, you see that of ourselves we have no strength. Protect us from bodily and spiritual dangers so that no misfortune may crush us and our hearts may remain pure. This we ask...

NONE

PRAYER

Let us pray.

Monday and Thursday:

Lord, keep your Church from all harm and let our prayer rise up to you. This we ask...

Tuesday and Friday:

Lord, grant us the grace to persevere in obeying your will. Let us see the people who serve you increase in number and in holiness in our own time. This we ask...

Wednesday and Saturday:

Lord, be moved by our prayers and heal the diseases of our souls. Forgive us our sins that we may ever rejoice in your blessing. This we ask...

Sunday:

Lord, grant us as we pray an abundance of your grace, so that we may follow your commandments and have joy in this life and in the next. This we ask...

Mt.4,4

2nd Sunday: The law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. Jn. 1,17

3rd Sunday: He who is not with me is against me;

and he who does not gather with me scatters, says the Lord. Mt 12,30

4th Sunday: As I live, says the Lord, I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked man, but rather in his¹ conversion, that he may live. Ez. 33,11

On weekdays: the antiphon is from the Ordinary.

READING

Sunday:

II Cor. 6,1-2

We beg you not to receive the grace of God in vain. For he says, "In an acceptable time I have heard you; on a day of salvation I have helped you." Now is the acceptable time! Now is the day of salvation! R/. Thanks be to God.

. Weekdays:

JL 2,12-13

Turn to me with your whole heart, with fasting, weeping and mourning; rend your hearts, not your garments, for I am gracious and merciful, says the Lord almighty. R/. Thanks be to God.

V/. Say to the Lord: My refuge and my fortress. R/. My God, in whom I trust. Ps. 90,2

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION:

Those said at Lauds and Vespers may also be said in private at Terce, Sext and None. Turn to p. 390.

PRAYER

Let us pray.

On Sundays, if the Office is said in private, the prayer of the Mass is said, which is also the prayer of Lauds. 1st-Sunday:

Father, through our observance of Lent, help us to understand the meaning of your Son's death and resurrection, and teach us to reflect it in our lives. This we ask...

2nd Sunday:

God our Father, help us to hear your Son. Enlighten us with your word, that we may find the way to your glory. This we ask...

3rd - Sunday:

Father of goodness, you have taught us to correct our lives by prayer and fasting. Help us to come closer to you by prayer, and by self-denial to overcome our evil inclinations. This we ask...

4th - Sunday:

Father of peace, we are joyful in your Word, your Son Jesus Christ who reconciles us to you. Let us hasten toward Easter with the eagerness of faith and love. This we ask...

Monday and Thursday:

Father, your Son by prayer and penance defeated our adversary in the desert. Help us to conquer temptation with the light of faith and so attain purity of heart. This we ask...

Tuesday and Friday:

Lord, you let Moses savor your teaching as he talked familiarly with you while fasting on the mountain. May we also experience the sober intoxication of your Word as we live hidden in the secret of your presence. This we ask...

Wednesday and Saturday:

Iord God, you have written your law of love in our hearts, but we, by our disobedience, have turned away. Teach us to return to you by listening to the Spirit. This we ask...

SEXT

ANTIPHON

1st - Sunday: Begone Satan! You shall not tempt the Lord your God. Mt. 4,10.7

2nd - Sunday: I will make you a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth. Is. 49,6

3rd - Sunday: When the unclean spirit has gone out of a man, he passes through waterless places seeking rest; and he finds none. Mt. 12,43

4th - Sunday: Who knows? Perhaps God will again relent and leave behind him a blessing. Jl. 2,14

On weekdays: the antiphon is from the Ordinary.

READING

Sunday: Rom. 12,1

Brothers, I beg you through the mercy of God to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, your spiritual worship. R/. Thanks be to God.

Weekdays: Is. 58,7

Share your bread with the hungry; shelter the oppressed and the homeless; clothe the naked when you see them; and turn not your back on your own. R/. Thanks be to God.

V/. He will rescue me from the snare of the fowler, R/.
From the destroying pestilence. Ps. 90,3

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION: p. 387, or 390.

PRAYER

Let us pray.

Sunday:

Lord God, you are the bread of the angels and the strength of those who fast. Fill us with the bread of your Word, and let our nourishment be the love of justice and of the things which are eternal. This we ask...

Monday and Thursday:

All-powerful Father, through our total dedication to prayer and silence may the Holy Spirit draw us into the inner recesses of our hearts. This we ask...

Tuesday and Friday:

Lord, make us come before you always with humble hearts to ask forgiveness, so that we may joyfully offer a perfect sacrifice to you in prayer. This we ask...

Wednesday and Saturday:

God of mercy, join all people together in humble repentance and in your praise. In perfect communion may your Church advance joyfully towards the eternal kingdom. This we ask...

NONE

ANTIPHON

1st Sunday: You shall worship the Lord your God, and him alone shall you serve. Mt. 4,10

2nd Sunday: This is my servant whom I have chosen; I have put my Spirit upon him. Mt. 12,18

Weekdays:

Is. 30,15

Thus said the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel: By repenting and by calm you shall be saved, in silence and in trust your strength shall be. R/. Thanks be to God.

V/. With his pinions he will cover you,

R/. And under his wings you shall take refuge.

Fs. 90,4

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION: p. 387 or 390.

PRAYER

Let us pray.

Sunday:

Lord, pour a new spirit into the hearts of all your children. Let those who are to be reborn in baptism open their eyes to the light from on high, and lead all the baptized ever closer to your glory. This we ask...

Monday and Thursday:

Lord, you came close to the repentant sinner who dared not approach you. Effect in us a real conversion of heart and fill us with the joy and peace of the Spirit. This we ask...

Tuesday and Friday:

Lord Jesus, the Church is your loving bride, deprived of your presence. As we fast, may we watch in prayer for your return, who live and reign.

Wednesday and Saturday:

Lord, be merciful to your people. Fill us with your gifts and make us always eager to serve you in faith, hope, and love. This we ask...

PASSIONTIDE

FROM PASSION SUNDAY TO THE WEDNESDAY OF HOLY WEEK

PRIME

ANTIPHON

Passion Sunday: Look, O Lord, upon my misery, for the enemy has triumphed. Lam. 1,9

Palm Sunday: The Lord God is my help, therefore I am not disgraced. Is. 50,7

Note that the reading is Is. 33,2, p. 135. On weekdays: all is from the Ordinary.

TERCE

ANTIPHON

Passion Sunday: Must good be repaid with evil that they should dig a pit to take my life? Jer. 18,20

Palm Sunday: To you have I entrusted my cause, O Lord, protector of my life; O Lord, my God. Jer. 11,20

On weekdays: the antiphon is from the Ordinary.

READING

Sunday:

I Pet 2,21

Christ suffered for you and left you an example, to have you follow in his footsteps. R/. Thanks be to God.

Weekdays:

Is. 53,2-3

He grew up like a sapling, like a shoot from the parched earth. There was in him no stately bearing to make us look at him, nor appearance that would attract us to him. He was spurned and avoided by men, a man of suffering, accustomed to infirmity, one of those from whom men hide their faces; spurned, and we held him in no esteem. R/. Thanks be to God.

V/. O God, rescue my soul from the sword, R/. My life from the grip of these dogs. Ps. 21,21

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION: as in Lent, p. 390, or 387.

PRAYER

Let us pray.

On Sundays, if the Office is said in private, the prayer of the Mass is said, which is also the prayer of Lauds.

Passion Sunday:

Father, help us to be like Christ your Son, who loved the world and died for our salvation. Inspire us by his love, guide us by his example, who lives and reigns...

Palm Sunday:

Almighty, ever-living God, you have given the human race Jesus Christ our Savior as a model of humility. He fulfilled your will by becoming man and giving his life on the cross. Help us to bear witness to you by following his example of suffering and make us worthy to share in his resurrection. This we ask...

Weekdays:

God our Father, by the sacrifice of Christ you freed your Church from sin and made it holy. May we, who are one with Christ, the head of the Church, be one with his offering; may we be united in serving you with all our hearts. This we ask...

SEXT

ANTIPHON

Passion Sunday: Lord, you defended me in mortal danger, you redeemed my life. Lam. 3,58

Palm Sunday: Do not be my ruin, you, my refuge in the day of misfortune. Jer. 17,17

On weekdays: the antiphon is from the Ordinary.

READING

Sunday:

I Pet. 2,24

In his own body Christ brought your sins to the cross, so that all of us, dead to sin, could live in accord with God's will. By his wounds you were healed. R/. Thanks be to God.

Weekdays:

Is. 53,4-5

Indeed, it was our infirmities that he bore, our sufferings that he endured: while we thought of him as stricken, as one smitten by God and afflicted. But he was pierced for our offenses, crushed for our sins; upon him was the chastisement that makes us whole, by his stripes we were healed. R/.

Thanks be to God.

V/. Save me from the lion's mouth, O Lord; R/. And from the horns of the wild bulls, my wretched life.
Ps. 21,22

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION: as in Lent, p. 390, or 387.

PRAYER

Let us pray.

Sunday:

Lord Jesus, it was not by your majestic power that you won the victory over the devil, but by humbling yourself. Sin once made us his slaves.
May your death freely accepted regain for us our liberty, for you live and reign...

Weekdays:

Father, on the cross your Son dispelled the darkness of this world. Grant that in the splendor of his light we may hasten to the joys of your eternity.
This we ask...

NONE

ANTIPHON

Passion Sunday: O my people, what have I done to you, or how have I wearied you? Answer me! Mi. 6,3

Palm Sunday: Let my persecutors, not me, be confounded, O Lord, my God. Jer. 17,18

On weekdays: the antiphon is from the Ordinary.

READING

Sunday:

I Pet. 3,18

Christ died for our sins once for all, the just man for the sake of the unjust, that he might lead you to God. He was put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit. m Thanks be to God.

Weekdays:

Is. 53,6-7

We had all gone astray like sheep, each following his own way; but the Lord laid upon him the guilt of us all. Though he was harshly treated, he submitted and opened not his mouth. Like a lamb led to the slaughter or a sheep before the shearers he was silent and opened not his mouth. IV. Thanks be to God.

y. Gather not my soul with those of sinners, R/
Nor with men of blood my life. Ps. 25,9

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION: as in Lent, p. 390, or 387.

PRAYER

Let us pray.

Sunday:

Lord Jesus, grant us ever to meditate the ineffable mystery of the Cross, by which you emptied death of its power and became radiant with the light of the resurrection. You live and reign...

Weekdays:

O Lord Jesus Christ, from your side flowed blood and water to hallow your bride the Church. Through the grace of the Holy Spirit may we ever draw avidly from these sources of our salvation. You live and reign...

VESPERS

PSALMODY

Ant. 1. The cup of salvation I will raise; I will call on the Lord's name. Ps. 115,13

Psalm 115 Thanksgiving in the Temple

I trusted, even when I said: "I am sorely afflicted,"

And when I said in my alarm:
"No man can be trusted."

How can I repay the Lord for his goodness to me? The cup of salvation
I will raise; I will call on the Lord's name.

My vows to the Lord I will fulfil before all his people.
O precious in the eyes of the Lord is the death of his faithful.

Your servant, Lord, your servant am I; you have loosened my bonds. A thanksgiving sacrifice I make:
I will call on the Lord's name.

My vows to the Lord I will fulfil before all his people, In the courts of the house of the Lord, in your midst, O Jerusalem.

Glory to the Father is not said here.

Ant. The cup of salvation I will raise; I will call on the Lord's name. Ps. 115,13

Ant. 2. I am for peace, but when I speak, they are for fighting. Ps. 119,7

Psalm 119 Longing for peace

To the Lord in the hour of my distress I call and he answers me. "O Lord, save my soul from lying lips, from the tongue of the deceitful."

What shall he pay you in return, O treacherous tongue?

The warrior's arrows sharpened and coals, red-hot, blazing.

Alas, that I abide a stranger in Meshech, dwell
among the tents of Kedar!

Long enough have I been dwelling with those who hate peace. I am for peace, but when I speak, they are for fighting.

Glory to the Father is not said here.

Ant. I am for peace, but when I speak, they are for fighting. Ps. 119,7

Ant. 3. Deliver me, Lord, from violent men. t
Ps. 139,1

Psalm 139 Lord, you are my refuge

Rescue me, Lord, from evil men; ± from the violent keep me safe,
From those who plan evil in their hearts and stir up strife every day;
Who sharpen their tongue like an adder's,
with the poison of viper on their lips.

Lord, guard me from the hands of the wicked;
from the violent keep me safe;
they plan to make me stumble.
The proud have hidden a trap,
have spread out lines in a net,
set snares across my path.

I have said to the Lord: "You are my God."
Lord, hear the cry of my appeal! Lord my God, my mighty help, you shield my head in the battle. Do not grant the wicked their desire nor let their plots succeed.

Those surrounding me lift up their heads.
Let the malice of their speech overwhelm them.

Let coals of fire rain upon them. Let them be flung in the abyss, no more to rise. Let the slanderer not endure upon the earth. Let evil hunt the violent man to death!

I know the Lord will avenge the poor, that he will do justice for the needy. Yes, the just will praise your name: the upright shall live in your presence.

Glory to the Father is not said here.

Ant. Deliver me, Lord, from violent men. Ps. 139,1

Ant. 4. From the trap they have laid for me keep me safe: keep me from the snares of those who do evil. Ps. 140,9

Psalm 140 A prayer when in danger

I have called to you, Lord; hasten to help me! Hear my voice when I cry to you. Let my prayer arise before you like incense, the raising of my hands like an evening oblation.

Set, O Lord, a guard over my mouth; keep watch, O Lord, at the door of my lips! Do not turn my heart to things that are wrong, to evil deeds with men who are sinners.

Never allow me to share in their feasting. If a good man strikes or reproves me it is kindness; But let the oil of the wicked not anoint my head. Let my prayer be ever against their* malice.

Their princes were thrown down by the side of the rock:
then they understood that my words were kind. As a millstone is shattered to pieces on the ground, so their bones were strewn at the mouth of the grave.

To you, Lord God, my eyes are turned:
in you I take refuge; spare my soul!
From the trap they have laid for me keep me safe:
keep me from the snares of those who do evil.

Let the wicked fall into the traps they have set whilst I pursue my way unharmed.

Glory to the Father is not said here.

Ant. From the trap they have laid for me keep me safe: keep me from the snares of those who do evil. Ps.
140,9

Ant. 5. I look on my right and see: there is not one who takes my part. Ps. 141,5

Psalm 141 You, Lord, are my refuge

With all my voice I cry to the Lord, with all my voice I entreat the Lord. I pour out my trouble before him; I tell him all my distress While my spirit faints within me.
But you, O Lord, know my path.

On the way where I shall walk they have hidden a snare to entrap me.
Look on my right and see:
there is no one who takes my part.
I have no means of escape,
not one who cares for my soul.

MARY (Magnificat) ANTIPHON (Before and after)

Holy Thursday: As they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and broke it, and gave it to the disciples. Mt. 26,26

Good Friday: When Jesus had received the vinegar, he said, "It is finished"; and he bowed his head and gave up his spirit. Jn. 19,30

Holy Saturday: The Jews went and made the sepulchre secure by sealing the stone and setting a guard. Mt. 27,66

Magnificat

My soul manifies the Lord,
and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,
for he has regarded the low estate

of his handmaiden.

For behold, henceforth all generations

will call me blessed;

for he who is mighty has done great things for me, and holy is his name. And his mercy is on those who fear him from generation to generation. He has shown strength with his arm, he has scattered the proud in the imagination

of their hearts,

he has put down the mighty from their thrones,
and exalted those of low degree;
he has filled the hungry with good things,
and the rich he has sent empty away.
He has helped his servant Israel,
in remembrance of his mercy,
as he spoke to our fathers,
to Abraham and to his posterity for ever.
Glory to the Father is not said here.

PRAYER

Let us pray.

Lord Jesus Christ, your kingdom knows no boundaries and will last through endless time. Let the gifts of your grace bear fruit in us and make us cling in every circumstance to you alone, who live and reign...

ORDINARY TIME

From the Tuesday after Pentecost until Advent the Office is taken from the Ordinary, unless a feast occurs.

At TERCE on Sundays, when the Office is said in private, the PRAYER is the one which is also used at Lauds, Vespers and Matins, as follows.

PRAYER

Let Us pray.

1st Sunday:

Lord our God, it is with a father's love that you forgive us after judging us according to our misdeeds. Even though we do not deserve it, allow us with heartfelt affection to say to you: Our Father. This we ask...

2nd Sunday:

Almighty God, every good thing comes from you. Fill our hearts with love for you, increase our faith, and by your constant care protect the good you have given us. This we ask ...

3rd Sunday:

Lord our God, you are our refuge and our strength. Hear the fervent prayers of your Church and grant us what we ask for with faith, through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns...

4th Sunday:

Lord, guide the course of world events and give your Church the joy and peace of serving you in freedom. This we ask...

5th Sunday:

Father, it is for the lowly and the humble that you have prepared your kingdom. Help us to persevere in the way of simplicity so that the hidden mysteries of your glory may be revealed. This we ask...

6th Sunday:

Father, you call your children to walk in the light of Christ. Free us from darkness, and keep us in the radiance of your truth. This we ask...

7th Sunday:

Lord, help us to worship you with the reverence which is due to you, so that our whole life be one continuous prayer, rapt in your love. This we ask...

8th Sunday:

Father, your Son revealed your preference for the poor. Help us to follow him in a spirit of poverty so as to arrive at contemplating you in the kingdom of heaven. This we ask...

9th Sunday:

Lord Jesus, so great is your love that at the conversion of one sinner you fill heaven with joy. We are lost sheep gone astray. Carry us on your shoulders into paradise, where you live and reign...

10th Sunday:

Lord, our help and guide, make your love the foundation of our lives. May our love for you express itself in our eagerness to do good for others. This we ask...

11th Sunday:

God of power and mercy, only with your help can we offer you fitting service and praise. May we live the faith we profess and trust your promise of eternal life. This we ask...

12th Sunday:

Almighty and ever-living God, strengthen our faith, hope, and love. May we do with loving hearts what you ask of us and come to share the life you promise. This we ask ...

13th Sunday:

Lord, watch over your Church, and guide it with your unfailing love. Protect us from what could harm us and lead us to what will save us. Help us always, for without you we are bound to fail. This we ask...

14th Sunday:

Lord, by meditating continually your words may we bring forth fruit from the seed you have sown in us. This we ask...

15th Sunday:

God our Father and protector, without you nothing is holy, nothing has value. Guide us to everlasting life by helping us to use wisely the blessings you have given to the world. This we ask...

16th Sunday:

God our Father, you have promised to remain for ever with those who do what is just and right. Help us to live in your presence. This we ask...

17th Sunday:

Y^o Imighty God, our hope and our strength, <^~*- without you we falter. Help us to follow Christ and to live according to your will. This we ask...

18th Sunday:

Separated from you, Lord, and without the help of your grace, we cannot give you pleasure by the way we live. Come yourself to dwell in our hearts and guide us. This we ask...

19th Sunday:

I ord our God, help us to love you with all our -*—^ heart and to love all men as you love them. This we ask...

20th Sunday:

God and Father, you are the source of all good things. Teach us to acknowledge always the many gifts your infinite love has given us and help us to love you with all our heart. This we ask...

21st Sunday:

W^ ather, your love never fails. Hear our call. •*-
 Keep us from danger and provide for all our needs.
 This we ask...

22nd Sunday:

IT ord God, you are the glory of believers and the ••* life of the just. Your Son redeemed us by dying and rising to life again. We believe in the mystery of our own resurrection. Give us the joys and blessings of the life to come. This we ask... 23rd Sunday:

I ord, in your love for us you have called us to live •- hidden from the world. Help us to renounce all vanity and joyfully take the lowest place. This we ask...

24th Sunday:

Father, you have decreed that the whole of your law consists in love of you and love of our neighbor. By keeping your commandment of love may we come to perfection in the eternal life prepared for us. This we ask...

25th Sunday:

Father, you show your almighty power in your mercy and forgiveness. Continue to fill us with your gifts of love. Speed us toward the eternal life you promise and bring us to share in the joys of your kingdom. This we ask...

26th Sunday:

Lord our God, grant us to persevere in faith and in hope. When Christ, our King, comes, may he open the way for us and make us enter joyfully with him into the kingdom, where he lives and reigns ...

27th Sunday:

Lord God, you are the loving Father who gathers in the spiritual harvest. Make our hearts a fertile soil which will produce acts motivated by love. This we ask...

28th Sunday:

Father, your love for us surpasses all our hopes and desires. Forgive our failings, keep us in your peace and lead us in the way of salvation. This we ask...

29th Sunday:

Father of heaven and earth, hear our prayers, and show us the way to peace in the world. This

we ask...

30th Sunday:

Father, watch over your family and keep us safe in your care, for all our hope is in you. This we ask...

31st week (on ferial days at Vespers and Lauds):

Lord, it is the wisdom of your Spirit that created us and it is his providence that takes care of us. Pour forth into our hearts this Spirit of wisdom and love. This we ask...

Whatever is not indicated here is to be taken from the Ordinary of the Office.

THE CHAPLET OF ACTS OF LOVE.

1. O my God, and Sovereign Good, would that I had always loved Thee
2. My God, I detest the time when I loved Thee not.
3. How could I ever live so long without Thy holy love?
4. And Thou too, my God, how couldst Thou bear with me?
5. My God, I give Thee thanks for Thy great patience.
6. But now I desire to love Thee for ever.
7. I am content rather to die than love Thee not.
8. Take from me my life, O my God, if I am not to love Thee.
9. The grace I beg of Thee is ever to love Thee.

10. With Thy love I shall be blessed.
Glory be to this Father, &c.

1. My God, I would see Thee loved by all.
2. Happy should I be, could I but shed my blood that all might love Thee.
3. They who love Thee not are blind indeed.
4. My God, give them Thy light.
5. Miserable indeed are they who love not Thee, the Sovereign Good.
6. My God, let me never be one of these wretched ones who love Thee not.
7. My God, be Thou my joy, and all my good.
8. I would be wholly Thine for ever.
9. Who shall separate me from Thy love?
10. Come, all ye creatures, love ye my God.
Glory be to the Father, &c.

1. My God, I would I had a thousand hearts wherewith to love Thee.
2. I would that I had all hearts of all men wherewith to love Thee.
3. I would there were more worlds, that all might love Thee.
4. How blessed would he be who could love Thee with the hearts of all possible creatures!
5. Thou meritest, my God, to be so loved.
6. My heart is too poor, too cold, to love Thee.
7. Alas for the dead coldness of men in loving their sovereign Good
8. Alas for the miserable blindness of the world, which knows not Thee, who art true love.
9. O blessed inhabitants of heaven, who know and love Him!
10. O blessed necessity of loving God!
Glory be to the Father, &c.

1. My God, when will the time come that I shall burn with love for Thee?
2. How happy then will be my lot!
3. But since I know not how to love Thee, I will at least rejoice that there are others who love Thee with their whole hearts.
4. In particular I rejoice that Thou art loved by all angels and all saints in heaven.

5. With the hearts of all these I unite the love of my poor heart.
 6. In a special manner I intend to love Thee with the love with which those Saints who loved Thee best have loved Thee.
 7. Wherefore I intend to love Thee with the love wherewith St. Mary Magdalene, St. Catherine, and St. Teresa loved Thee.
 8. With the love wherewith St. Augustine, St. Dominic, St. Francis Xavier, St. Philip Neri, and St. Louis Gonzaga loved Thee.
 9. With that same love wherewith Thy Holy Apostles, especially St. Peter, St. Paul, and the beloved Disciple, loved Thee.
 10. With that same love wherewith St. Joseph the great Patriarch loved Thee.
- Glory be to the Father, &c.

1. Moreover I intend to love Thee with that love wherewith Mary most holy loved Thee when on earth.
 2. In particular with that love wherewith she loved Thee when she conceived Thy Divine Son in her virgin womb, when she brought Him forth, when she suckled Him, and when she saw him die.
 3. Yet more, I intend to love Thee with that love wherewith she loves Thee, and will love Thee for ever in heaven.
 4. But to love Thee worthily, O my God of infinite goodness, not even this love suffices.
 5. Wherefore I would love Thee as Thy Son, the Divine Word made Man, did love Thee.
 6. As He loved Thee when He was born.
 7. As He loved Thee when He died upon the cross.
 8. As He loves Thee ever in those sacred tabernacles where He lies hid.
 9. And with that love with which He loves Thee, and will love Thee in heaven for all eternity.
 10. Lastly, I intend to love Thee with that love with which Thou lovest Thyself; and since that is impossible, grant me, O my God, of Thy tender pity, that I may love Thee as far as I know how and am able, and as much as Thou art pleased that I should love Thee. Amen and amen.
- Glory be to the Father, &c., Let us pray.
- O God, who hast prepared invisible good things for them that love Thee; pour Thy love into our hearts, that we, loving Thee in all things and above all things, may attain Thy heavenly promises, which exceed all that we can desire. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, &c. - Raccolta

VISIT TO THE CHURCHES OF THE STATIONS.

The practice of visiting the churches of the Stations, where are preserved the sacred memorials of the saints, and especially of the martyrs, dates its institution from the first ages of Christianity; and on certain days in the year the people, clergy, and even Popes, used to go there in procession to pray. This pious and time-honoured devotion, constantly maintained, moved Pope Gregory the Great to make a list of the Stations, assigning time churches to be visited, not only during Lent, but also on certain other days and times in the year and these days he ordered to be inserted in the Roman Missal, as is related by John the Deacon in his Life of St. Gregory, book ii. cc. 2 and 6.

In order to induce the faithful to make these visits to the churches of the Stations on the appointed days, and to pray there according to the intention of the Sovereign Pontiff, the same Pope St. Gregory, and others his successors, granted various Indulgences, which were all confirmed afresh for ever by Pope Pius VI. in a decree of the S. Congr. of Indulgences, July 9, 1777; a list of these Indulgences will presently be given, as well as of the days and churches of the Stations.

Afterwards, Leo XII., motu proprio, given through the same S. Congr. of Indulgences, Feb. 28, 1827, granted -
i. An indulgence of forty years and as many quarantines, to all the faithful, every time that during Lent, with contrite hearts and devotion, they visit the churches of the Stations in the manner he prescribed; and he ordered this method of visiting the churches to be published in a book for the purpose printed at the press of the Camera Apostolica. He granted also -

ii. A plenary indulgence to all persons who shall have made the visit as above three times, each visit on a different day; to be gained on any one day when, being penitent, they shall, after Confession and Communion, visit some church or public oratory, and pray there for our holy mother the Church, &c.

The method prescribed to be used is as follows: First, to visit some church, and say there the prayers appointed in the book, to the Blessed Sacrament, to the Blessed Virgin, and to the holy martyrs; then to go to the church of the Station, saying on the way the psalm Miserere, five Pater noster's, five Ave Maria's, and five Gloria Patri's, and then the Steps of the Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ; and lastly, whilst at the church itself, to say the Litanies of the Saints with the versicles and prayers assigned, and at the end the psalm De profundis, &c. All unlearned persons, however, and others who do not possess this book of the Stations, may gain the same Indulgences by saying at the two churches which they visit such prayers as their own devotion suggests to them and as are suitable to their capacity; and while they go from one church to the other, they are to say a third part of their rosary with the Litanies; and on leaving the church of the Station, to end their visit with the psalm De profundis, or else with one Pater noster, one Ave Maria, and a Requiem aeternam for the holy souls in purgatory.

The same Pontiff declared his will that all nuns and others dwelling in monasteries and communities should participate in the benefit of these Indulgences, provided that they keep the method prescribed and visit their own churches; and he also extended these Indulgences to the sick and to prisoners, provided they supply what they are unable to perform by doing some good work enjoined them by their own confessor.

Note, that although it is only necessary to visit one church in order to gain the Indulgences, there are on certain days, besides the churches set down in the Roman Missal for the Stations, several other churches enjoying the same Indulgences through grants of various Sovereign Pontiffs; thus we may instance the grant of Leo XII. above named, who, by a Brief of Jan. 8, 1828, confirmed a privilege already granted by Clement VIII., Feb. 4, 1603, viz, that the church of St. Gregory on the Celian Hill should be one of the stational churches for the Friday after Ash-Wednesday whilst at time same time he desired that on the second Sunday in Lent there should be another Station at this church, as appears from a notice of his Eminence the Cardinal-Vicar, Feb. 20, 1828. - Raccolta

DEVOTION IN MEMORY OF THE AGONY OF JESUS.

WORDS OF JESUS ON THE CROSS.

FIRST WORD.

Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do.

V. Adoramus Te Christe, et benedicimus Tibi.

R. Quia per sanctam Crucem tuam redimisti mundum.

Jesus, my Love! who for love of me didst hang in agony upon the cross, there by Thy pains to pay the penalty of my sins, and didst open Thy divine mouth to obtain for me the pardon of them from Eternal Justice; O Jesus, pity all the faithful who are now in their last agony, and pity me when I too shall be in mine. By the merits of Thy most Precious Blood shed for our salvation, vouchsafe unto us all such lively sorrow for our sins, that when we have sent forth our last breath we may at once repose in the bosom of Thy infinite mercy. Three Gloria Patri's, &c. Miserere nostri, Domine, miserere nostri. My God, in Thee I believe, in Thee I hope, Thou art my love. I repent of my sins, because by them I have offended Thee.

SECOND WORD.

This day shalt thou be with me in Paradise.

V. Adoramus, &c. Jesus, my Love! who for love of me didst hang in agony upon the cross, and with such readiness and bounty didst meet the faith of the good thief, when in Thy humiliations he acknowledged Thee to be the Son of God, and didst make him sure of the paradise prepared for him; O, pity all the faithful who are in their last agony, and pity me when I too shall be in mine. By the merit of Thy most Precious Blood, stir up in our souls such firm and steadfast faith as shall never waver under any suggestion of the evil one; that so we also may obtain the blessed prize of Paradise. Three Gloria Patri's, &c. Miserere, &c. My God, in Thee I believe, in Thee I hope, Thou art my love. I repent of my sins, because by them I have offended Thee.

THIRD WORD.

Behold thy Mother! Behold thy Son!

V. Adoramus, &c. Jesus, my Love! who for love of me didst hang in agony upon the cross, and unmindful of Thine own sorrows didst leave us Thy own most holy Mother as the pledge of Thy love, that through her intercession we might seek Thee with confidence in our greatest straits; have pity on all the faithful who are in their last agony, and pity me when I too shall be in mine. By the inward martyrdom of Thy dear Mother, quicken in our hearts a firm hope in the infinite merits of Thine own most Precious Blood, that so we may escape the sentence of eternal death, which we know we well merit for our sins. Three Gloria Patri's, &c. V. Miserere, &c. My God, in Thee I believe, in Thee I hope, Thou art my love. I repent of my sins, because by them I have offended Thee.

FOURTH WORD.

My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me?

V. Adoramus, &c. Jesus, my Love! who for love of me didst hang in agony upon the cross, and, whilst suffering after suffering was heaped upon Thee, didst bear with infinite patience the most afflicting desolation of spirit in addition to the pain of body, being forsaken by Thine Eternal Father; pity all the faithful who are in their last agony, and pity me when I too shall be in mine. By the merits of Thy most Precious Blood, grant us all Thy grace that we may suffer with patience every pain and anguish of our agony, that so joining our pains with Thine, we too may be made partakers of Thy glory in Paradise. Three Gloria Patri's, &c. V. Miserere, &c. My God, in Thee I believe, in Thee I hope, Thou art my love. I repent of my sins, because by them I have offended Thee.

FIFTH WORD.

I thirst.

V. Adoramus, &c. Jesus, my Love! who for love of me didst hang in agony upon the cross, and who, insatiable in Thy thirst for insults and sufferings, didst will yet more and more to suffer, that all men might be saved, showing thereby that all the torrent of Thy Passion was not enough to quench the thirst of Thy most loving Heart; pity all the faithful who are in their last agony, and pity me when I too shall be in mine. By the merits of Thy most Precious Blood, so kindle in our hearts the fire of charity that they may desire exceedingly to be united with Thee for all eternity. Three Gloria Patri's, &c. V. Miserere, &c. My God, in Thee I believe, in Thee I hope, Thou art my love. I repent of my sins, because by them I have offended Thee.

SIXTH WORD.

It is finished.

V. Adoramus, &c. Jesus, my Love! who for love of me didst hang in agony upon the cross, and from that pulpit of truth didst announce that the work of our redemption was finished, that work through which, from children of wrath and perdition we became God's children and the heirs of heaven; pity all the faithful who are in their last agony, and pity me when I too shall be in mine. By the merits of Thy most Precious Blood, detach us wholly from the world and from ourselves, and at the moment of our agony grant us grace to offer Thee with all our hearts the sacrifice of our life, in expiation for our sins. Three Gloria Patri's, &c. V. Miserere, &c. My God, in Thee I believe, in Thee I hope, Thou art my love. I repent of my sins, because by them I have offended Thee.

SEVENTH WORD.

Father, into Thy hands I commend my spirit.

V. Adoramus, &c. Jesus, my Love! who for love of me didst hang in agony upon the cross, and who in accomplishment of the great sacrifice didst accept the will of Thine Eternal Father, commending Thy spirit into His hands, and so didst bow Thy head and die; pity all the faithful who are in their agony, and pity me when I too shall be in mine. By the merits of Thy most Precious Blood, give us in our agony an entire conformity to Thy divine will, that, ready to live or die as it please Thee, we may desire nothing but that Thine adorable will may ever find its full accomplishment in us. Three Gloria Patri's, &c. V. Miserere, &c. My God, in Thee I believe, in Thee I hope, Thou art my love. I repent of my sins, because by them I have offended Thee. - Raccolta

Prayers of intercession

RUBRIC

At Terce, Sext and None in private one can say either A or B, or the formula proper to the Liturgical Season as said at Lauds and Vespers, which follow Series B. below. By way of interest, the prayers for Vespers and Lauds of Ordinary Time appear at the end, but are not used at the Little Hours.

The Prayers of Intercession are always preceded by:

Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Each invocation may be repeated. Silent prayer (Our Father, Hail Mary).

A. TRADITIONAL SERIES FOR THE LITTLE HOURS, always used in choir.

Lord, have pity on me.

Heal my soul, for I have sinned against you.

Lord, show us your love and mercy, for we put our trust in you.

Let your priests be clothed with holiness; Let your faithful ring out their joy.

Lord, assist those who govern;
Answer us when we call upon you.

Save your people, Lord, bless your heritage; Be their shepherd and carry them for ever.

Grant us to live in peace under your protection; Keep our hearts free from care.

Be mindful of the faithful who have died. Grant them eternal rest, O Lord, and may your light shine on them for ever.

Lord, remember our brothers and sisters who are absent. Take care of them for they put their trust in you.

Lord, be generous to our benefactors. Grant them everlasting life for the sake of your holy name.

Have compassion on those who suffer or are held in captivity.

Deliver them, O God of Israel, from all their tribulations.

Draw us back to yourself, O Lord, our God.
Show us your face and we shall be saved.

AT TERCE before
Conventual Mass

In which case the preceding invocation Draw us back to yourself,... is omitted.

We pray for all your children.

Gather them together by the blood of your only Son.

Grant us to celebrate this mystery of Christ's love until he comes again, that you may be praised forever.

B. ALTERNATE PRAYERS FOR THE LITTLE HOURS

Grant us, Father, a spirit of wisdom and insight, so that we may know the great hope to which we have been called.

Let peace and harmony reign among all those who dwell on earth.

To those who exercise the ministry of authority in the service of their brothers, send a spirit of wisdom and humility.

May all those consecrated to you together devote themselves to constant prayer.
Grant us, O God, to fill up in our own flesh what is lacking in the sufferings of Christ for his Church.
To our families and benefactors grant the blessing of everlasting life.

Be ever mindful of your mercy:
raise up the lowly; fill the hungry with good things.
Both in life and in death, let us be yours, O Lord.

Free the world from its slavery to corruption, to share in the glorious freedom of the children of God.

C. ADVENT

Come and redeem the work of your hands. Come, Lord Jesus.

Come and free us from the power of death. Come,
Lord Jesus.

Come and enlighten those sitting in darkness.
Come, Lord Jesus.

Only Son, ever at the Father's side, delay no longer.

Brightness of the Eternal Light, delay
no longer.

Longed-for King of all peoples,
delay no longer.

You for whom Israel was waiting, let us see you.

You whose coming was announced to the Virgin Mary, let us see you.

You for whom our heart was made, let us see you.

D. CHRISTMAS

The Word was made flesh. O
Jesus, to you be glory.

He lived among us.

O Jesus, to you be glory.

We have seen his glory. O
Jesus, to you be glory.

Image of the invisible God, grant peace to all men.

First-born of all creation,
grant peace to all men.

You who make all things new,
grant peace to all men.

Poor and lowly, born of Mary, be with us, Emmanuel.

Grant to your Church a spirit of poverty. Be with us, Emmanuel.

Transform us into your Image by the Spirit. Be with us, Emmanuel.

E. LENT

Father, you so loved the world that you gave your only Son. May he be the life of all believers.

Spirit, who led Jesus into the desert, draw us and speak to our heart.

Man does not live by bread alone. O God, grant us to savor your word.

Give to all who thirst for you living water, that they may never thirst again.

O Christ, lifted up from the earth, draw all people to yourself.

O Lamb, pierced by the soldier's spear, heal our wounds.

We have sinned, Lord, we have sinned.
Jesus, have mercy.

Purify your Church, that it may be truly a sign of salvation.

Father, you delivered Christ over for us. May he be the first-born of many brothers.

F.PASCAL SEASON

Worthy is the Lamb who was slain to receive power and glory and blessing.
Amen.

By his resurrection Christ has today become the light of life. O Jesus, to you be glory.

By his victory, the Son of God has set us free. O
Jesus, to you be glory.

Through his glorification Christ has hidden our life in God. O Jesus, to you be glory.

Father, bring about your kingdom on earth. The Lord has risen indeed.

Perfect, O Jesus, the Church as your immaculate bride. The Lord has risen indeed.

May the Son send the promised Comforter to his people from the Father. The Lord has risen indeed.

That Wfi may be received with you into the glory of the Father, come, Lord Jesus.

That with your glory we may be glorified, come, Lord Jesus.

That you may be our joy which no one can take from us, come, Lord Jesus.

G. VESPERS OF ORDINARY TIME

Father, gather to yourself all people, through the Blood of your Son and by the power of your Spirit.

Lord, be ever mindful of your Church, that it may grow in your love.

Good Shepherd, gather to yourself all your sheep, that there may be one flock and one Shepherd.

We pray for those who weep and sorrow: Lord, console them.

We pray for those who hunger and thirst for justice: Lord, let them have their fill.

We pray for those who are ill-treated for the sake of your Name: Lord, let theirs be the kingdom of heaven.

May all people acknowledge you, the only true God, and him whom you sent, Jesus Christ.

Receive into your glory all those we have gone before us, whose faith is known to you alone.

So that with one heart and voice we may glorify
God,
come, Lord Jesus.

H. LAUDS OF ORDINARY TIME

To God the Father, through Christ, in the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory.

You who have called us from darkness into your marvelous light, make us walk in Christ as children of light.

May the Spirit help us in our weakness, to intercede for our brothers according to God's will.

Grant us this day food for our souls,
that your love in us may be brought to perfection.

May whatever is done on earth today be done in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Lord, send workers into your field, for the harvest is good, but the laborers are few.

Make us stand before you,
as holy and acceptable victims.

Make us love each other from our hearts as Christ has loved us.

On ferial days and days of simple Memorial, outside of Christmas and Paschaltide, Psalm 50 is added to the Prayers of Intercession at Terce, Sext and None. It is never added to those of Lauds; but it is said at Vespers during Lent.

The Converse and Donates are not obliged to. The nuns may say another psalm of their choice.

Psalm 50 O God, have mercy on me
(Miserere)

Have mercy on me, God, in your kindness. In your compassion blot out my offence. O wash me more and more from my guilt and cleanse me from my sin.

My offences truly I know them; my sin is always before me. Against you, you alone, have I sinned; what is evil in your sight I have done.

That you may be justified when you give sentence and be without reproach when you judge. O see, in guilt I was born, a sinner was I conceived.

Indeed you love truth in the heart;
then in the secret of my heart teach me wisdom.
O purify me, then I shall be clean;
O wash me, I shall be whiter than snow.

Make me hear rejoicing and gladness, that the bones you have crushed may thrill. From my sins turn away your face and blot out all my guilt.

A pure heart create for me, O God, put a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me away from your presence, nor deprive me of your holy spirit.

Give me again the joy of your help; with a spirit of fervor sustain me, That I may teach transgressors your ways and sinners may return to you.

O rescue me, God, my helper,

and my tongue shall ring out your goodness.

O Lord, open my lips

and my mouth shall declare your praise.

For in sacrifice you take no delight, burnt offering
from me you would refuse. My sacrifice, a contrite spirit. A humbled, contrite heart you will not spurn.

In your goodness, show favor to Zion:
rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.

Then you will be pleased with lawful sacrifice,
burnt offerings wholly consumed,
then you will be offered young bulls on your altar.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning,
is now and will be for ever. Amen.

and None.

PRAYERS TO THE MOST HOLY WOUNDS.

Pope Pius VII., by a Rescript of time S. Congr. of Indulgences, dated Sept. 29, 1807, granted -

- i. The indulgence of 100 days, daily, to all the faithful who shall devoutly recite the following prayers to the Five Sacred Wounds of Jesus Christ.
- ii. The plenary indulgence, besides the above partial Indulgence, twice a year, - that is, on the two feasts, first, that of the Invention (May 3), and, secondly, that of the Exaltation, of the holy Cross (Sept. 14), - to all who shall say these prayers at least ten times a month, if, after having Confessed and Communicated on the above-named feast, they shall visit a church, and pray there according to the mind of the Sovereign Pontiff.
- iii. The indulgence of seven years and seven quarantines, daily, to those who say these prayers from Passion Sunday to Holy Saturday, inclusive. Plenary on Easter Day, if, after Confession and Communion on that day, they should visit and pray as aforesaid.

THE PRAYERS.

Act of Contrition.

As I kneel before Thee on the cross, most loving Saviour of my soul, my conscience reproaches me with having nailed Thee to that cross with these hands of mine, as often as I have fallen into mortal sin, wearying Thee with my monstrous ingratitude. My God, my chief and most perfect Good, worthy of all my love, for the many blessings Thou hast ever bestowed upon me; I cannot now undo my misdeeds as I would most willingly; but I will loathe them, grieving greatly for having offended Thee who art Infinite Goodness! And now, kneeling at Thy feet, I will try at least to compassionate Thee, to give Thee thanks, to ask of Thee pardon and contrition; wherefore with heart and lips I say:

To the first Wound, of the Left Foot.

Holy wound of the Left Foot of my Jesus! I adore Thee, I compassionate Thee for the most bitter pain which Thou didst suffer. I thank Thee for the love whereby Thou wast wearied in overtaking me on the way to ruin, and didst bleed amid the thorns and brambles of my sins. I offer to the Eternal Father the pain and love of Thy most holy humanity, in atonement for my sins, all which I detest with sincere and bitter contrition.

Pater noster. Ave Maria. Gloria Patri.

Holy Mother, pierce me through,

In my heart each wound renew
Of my Saviour crucified.

To the Second Wound, of the Right Foot.

Holy wound of the Right Foot of my Jesus! I adore Thee, I compassionate Thee for the bitter pain which Thou didst suffer. I thank Thee for that love which pierced Thee with such torture and shedding of blood in order to punish my wanderings and the guilty pleasures I have granted to my unbridled passions. I offer the Eternal Father all the pain and love of Thy most holy humanity, and I pray unto Thee for grace to weep over my transgressions with burning tears, and to enable me to persevere in the good which I have begun, without ever swerving again from my obedience to the commandments of my God.

Pater noster. Ave Maria. Gloria Patri.

Holy Mother, &c.

To the Third Wound, of the Left hand.

Holy wound of the Left Hand of my Jesus! I adore Thee, I compassionate Thee for the bitter pain which Thou didst suffer. I thank Thee for having, in Thy love, spared me the scourges and eternal damnation which my sins had merited. I offer to the Eternal Father the pain and love of Thy most holy humanity, and I pray Thee to teach me how to turn to good account my span of life, and bring forth in it worthy fruits of penance, and so disarm the justice of God, which I have provoked.

Pater noster. Ave Maria. Gloria Patri.

Holy Mother, &c.

To the Fourth Wound, of the Right Hand.

Holy wound of the Right Hand of my Jesus! I adore Thee, I compassionate Thee for the bitter pain which Thou didst suffer. I thank Thee for Thy graces lavished on me with such love, in spite of all my most perverse obstinacy. I offer to the Eternal Father all the pain and love of Thy most holy humanity, and I pray Thee to change my heart and its affections, and make me do all my actions in accordance with the will of God.

Pater noster. Ave Maria. Gloria Patri.

Holy Mother, &c.

To the Fifth Wound, of the Sacred Side.

Holy wound in the side of my Jesus! I adore Thee, I compassionate Thee for the cruel insult Thou didst suffer. I thank Thee, my Jesus, for the love which suffered Thy side and heart to be pierced, that so the last drops of blood and water might issue forth, making my redemption to abound. I offer to the Eternal Father this outrage, and the love of Thy most holy Humanity, that my soul may enter once for all into that most loving Heart, eager and ready to receive the greatest sinners, and never more depart.

Pater noster. Ave Maria. Gloria Patri.

Holy Mother, &c.

Penitential Psalms and Litany of the Saints

PENITENTIAL PSALMS

Ant. Lord, remember not my faults, nor those of my'fathers. Punish me not for my sins. Tob. 3,3

Psalm 6 Prayer in time of distress

Lord, do not reprove me in your anger;
punish me not, in your rage.
Have mercy on me, Lord, I have no strength;
Lord, heal me, my body is racked;
my soul is racked with pain.

But you, O Lord... how long?
Return, Lord, rescue my soul.
Save me in your merciful love;
for in death no one remembers you;
from the grave, who can give you praise?

I am exhausted with my groaning;
every night I drench my pillow with tears;
I bedew my bed with weeping.
My eye wastes away with grief;
I have grown old surrounded by my foes.

Leave me, all you who do evil; for the Lord has heard my weeping. The Lord has heard my plea; The Lord will accept my prayer. All my foes will retire in confusion, foiled and suddenly confounded.

Psalm 31 The joy of being forgiven

Happy the man whose offence is forgiven, whose sin is remitted.

O happy the man to whom the Lord
imputes no guilt,
in whose spirit is no guile.

I kept it secret and my frame was wasted.
I groaned all day long.

For night and day your hand was heavy upon me. Indeed, my strength was dried up as by the summer's heat.

But now I have acknowledged my sins;
my guilt I did not hide. •

I said: "I will confess my offence to the Lord."

And you, Lord, have forgiven
the guilt of my sin.

So let every good man pray to you in the tune of need.

The floods of water may reach high but him they shall not reach.

You are my hiding place, O Lord;
you save me from distress.

You surround me with cries of deliverance.

I will instruct you and teach you the way you should go; I will give you counsel with my eye upon you.

Be not like horse and mule, unintelligent, needing bridle and bit,

else they will not approach you.

Many sorrows has the wicked;
but he who trusts in the Lord,
loving mercy surrounds him.

Rejoice, rejoice in the Lord, exult, you just!

O come, ring out your joy, all you upright of heart.

Psalm 37
Acknowledgment of guilt

O Lord, do not rebuke me in your anger;
do not punish me, Lord, in your rage.
Your arrows have sunk deep in me;
your hand has come down upon me.
Through your anger all my body is sick:
through my sin, there is no health in my limbs.

My guilt towers higher than my head; it is a weight too heavy to bear. My wounds are foul and festering, the result of my own folly.

I am bowed and brought to my knees.
I go mourning all the day long.

All my frame burns with fever; all my body is sick. Spent and utterly crushed, I cry aloud in anguish of heart.

O Lord, you know all my longing:
my groans are not hidden from you.
My heart throbs, my strength is spent;
the very light has gone from my eyes.

My friends avoid me like a leper; those closest to me stand afar off. Those who plot against my life lay snares; those who seek my ruin speak of harm, planning treachery all the day long.

But I am like the deaf who cannot hear, like the dumb unable to speak.
I am like a man who hears nothing in whose mouth is no defence.

I count on you, O Lord:
it is you, Lord God, who will answer.
I pray: "Do not let them mock me,
those who triumph if my foot should slip."

For I am on the point of falling and my pain is always before me. I confess that I am guilty and my sin fills me with dismay.

My wanton enemies are numberless and my lying foes are many.
They repay me evil for good and attack me for seeking what is right.

O Lord, do not forsake me! My God, do not stay afar off! Make haste and come to my help, O Lord, my God, my savior!

Psalm 50 O God, have mercy on me
(Miserere)

Have mercy on me, God, in your kindness. In your compassion blot out my offence. O wash me more and more from my guilt and cleanse
me from my sin.

My offences truly I know them; my sin is always before me. Against you, you alone, have I sinned; what is evil in your sight I have done.

That you may be justified when you give sentence and be without reproach when you judge. O see, in guilt I was born, a sinner was I conceived.

Indeed you love truth in the heart;
then in the secret of my heart teach me wisdom.

O purify me, then I shall be clean;

O wash me, I shall be whiter than snow.

Make me hear rejoicing and gladness, that the bones you have crushed may thrill. From my sins turn away your face and blot out all my guilt.

A pure heart create for me, O God, put a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me away from your presence, nor deprive me of your holy spirit.

Give me again the joy of your help; with a spirit of fervor sustain me, That I may teach transgressors your ways and sinners may return to you.

O rescue me, God, my helper,
and my tongue shall ring out your goodness.

O Lord, open my lips
and my mouth shall declare your praise.

For in sacrifice you take no delight, burnt offering from me you would refuse. My sacrifice, a contrite spirit. A humbled, contrite heart you will not spurn.

In your goodness, show favor to Zion:
rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.

Then you will be pleased with lawful sacrifice,
burnt offerings wholly consumed,
then you will be offered young bulls on your altar.

Psalm 101 Prayer and yearning of one in exile

O Lord, listen to my prayer and let my cry for help reach you. Do not hide your face from me in the day of my distress.

Turn your ear towards me and answer me quickly when I call.
For my days are vanishing like smoke,
my bones burn away like a fire.
My heart is withered like the grass.
I forget to eat my bread.
I cry with all my strength and my skin clings to my bones.
I have become like a pelican in the wilderness,
like an owl in desolate places.
I lie awake and I moan like some lonely bird on a roof.
All day long my foes revile me;
those who hate me use my name as a curse.
The bread I eat is ashes;
my drink is mingled with tears.
In your anger, Lord, and your fury
you have lifted me up and thrown me down.
My days are like a passing shadow and I wither away like the grass.
But you, O Lord, will endure forever and your name from age to age. You will arise and have mercy on Zion: for this is the tune to have mercy, yes, the time appointed has come; For your servants love her very stones, are moved with pity even for her dust.
The nations shall fear the name of the Lord and all the earth's kings your glory,
When the Lord shall build tip Zion again and appear in all his glory.
Then he will turn to the prayers of the helpless;
he will not despise their prayers.
Let this be written for ages to come,
that a people yet unborn may praise the Lord;

For the Lord leaned down from his sanctuary on high.
He looked down from heaven to the earth That he might hear the groans of the prisoners and free those condemned to die.

The sons of your servants shall dwell untroubled and their race shall endure before you That the name of the Lord may be proclaimed in Zion and his praise in the heart of Jerusalem,
When peoples and kingdoms are gathered together to pay their homage to the Lord.

He has broken my strength in mid-course; he has shortened the days of my life. I say to God: "Do not take me away before my days are complete, you, whose days last from age to age.

Long ago you founded the earth and the heavens are the work of your hands.
They will perish but you will remain.
They will all wear out like a garment.
You will change them like clothes that are changed.
But you neither change, nor have an end."

Psalm 129 Out of the depths I cry
to you

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord,
Lord, hear my voice!
O let your ears be attentive
to the voice of my pleading.

If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt,
Lord, who would survive? But with you is found forgiveness: for this we revere you.

My soul is waiting for the Lord,
I count on his word.

My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchmen for daybreak. Let the watchmen count on daybreak and Israel
on the Lord.

Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption, Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity.

Psalm 142 Prayer of a soul in anguish

Lord, listen to my prayer:
turn your ear to my appeal.
You are faithful, you are just; give answer.
Do not call your servant to judgment for no one is just in your sight.

The enemy pursues my soul;
he has crushed my life to the ground;
He has made me dwell in darkness like the dead, long forgotten.
Therefore my spirit fails;
my heart is numb within me.

I remember the days that are past:
I ponder all your works.
I muse on what your hand has wrought and to you I stretch out my hands.
Like a parched land my soul thirsts for you.

Lord, make haste and answer;
for my spirit fails within me.
Do not hide your face
lest I become like those in the grave.

In the morning let me know your love for I put my trust in you.

Make me know the way I should walk: to you I lift up my soul.

Rescue me, Lord, from my enemies; I have fled to you for refuge. Teach me to do your will for you, O Lord, are my God. Let your good spirit guide me in ways that are level and smooth.

For your name's sake, Lord, save my life; in your justice save my soul from distress. In your love make an end of my foes; destroy all those who oppress me for I am your servant,
O Lord.

Ant. Lord, remember not my faults, nor those of my fathers. Punish me not for my sins. Tob. 3,3

INVOCATION TO CHRIST

One can say either A or B. A

Lord, be merciful; Lord, save your people.
From all evil, Lord, save your people.
From every sin, Lord, save your people.
From the snares of the devil, Lord, save your people.
From anger, and hatred, and all ill-will,
Lord, save your people.
From everlasting death, Lord, save your people. By your coming as man, Lord, save your people. By your birth, Lord, save your people. By your Baptism and your fast in the desert,
Lord, save your people.
By your Cross and Passion, Lord, save your people. By your death and burial, Lord, save your people. By your glorious resurrection,
Lord, save your people.
By your wonderful Ascension,
Lord, save your people.
By your gift of the Holy Spirit,
Lord, save your people.
By your coming in glory, Lord, save your people.

B

Christ, Son of the living God, have mercy on us. You who came into the world, have mercy on us. You who hung on the Cross, have mercy on us. You who were willing to die for us,
have mercy on us.
You who were laid in the tomb, have mercy on us. You who rose from the dead, have mercy on us. You who ascended into heaven, have mercy on us. You who sent the Holy Spirit to the Apostles, have mercy on us.

PRAYER

Any one of the following may be said, or in Lent the prayer of Terce or of Vespers.

1.

Father of mercy, in your loving kindness break the bonds of sin which hold us. This we ask through Christ our Lord. Amen.

2.

Lord our God, you are our refuge and our strength. Hear the fervent prayers of your Church and grant what we ask for with faith, through Christ our Lord.

3.

Lord God, you see how weak we are. Let the example of your Saints rekindle our love for you. This we ask...

4.

Merciful Father, purify our hearts and make us fully your children by grace, so that we may look forward with joy to the paschal mysteries. This we ask...

THE "DE PROFUNDIS" AT THE FIRST HOUR AFTER THE "AVE MARIA."

Pope Clement XII. was the first who, in order to move the piety of Christians to pray for the souls in Purgatory, granted, by a Brief of Aug. 4, 1736, Coelestes Ecclesiae thesauros -

i. The indulgence of 100 days to all the faithful, every time that at the sound of the bell, at the first hour after the evening Ave Maria, they say devoutly on their knees the psalm De profundis, with a Requiem aeternam at the end of it. (The evening Ave Maria in Rome varies with the season; it is commonly taken as 6 o'clock.)

ii. A plenary indulgence to those who perform this pious exercise for a year at the hour appointed, once in the year, on any one day, after Confession and Communion. Those who do not know by heart the De Profundis, may gain these Indulgences by saying in the way already mentioned for the De profundis, one Pater noster and one Ave Maria, with the Requiem aeternam.

Observe also, that the aforesaid Clement XII. declared, Dec. 12, 1736, that these Indulgences might be gained by saying the De profundis, &c., as above, although, according to the custom of a particular church or place, the "signal for the dead," as it is called, be given by the sound of the bell either before or after one hour after the evening Ave Maria.

Pope Pius VI., by a Rescript of March 18, 1781, granted the above-named Indulgences to all the faithful who should chance to dwell in any place where no bell for the dead is sounded, and who shall say the De profundis or Pater noster, as aforesaid, about the time specified above.

Ps., 129.

Out of the depths I have cried unto Thee, O Lord, Lord, hear my voice.

Let Thine ears be attentive: to the voice of my supplication.

If Thou, O Lord, shalt mark our iniquities: O lord, who can abide it?

For with Thee there is mercy: and by reason of Thy law I have waited on Thee, O Lord.

My soul hath waited on His word : my soul hath hoped in the Lord.

From the morning watch even unto night: let Israel hope in the Lord.

For with the Lord there is mercy: and with Him is plenteous redemption.

And He shall redeem Israel: from all his iniquities.

Eternal rest give to them, O Lord.

And let perpetual light shine upon them.

May they rest in peace.

Amen.

V. Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my cry come unto Thee.

Let us pray.

O God, the Creator and Redeemer of all the faithful; grant to the souls of Thy servants departed the remission of all their sins, that by our devout supplications they may obtain that pardon which they have always desired. Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

V. Eternal rest give unto them, O Lord.

R. And let perpetual light shine upon them.

V. May they rest in peace. – Raccolta

Office of the Dead

RUBRICS

For the recitation of the Office of the Dead in private, we may sit for the lessons and Responses at Matins, and we stand (leaning on the misericord normally) for the psalms, although we may sit if there is sufficient reason. We have our hoods up only during the recitation of the psalms. From the silent prayer which precedes the final psalm of each Hour to the end of that Hour we remain inclined on the misericord or kneeling according to the rubrics of the day, always with our hoods down. When an Hour of this Office is immediately followed by another Hour of the Office of the Dead, after the antiphon which follows the canticle or, for Matins, after the verse and response I heard a voice from heaven... at the end of the last lesson and Response, we pause in silence for a short while, and then begin the next Hour from the antiphon of the first psalm.

It is permitted to change the psalms given in the breviary for others of one's choice.

VESPERS

PSALMODY

Ant. I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living. Ps. 114,9

Psalm 114 Thanksgiving

I love the Lord for he has heard the cry of my appeal; For he turned his ear to me in the day when I called him.

They surrounded me, the snares of death, with the anguish of the tomb; they caught me, sorrow and distress. I called on the Lord's name.

O Lord my God, deliver me!

How gracious is the Lord, and just; our God has compassion.

The Lord protects the simple hearts; I was helpless so he saved me.

Turn back, my soul, to your rest for the Lord has been good; He has kept my soul from death, my eyes from tears, and my feet from stumbling.

I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living.

Grant them eternal rest, O Lord.

And may your light shine on them forever.

This invocation Grant them eternal rest,... is to be said at the end of all psalms and canticles unless otherwise indicated.

Psalm 119 Longing for peace

To the Lord in the hour of my distress I call and he answers me. "O Lord, save my soul from lying lips, from the tongue of the deceitful."

What shall he pay you hi return, O treacherous tongue? The warrior's arrows sharpened and coals, red-hot, blazing.

Alas, that I abide a stranger in Meshech, dwell among the tents of Kedar!

Long enough have I been dwelling with those who hate peace. I am for peace, but when I speak, they are for fighting.

Psalm 120 Guardian of his people

I lift up my eyes to the mountains:
from where shall come my help? My help shall come from the Lord who made heaven and earth.

May he never allow you to stumble! Let him sleep not, your guard. No, he sleeps not nor slumbers, Israel's guard.

The Lord is your guard and your shade; at your right side he stands. By day the sun shall not smite you nor the moon in the night.

The Lord will guard you from evil,
he will guard your soul.

The Lord will guard your going and coming
both now and forever.

Psalm 129 Out of the depths I cry
to you

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord,
Lord, hear my voice!
O let your ears be attentive
to the voice of my pleading.

If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, Lord, who would survive? But with you is found forgiveness: for this we revere you.

My soul is waiting for the Lord, I count on his word. My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchmen for daybreak. Let the watchmen count on daybreak and Israel on the Lord.

Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption, Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity.

Psalm 137 Song of thanksgiving

I thank you, Lord, with all my heart, you have heard the words of my mouth. In the presence of the angels I will bless you. I will adore before your holy temple.

I thank you for your faithfulness and love which excel all we ever knew of you. On the day I called, you answered; you increased the strength of my soul.

All earth's kings shall thank you when they hear the words of your mouth. They shall sing of the Lord's ways: "How great is the glory of the Lord!"

The Lord is high yet he looks on the lowly and the haughty he knows from afar. Though I walk in the midst of affliction you give me life and frustrate my foes.

You stretch out your hand and save me, your hand will do all things for me. Your love, O Lord, is eternal, discard not the work of your hands.

Ant. I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living. Ps. 114,9

V/. Give not to the wild beast the life of your dove. R/.
Forget not the life of your poor ones for ever.

Ps. 73,19

GOSPEL CANTICLE (MAGNIFICAT)

Ant. I heard a voice from heaven saying: happy now are the dead who die in the Lord. Rev. 14,19

Magnificat

My soul magnifies the Lord,
and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,
for he has regarded the low estate

of his handmaiden.

For behold, henceforth all generations

will call me blessed;

for he who is mighty has done great things for me, and holy is his name. And his mercy is on those who fear him from generation to generation. He has shown strength with his arm, he has scattered the proud in the imagination

of their hearts,

he has put down the mighty from their thrones, and exalted those of low degree; he has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent empty away. He has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy, as he spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and to his posterity for ever.

Ant. I heard a voice from heaven saying: happy now
are the dead who die in the Lord. Rev. 14,19

Silent prayer. (Our Father, Hail Mary.)

Psalm 145 Praise of God's fidelity

My soul, give praise to the Lord; I will praise the Lord all my days, make music to my God while I live.

Put no trust in princes, in mortal men in whom there is no help. Take their breath, they return to clay and their plans that day come to nothing.

He is happy who is helped by Jacob's God, whose hope is in the Lord his God, Who alone made heaven and earth, the seas and all they contain.

It is he who keeps faith forever, who is just to those who are oppressed. It is he who gives bread to the hungry, the Lord, who sets prisoners free,
The Lord who gives sight to the blind, who raises up those who are bowed down, The Lord, who protects the stranger and upholds the widow and orphan.

It is the Lord who loves the just but thwarts the path of the wicked. The Lord will reign forever, Zion's God, from age
to age.

V/. Grant them eternal rest, O Lord.

R/. And may your light shine on them for ever.

PRAYER RUBRICS FOR THE

PRAYERS

The following prayers are designated for determined categories of persons. However, whenever it seems fitting, any prayer can be said for any category other than the one designated, changing the gender, number and words as necessity indicates. For the conventual Office, however, it is the Prior who chooses the prayer to be used.

PRAYERSLet us pray.

For Anniversaries, Prayer (A) 1.

God of mercy, give light, happiness and peace to those for whom we pray on the anniversary of their death. This we ask...

For Anniversaries, Prayer (B) 2.

Almighty and merciful God, may our brothers and sisters for whom we pray share the victory of Christ who loved us so much that he died and rose again to bring us new life, who lives and reigns...

For a Trental, Prayer (A) 3.

Lord of mercy, hear our prayer. May our brothers and sisters whom you have called from this world enter the kingdom of peace and light where your saints live in glory. This we ask...

For a Trental, Prayer (B) 4.

Almighty Father, we have been baptized into the mystery of Christ's death and resurrection. Grant that your servants for whom we pray may contemplate you for ever in the joy of the Holy Spirit. This we ask...

For Benefactors, Prayer (A) 5.

All-powerful and ever-living God, never do we pray to you without hope of finding mercy. Welcome into the communion of your saints these your servants who passed from this life confessing your name. This we ask...

For Benefactors, Prayer (B)

Father, almighty God, our deceased benefactors believed that Christ is the risen Lord. Release them from their sins and grant them the freedom of your perfect peace. May they be with you in the glory of your kingdom on the last day. This we ask...

For any Person

God of tenderness, you know the secrets of our hearts. In your wisdom you set a term to our lives on earth and thus open for us the gates of eternity. Your servant... was united with us by faith in this life; let him/her now be one with you in the fulness of your love. This we ask...

For a Monk or Nun

10.

Lord, make the day which has no end dawn for our brother/sister ... He/she cleaved to you faithfully in the mystery of your hidden presence. Bring him/her now to gaze eternally on your glory with unveiled face. This we ask...

For the Departed Members of our Order 11.

Father, source of forgiveness and salvation for all mankind, hear our prayer. By the prayers of the ever-virgin Mary, may our brothers and sisters in the Order who have gone from this world come to share eternal happiness with all the saints. This we ask...

For those buried in our cemetery 12.

Lord our God, it is in your mercy that the souls of the faithful find rest. Forgive all those who have fallen asleep in Christ, especially our brothers/sisters who are buried here. Freed from all their sins may they find their joy in being with you forever. This we ask...

For Parents 13.

Almighty God, you command us to honor our father and mother. In your mercy forgive the sins of my (our) parents and let me one day be with them again in the radiance of eternal joy. This we ask...

For all the Dead 14.

God, our maker and redeemer, in your mercy hear our prayer. Grant forgiveness and peace to all our brothers and sisters who longed for your mercy. This we ask ...

For the Living and the Dead 15.

All-powerful and ever-living God, Lord of the living and the dead, you have mercy on all those whose faith and goodness are known to you since the beginning of the world. In your all-embracing love forgive those for whom we pray. This we ask...

V/. May they rest in peace. R/. Amen.

MATINS FIRST

NOCTURN

PSALMODY

Ant. O Lord, my God, make clear your way before me.
Ps. 5,9

Psalm 5 Access to God's house

To my words give ear, O Lord, give heed to my groaning. Attend to the sound of my cries, my King and my God.

It is you whom I invoke, O Lord. In the morning you hear me; In the morning I offer you my prayer, watching and waiting.

You are no God who loves evil;
no sinner is your guest.
The boastful shall not stand their ground before your face.

You hate all who do evil:
you destroy all who lie.
The deceitful and bloodthirsty man
the Lord detests.

But I through the greatness of your love have access to your house.

I bow before your holy temple, filled with awe.

Lead me, Lord, in your justice, because of those who lie in wait; make clear your way before me.

No truth can be found in their mouths, their heart is all mischief, Their throat a wide-open grave, all honey their speech.

Declare them guilty, O God.
Let them fail hi their designs.
Drive them out for their many offences;
for they have defied you.

All those you protect shall be glad and ring out their joy. You shelter them; in you they rejoice, those who love your name.

It is you who bless the just man, Lord:
you surround him with favor as with a shield.

Psalm 6 Prayer in time of distress

Lord, do not reprove me in your anger;
punish me not, in your rage.
Have mercy on me, Lord, I have no strength;
Lord, heal me, my body is racked;
my soul is racked with pain.

But you, O Lord... how long?
Return, Lord, rescue my soul.
Save me in your merciful love;
for in death no one remembers you;
from the grave, who can give you praise?

I am exhausted with my groaning;
every night I drench my pillow with tears;
I bedew my bed with weeping.
My eye wastes away with grief;
I have grown old surrounded by my foes.

Leave me, all you who do evil;
for the Lord has heard my weeping.

The Lord has heard my plea; The Lord will accept my prayer. All my foes will retire in confusion, foiled and suddenly confounded.

Psalm 7 Prayer to God who saves the upright of heart

Lord God, I take refuge in you.
From my pursuer save me and rescue me,
Lest he tear me to pieces like a lion
and drag me off with no one to rescue me.

Lord God, if my hands have done wrong, if I have paid back evil for good, I who saved my unjust oppressor: Then let my foe pursue me
and seize me, let him trample my life to the ground and lay my soul in the dust.

Lord, rise up in your anger,
rise against the fury of my foes;
my God, awake! You will give judgment.
Let the company of nations gather round you,
taking your seat above them on high.
The Lord is judge of the peoples.

Give judgment for me, Lord; I am just
and innocent of heart.

Put an end to the evil of the wicked!
Make the just stand firm,
you who test mind and heart,
O just God!

God is the shield that protects me,
who saves the upright of heart.
God is a just judge
slow to anger;
But he threatens the wicked every day,
men who will not repent.

God will sharpen his sword;
he has braced his bow and taken aim.
For them he has prepared deadly weapons;
he barbs his arrows with fire.
Here is one who is pregnant with malice,
conceives evil and brings forth lies.

He digs a pitfall, digs it deep;
and in the trap he has made he will fall.
His malice will recoil on himself;
on his own head his violence will fall.

Ant. O Lord, my God, make clear your way before me.
Ps. 5,9

V/. Return, Lord, rescue my soul.

R/. Save me in your merciful love. Ps. 6,5

Silent prayer. (Our Father, Hail Mary.) We are free to choose any one among the three series of lessons which follow.

LESSONS

First Series

LESSON 1.

Job 7,16b-21

Let me alone, Lord, for my days are but a breath. What is man, that you make much of him, or pay him any heed? You observe him with each new day and try him at every moment! How long will it be before you look away from me, and let me alone long enough to swallow my spittle? Though I have sinned, what can I do to you, O watcher of men? Why do you not pardon my offense, or take away my guilt? For soon I shall lie down in the dust; and should you seek me I shall then be gone.

RESPONSE

Job 19,25-26

I know that my Redeemer lives and on the last day I shall rise again, t In my body I shall look on God, my Savior.

V. I myself shall see him; my own eyes will gaze on him. Job 19,27

In my body I shall look on God, my Savior.

LESSON 2.

Job 10,1-7

I will give myself up to complaint; I will speak from the bitterness of my soul. I will say to God: Do not put me in the wrong! Let me know why you oppose me. Is it a pleasure for you to oppress, to spurn the work of your hands, and smile on the plan of the wicked? Have you eyes of flesh? Do you see as man sees? Are your days as the days of a mortal, and are your years as a man's lifetime, that you seek for guilt in me and search after my sins, even though you know that I am not wicked, and that none can deliver me out of your hand?

RESPONSE

Job 7,5.7

My flesh is clothed with worms and scabs; my skin cracks and festers. ± Remember, Lord, that my life is like the wind.

V/. My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle; they come to an end without hope. Job 7,6

Remember, Lord, that my life is like the wind.

LESSON 3.

Job 10,8-12

our hands, Lord, have formed me and fashioned me; will you then turn and destroy me? Oh, remember that you fashioned me from clay! Will you then bring me down to dust again? Did you not pour me out as milk, and thicken me like cheese? With skin and flesh you clothed me, with bones and sinews knit me together. Grace and favor you granted me, and your providence has preserved my spirit.

RESPONSE

Job 7,7-8

Remember, O God, that my life is like the wind. t
The eye that now sees me shall no more behold me.

V/. My skin cracks and festers; I shall not see happiness again. Job 7,5.7

The eye that now sees me shall no more behold me.

Second Series

LESSON

Eccles. 12,1-8

Remember your Creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come and the years approach of which you will say, "I have no pleasure in them"; before the sun is darkened, and the light, and the moon, and the stars, while the clouds return after the rain; when the guardians of the house tremble, and the strong men are bent, and the grinders are idle because they are few, and they who look through the windows grow blind; when the doors to the street are shut, and the sound of the mill is low; when one waits for the chirp of a bird, but all the daughters of song are suppressed; and one fears heights, and perils in the street; when the almond tree blooms, and the locust grows sluggish and the caper berry is without effect, because man goes to his lasting home, and mourners go about the streets; before the silver cord is snapped and the golden bowl is broken, and the pitcher is shattered at the spring, and the broken pulley falls into the well, and the dust returns to the earth as it once was, and the life breath returns to God who gave it. Vanity of vanities, says Qoheleth, all things are vanity!

RESPONSE

Gen. 3,19

By the sweat of your face shall you get bread to eat, until you \pm return to the ground, from which you were taken. V/. For you are dirt, and to dirt you shall return.

Gen. 3,19

Return to the ground, from which you were taken.

Third Series

LESSON

Rom. 8,18-25

Brothers, I consider the sufferings of the present to be as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed in us. Indeed, the whole created world eagerly awaits the revelation of the sons of God. Creation was made subject to futility, not of its own accord but by him who once subjected it; and yet not without hope, because the world itself will be freed from its slavery to corruption and share in the glorious freedom of the children of God. Yes, we know that all creation groans and is in agony even until now. Not only that, but we ourselves, although we have the Spirit as first fruits, groan inwardly while we await the redemption of our bodies. In hope we were saved. But hope is not hope if its object is seen; how is it possible for one to hope for what he sees? And hoping for what we cannot see means awaiting it with patient endurance.

RESPONSE

Rom. 8,10-11

The body is dead indeed because of sin, while the spirit lives because of justice. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, then t he who raised Christ from the dead will bring your mortal bodies to life.

V/. Through his Spirit dwelling in you. Rom. 8,11 He who raised Christ from the dead will bring your mortal bodies to life.

PSALMODY

Ant. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose. Ps. 22,2

Psalm 22 The good shepherd

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose. Near restful waters he leads me, to revive my drooping spirit.

He guides me along the right path; he is true to his name.

If I should walk in the valley of darkness no evil would I fear.

You are there with your crook and your staff; with these you give me comfort.

You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes. My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing.

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell forever and ever.

Psalm 24 Prayer for forgiveness and protection

To you, O Lord, I lift up my soul.
I trust you, let me not be disappointed;
do not let my enemies triumph.

Those who hope in you shall not be disappointed, but only those who wantonly break faith.

Lord, make me know your ways.

Lord, teach me your paths.

Make me walk hi your truth, and teach me:
for you are God my savior.

In you I hope all day long because of your goodness, O Lord.

Remember your mercy, Lord, and the love you have shown from of old.
Do not remember the sins of my youth.
In your love remember me.

The Lord is good and upright. He shows the path to those who stray, He guides the humble in the right path; He teaches his way to the poor.

His ways are faithfulness and love for those who keep his covenant and will. Lord, for the sake of your name forgive my guilt; for it is great.

If anyone fears the Lord
he will show him the path he should choose.
His soul shall live in happines and his children shall possess the land.
The Lord's friendship is for those who revere him;
to them he reveals his covenant.

My eyes are always on the Lord; for he rescues my feet from the snare. Turn to me and have mercy for I am lonely and poor.

Relieve the anguish of my heart and set me free from my distress. See my affliction and my toil and take all my sins away.

See how many are my foes;
how violent their hatred for me.
Preserve my life and rescue me.
Do not disappoint me, you are my refuge.
May innocence and uprightness protect me:
for my hope is in you, O Lord.
Redeem Israel, O God, from all its distress.

Psalm 26 Seeking God's face

The Lord is my light and my help; whom shall I fear?
The Lord is the stronghold of my life;
before whom shall I shrink?

When evil-doers draw near to devour my flesh, It is they, my enemies and foes, who stumble and fall.

Though an army encamp against me my heart would not fear. Though war break out against me even then would I trust.

There is one thing I ask of the Lord,
for this I long,
To live in the house of the Lord,
all the days of my life,
To savor the sweetness of the Lord,
to behold his temple.

For there he keeps me safe in his tent in the day of evil.
He hides me in the shelter of his tent, on a rock he sets me safe.

And now my head shall be raised above my foes who surround me,

And I shall offer within his tent
a sacrifice of joy.
I will sing and make music for the Lord.

O Lord, hear my voice when I call; have mercy and answer. Of you my heart has spoken: "Seek his face."

It is your face, O Lord, that I seek; hide not your face. Dismiss not your servant in anger; you have been my help.

Do not abandon or forsake me,
O God my help!
Though father and mother forsake me,
the Lord will receive me.
Instruct me, Lord, in your way;
on an even path lead me.
When they lie in ambush protect me from my enemy's greed.
False witnesses rise against me,
breathing out fury.

I am sure I shall see the Lord's goodness in the land of the living.
Hope in him, hold firm and take heart.
Hope in the Lord!

Ant. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose. Ps. 22,2

V/. Preserve my life and rescue me.

R/. Do not disappoint me, you are my refuge.

Ps. 24,20

Silent prayer. (Our Father, Hail Mary.)

LESSONS

First SeriesLESSON 4.*Job 13,22b-28

Let me speak, and answer me. What are my faults and my sins? My misdeeds and my sins make known to me! Why do you hide your face and consider me your enemy? Will you harass a wind-driven leaf, or pursue a withered straw? For you draw up bitter indictments against me, and punish in me the faults of my youth. You put my feet in the stocks; you watch all my paths and trace out all my footsteps. I wear out like a leather bottle, like a garment that the moth has consumed.

RESPONSEJob 10,20-21

The days of my life are few. ± Let me alone, Lord, that I may recover a little, before I go to the land of darkness and of gloom.

V. Your hands have formed me and fashioned me; will you then turn and destroy me? Job 10,8

Let me alone, Lord, that I may recover a little, before I go to the land of darkness and of gloom.

LESSON 5.Job 14,1-6

Man born of woman is short-lived and full of trouble, like a flower that springs up and fades, swift as a shadow that does not abide. Upon such a one will you cast your eyes so as to bring him into judgment before you? Can a man be found who is clean of defilement? There is none, however short his days. You know the number of his months; you have fixed the limit which he cannot pass. Look away from him and let him be, while like a hireling, he completes his day.

RESPONSEJob 13,20-21

From your presence, Lord, I need not hide. Withdraw your hand far from me, ± and let not the terror of you frighten me.

V/. Let me alone, Lord, for my days are but a breath. Job 7,16

And let not the terror of you frighten me.

LESSON 6.Job 14,13-16

Oh, that you would hide me in the nether world and keep me sheltered till your wrath is past; would fix a time for me, and then remember me! When a man has died, were he to live again, all the days of my drudgery I would wait, until my relief should come. You would call, and I would answer you; you would esteem the work of your hands. Surely then you would count my steps, and not keep watch for sin in me.

RESPONSEJob 14,12

Man lies down and rises not again. ± Till the heavens are no more, he shall not awake.

V/. When he dies, and all vigor leaves him, when man expires, where then, I ask, is he? Job 14,10

Till the heavens are no more, he shall not awake.

Second Series

LESSON2 Cor. 4,16-5,1.6-10

Brothers, we do not lose heart, because our inner being is renewed each day even though our body is being destroyed at the same time. The present burden of our trial is light enough, and earns for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison. We do not fix our gaze on what is seen but on what is unseen. What is seen is transitory; what is unseen lasts forever. Indeed, we know that when the earthly tent in which we dwell is destroyed we have a dwelling provided for us by God, a dwelling in the heavens, not made by hands but to last forever. Therefore we continue to be confident. We know that while we dwell in the body we are away from the Lord. We walk by faith, not by sight. I repeat, we are full of confidence and would much rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. This being so, we make it our aim to please him whether we are with him or away from him. The lives of all of us are to be revealed before the tribunal of Christ so that each one may receive his recompense, good or bad, according to his life in the body.

RESPONSE

Phil. 3,8.10

I have accounted all as rubbish ± so that I may know Christ and the power flowing from his resurrection; likewise to know how to share in his sufferings.

V/* By being formed into the pattern of his death, thus do I hope that I may arrive at resurrection from the dead. Phil. 3,10-11

So that I may know Christ and the power flowing from his resurrection; likewise to know how to share in his sufferings.

Third Series

LESSON

I Cor. 15,3-4.20-28

rothers, I handed on to you first of all what I myself received, that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures; that he was buried and, in accordance with the Scriptures, rose on the third day. Christ is now raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep. Death came through a man; hence the resurrection of the dead conies through a man also. Just as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will come to life again, but each one in proper order: Christ the first fruits and then, at his coming, all those who belong to him. After that will come the end, when, after having destroyed every sovereignty, authority, and power, he will hand over the kingdom to God the Father. Christ must reign until God has put all enemies under his feet, and the last enemy to be destroyed is death. Scripture reads that God "has placed all things under his feet". But when it says that everything has been made subject, it is clear that he who has made everything subject to Christ is excluded. When, finally, all has been subjected to the Son, he will then subject himself to the One who made all things subject to him, so that God may be all in all.

RESPONSECol. 3,4

When Christ your life appears, then ± you shall appear with him in glory.

V/. You have died! Your life is hidden now with Christ in God. Col. 3,3

You shall appear with him in glory.

PSALMODY

Ant. O Lord, come to my rescue, Lord, come to my aid. Ps. 39,14

Psalm 39
Thanksgiving and plea for help

I waited, I waited for the Lord and he stooped down to me; he heard my cry.

He drew me from the deadly pit, from the miry clay. He set my feet upon a rock and made my footsteps firm.

He put a new song into my mouth, praise of our God. Many shall see and fear and shall trust in the Lord.

Happy the man who has placed his trust in the Lord And has not gone over to the rebels who follow false gods.

How many, O Lord my God, are the wonders and designs
That you have worked for us;
you have no equal.

Should I proclaim and speak of them,
they are more than I can tell!

You do not ask for sacrifice and offerings, but an open ear.

You do not ask for holocaust and victim.
Instead, here am I.

In the scroll of the book it stands written that I should do your will. My God, I delight in your law in the depth of my heart.

Your justice I have proclaimed in the great assembly. My lips I have not sealed; you know it, O Lord.

I have not hidden your justice in my heart but declared your faithful help. I have not hidden your love and your truth from the great assembly.

O Lord, you will not withhold your compassion from me. Your merciful love and your truth will always guard me.

For I am beset with evils too many to be counted. My sins have fallen upon me and my sight fails me. They are more than the hairs of my head and my heart sinks.

O Lord, come to my rescue, Lord, come to my aid. O let there be shame and confusion on those who seek my life.

O let them turn back in confusion, who delight in my harm. Let them be appalled, covered with shame, who jeer at my lot.

O let there be rejoicing and gladness for all who seek you. Let them ever say: "The Lord is great", who love your saving help.

As for me, wretched and poor, the Lord thinks of me. You are my rescuer, my help, O God, do not delay.

Psalm 40 Prayer in distress

Happy the man who considers the poor and the weak.

The Lord will save him in the day of evil, Will guard him, give him life, make him happy

in the land and will not give him up to the will of his foes. The Lord will help him on his bed of pain, he will bring him back from sickness to health.

As for me, I said: "Lord, have mercy on me, heal my soul for I have sinned against you." My foes are speaking evil against me. "How long before he dies and his name

be forgotten?"
They come to visit me and speak empty words, their hearts full of malice, they spread it abroad.

My enemies whisper together against me. They all weigh up the evil which is on me: "Some deadly thing has fastened upon him, he will not rise again from where he lies." Thus even my friend, in whom I trusted, who ate my bread, has turned against me.

But you, O Lord, have mercy on me. Let me rise once more and I will repay them. By this I shall know that you are my friend, if my foes do not shout in triumph over me. If you uphold me I shall be unharmed and set in your presence forevermore.

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel from age to age. Amen. Amen.

Psalm 41 Exiled soul's avid desire for God

Like the deer that yearns for running streams, So my soul is yearning for you my God.

My soul is thirsting for God, the God of my life; When can I enter and see the face of God?

My tears have become my bread, by night, by day, As I hear it said all the day long: "Where is your God?"

These things will I remember as I pour out my soul:
How I would lead the rejoicing crowd into the house of God,
Amid cries of gladness and thanksgiving,
the throng wild with joy.

Why are you cast down, my soul, why groan within me? Hope in God; I will praise him still, my savior and my God.

My soul is cast down within me
as I think of you,
From the country of Jordan and Mount Hermon, from the Hill of Mizar.

Deep is calling on deep, in the roar of waters:

Your torrents and all your waves swept over me.

By day the Lord will send his loving kindness; By night I will sing to him, praise the God of my life.

I will say to God, my rock: "Why have you forgotten me? Why do I go mourning oppressed by the foe?"

With cries that pierce me to the heart, my enemies revile me, Saying to me all the day long: "Where is your God?"

Why are you cast down, my soul, why groan within me? Hope in God; I will praise him still, my savior and my God.

Ant. O Lord, come to my rescue, Lord, come to my

Silent prayer. (Our Father, Hail Mary.)

LESSONS

First Series

LESSON 7.

Job 17,1-3.11-15

My spirit is broken, my lamp of life extinguished; my burial is at hand. I am indeed mocked, and, as their provocation mounts, my eyes grow dim.
Grant me one to offer you a pledge on my behalf:
who is there that will give surety for me? My days are passed away, my plans are at an end, the cherished purposes of my heart. Such men change the night into day; where there is darkness they talk of approaching light. If I look for the nether world as my dwelling, if I spread my couch in the darkness, if I must call corruption "my father", and the maggot "my mother" and "my sister", where then is my hope, and my prosperity, who shall see? You are my hope, O Lord my God.

RESPONSE

Job 30,17-19

My frame takes no rest by night; my inward parts seethe and will not be stilled. One with great power lays hold of my clothing, t He has cast me into the mire; I am leveled with the dust and ashes.

V/“ My soul ebbs away from me; days of affliction have overtaken me. Job 30,16

He has cast me into the mire; I am leveled with the dust and ashes.

LESSON 8.

Job 19,20-27

My bones cleave to my skin, and I have escaped with my flesh between my teeth. Pity me, pity me, O you my friends, for the hand of God has struck me! Why do you hound me as though you were divine, and insatiably prey upon me? Oh, would that my words were written down! Would that they were inscribed in a record: that with an iron chisel and with lead they were cut in the rock forever! But as for me, I know that my Redeemer lives, and that he will at last stand forth upon the dust; whom I myself shall see: my own eyes, not another's, shall behold him, and from my flesh I shall see God. My inmost being is consumed with longing.

RESPONSE

Job 30,31

My harp is turned to mourning, and my reed pipe to sounds of weeping. ± Let me alone, Lord, for my days are but a breath.

V/. My blackened skin falls away from me; the heat scorches my very frame. Job 30,30

Let me alone, Lord, for my days are but a breath.

LESSON 9.

Job 10,18-22

Why then did you bring me forth from the womb? I should have died and no eye have seen me. I should be as though I had never lived; I should have been taken from the womb to the grave. Are not the days of my life few? Let me alone, that I may recover a little before I go whence I shall not return, to the land of darkness and of gloom, the black, disordered land where darkness is the only light.

RESPONSE

Ps. 142,2.11

Enter not into judgment with your servant, Lord; ± free me from distress.

V/. Hasten to answer me, O Lord, for my spirit fails me. Ps. 142,7

Free me from distress.

Second Series

LESSON

Rev. 21,1-7

Isaw new heavens and a new earth. The former heavens and the former earth had passed away, and the sea was no longer. I also saw a new Jerusalem, the holy city, coming down out of heaven from God, beautiful as a bride prepared to meet her husband. I heard a loud voice from the throne cry out: "This is God's dwelling among men. He shall dwell with them and they shall be his people and he shall be their God who is always with them. He shall wipe every tear from their eyes, and there shall be no more death or mourning, crying out or pain, for the former world has passed away." The One who sat on the throne said to me, "See, I make all things new!" Then he said, "Write these matters down, for the words are trustworthy and true!" He went on to say: "These words are already fulfilled! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To anyone who thirsts I will give to drink without cost from the spring of lifegiving water. He who wins the victory shall inherit these gifts; I will be his God and he shall be my son."

RESPONSE

I Jn. 3, 1

See what love the Father has bestowed on us in letting us be called children of God! Yet that is what we are.

V/. We know that when he appears we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. I Jn. 3, 2

See what love the Father has bestowed on us in letting us be called children of God! Yet that is what we are.

Third Series

LESSON

I Cor. 15, 42b-50. 53-54

Brothers, what is sown in the earth is subject to decay, what rises is incorruptible. What is sown is ignoble, what rises is glorious. Weakness is sown, strength rises up. A natural body is put down and a spiritual body comes up. If there is a natural body, be sure there is also a spiritual body. Scripture has it that Adam, the first man, became a living soul; the last Adam has become a life-giving spirit. Take note, the spiritual was not first; first came the natural and after that the spiritual. The first man was of earth, formed from dust, the second is from heaven. Earthly men are like the man of earth, heavenly men are like the man of heaven. Just as we resemble the man from earth, so shall we bear the likeness of the man from heaven. This is what I mean, brothers: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; no more can corruption inherit incorruption. This corruptible body must be clothed with incorruptibility, this mortal body with immortality. When the corruptible frame takes on incorruptibility and the mortal immortality, then will the saying of Scripture be fulfilled: "Death is swallowed up in victory."

RESPONSE

Phil. 3,20-21

We eagerly await the coming of our Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ. ± He will give a new form to this lowly body of ours and remake it according to the pattern of his glorified body.

V/. By his power to subject everything to himself.

PhH. 3,21

He will give a new form to this lowly body of ours and remake it according to the pattern of his glorified body.

* * *

V/. I heard a voice from heaven saying: R/. Happy now are the dead who die in the Lord.

Rev. 14,13

Silent prayer. (Our Father, Hail Mary.)

Psalm 119 Longing for peace

To the Lord in the hour of my distress I call and he answers me. "O Lord, save my soul from lying lips, from the tongue of the deceitful."

What shall he pay you in return,
O treacherous tongue?
The warrior's arrows sharpened
and coals, red-hot, blazing.

Alas, that I abide a stranger in Meshech, dwell
among the tents of Kedar!

Long enough have I been dwelling with
those who hate peace.
I am for peace, but when I speak,
they are for fighting.

V/. Grant them eternal rest, O Lord.

R/. And may your light shine on them for ever.

PSALMODY

Ant. The bones that were crushed shall leap for joy before the Lord. Ps. 50,10

Psalm 50 O God, have mercy on me
(Miserere)

Have mercy on me, God, in your kindness. In your compassion blot out my offence. O wash
me more and more from my guilt and cleanse
me from my sin.

My offences truly I know them; my sin is always before me. Against you, you alone,
have I sinned; what is evil in your sight I have done.

That you may be justified when you give sentence and be without reproach when you judge. O see, in guilt I was born, a sinner was I conceived.

Indeed you love truth in the heart;
then in the secret of my heart teach me wisdom.

O purify me, then I shall be clean;
O wash me, I shall be whiter than snow.

Make me hear rejoicing and gladness, that the bones you have crushed may thrill. From my sins turn away your face and blot out all my guilt.

A pure heart create for me, O God, put a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me away from your presence, nor deprive me of your holy spirit.

Give me again the joy of your help; with a spirit of fervor sustain me, That I may teach transgressors your ways and sinners may return to you.

O rescue me, God, my helper,
and my tongue shall ring out your goodness.
O Lord, open my lips
and my mouth shall declare your praise.

For in sacrifice you take no delight,
burnt offering from me you would refuse.
My sacrifice, a contrite spirit.
A humbled, contrite heart you will not spurn.

In your goodness, show favor to Zion:
rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.
Then you will be pleased with lawful sacrifice,
burnt offerings wholly consumed,
then you will be offered young bulls on your altar.

Psalm 64 Thanksgiving for God's abundant blessings

To you our praise is due in Zion, O God. To you we pay our vows, you who hear our
prayer.

To you all flesh will come with its burden of sin. Too heavy for us, our offences, but you wipe them away.

Blessed is he whom you choose and call to dwell in your courts.
We are filled with the blessings of your house, of your holy temple.

You keep your pledge with wonders, O
God our savior,

The hope of all the earth and of far distant isles.

You uphold the mountains with your strength, you are girded with power. You still the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves, and the tumult of the peoples.

The ends of the earth stand in awe at the sight of your wonders. The lands of sunrise and sunset you fill with your joy.

You care for the earth, give it water, you fill it with riches. Your river in heaven brims over to provide its grain.

And thus you provide for the earth; you drench its furrows, You level it, soften it with showers, you bless its growth.

You crown the year with your goodness.
Abundance flows in your steps,
in the pastures of the wilderness it flows.

The hills are girded with joy, the meadows covered with flocks, The valleys are decked with wheat. They shout for joy, yes, they sing.

Psalm 62 A soul thirsting
for God

O God, you are my God, for you I long;
for you my soul is thirsting.
My body pines for you
like a dry, weary land without water.

So I gaze on you in the sanctuary to see your strength and your glory.

For your love is better than life, my lips
will speak your praise. So I will bless you all my life, in your name I will lift up my hands.

My soul shall be filled as with a banquet, my mouth shall praise you with joy.

On my bed I remember you.
On you I muse through the night
For you have been my help;
in the shadow of your wings I rejoice.
My soul clings to you;
your right hand holds me fast.

Those who seek to destroy my life
shall go down to the depths of the earth.
They shall be put into the power of the sword
and left as the prey of the jackals.
But the king shall rejoice in God;
all that swear by him shall be blessed,
for the mouth of liars shall be silenced.
Grant them eternal rest is not said here.

Psalm 66 People of all nations will worship the Lord

O God, be gracious and bless us and let your face shed its light upon us. So will your ways
be known upon earth and all nations learn
your saving help.

Let the peoples praise you, O God; let
all the peoples praise you.

Let the nations be glad and exult for you rule the world with justice.

With fairness you rule the peoples,
you guide the nations on earth.

Let the peoples praise you, O God; let
all the peoples praise you.

The earth has yielded its fruit for God, our God, has blessed us. May God still give us his blessing till the ends of the earth revere him.

Let the peoples praise you, O God; let
all the peoples praise you.

The anguish of dying, the joy of recovery Once I said,

"In the noontime of life I must depart! To the gates of the nether world I shall be consigned for the rest of my years."

I said, "I shall see the Lord no more in the land of the living. No longer shall I behold my fellow men among those who dwell in the world."

My dwelling, like a shepherd's tent, is struck down and borne away from me; You have folded up my life, like a weaver who severs the last thread.

Day and night you give me over to torment;
I cry out until the dawn.

Like a lion he breaks all my bones;
day and night you give me over to torment,
Like a swallow I utter shrill cries;
I moan like a dove.

My eyes grow weak, gazing heavenward:
O Lord, I am in straits; be my surety!

What am I to say or tell him?

He has done it!

I shall go on through all my years despite the bitterness of my soul.

Those live whom the Lord protects; yours... the life of my spirit. You have given me health and life; thus is my bitterness transformed into peace. You have preserved my life from the pit of destruction, When you cast behind your back all my sins. For it is not the nether world that gives you thanks, nor death that praises you; Neither do those who go down into the pit await your kindness. The living, the living give you thanks, as I do today.

Fathers declare to their sons, O God, your faithfulness. The Lord is our savior;
we shall sing to stringed instruments In the house of the Lord all the days of our life.

Psalm 148 Praise to the Lord, the Creator

Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise him in the heights. Praise him, all his angels, praise him, all his host.

Praise him, sun and moon, praise him,
shining stars. Praise him, highest heavens and the waters above the heavens.

Let them praise the name of the Lord. He commanded: they were made. He fixed them forever, gave a law which shall not pass away.

Praise the Lord from the earth, sea creatures and all oceans, Fire and hail, snow and mist, stormy winds that obey his word;

All mountains and hills, all fruit trees and cedars, Beasts, wild and tame, reptiles and birds on the wing;

All earth's kings and peoples, earth's princes and rulers; Young men and maidens, old men together with children.

Let them praise the name of the Lord for he alone is exalted. The splendor of his name reaches beyond heaven and earth.

He exalts the strength of his people. He is the praise of all his saints, Of the sons of Israel, of the people to whom he comes close.

Grant them eternal rest is not said here.

Psalm 149 The joy of God's holy people

Sing a new song to the Lord,
his praise in the assembly of the faithful.
Let Israel rejoice in its Maker,
let Zion's sons exult in their king.
Let them praise his name with dancing
and make music with timbrel and harp.

For the Lord takes delight in his people. He crowns the poor with salvation. Let the faithful rejoice in their glory, shout for joy and take their rest. Let the praise of God be on their lips and a two-edged sword in their hand,

To deal out vengeance to the nations and punishment on all the peoples; To bind their kings in chains and their nobles in fetters of iron; To carry out the sentence pre-ordained: this honor is for all his faithful.

Grant them eternal rest is not said here.

Psalm 150 Praise the Lord

Praise God in his holy place, praise him in his mighty heavens. Praise him for his powerful deeds, praise his surpassing greatness.

O praise him with sound of trumpet, praise him with lute and harp. Praise him with timbrel and dance, praise him with strings and pipes.

O praise him with resounding cymbals, praise him with clashing of cymbals. Let everything that lives and that breathes give praise to the Lord!

Ant. The bones that were crushed shall leap for joy before the Lord. Ps. 50,10

V/. I heard a voice from heaven saying:

R/. Happy now are the dead who die in the Lord.

Rev. 14,19

GOSPEL CANTICLE (BENEDICTUS)

Ant. All that the Father gives to me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I shall not turn away.

Jn. 6,37

Benedictus

Lk. 1,68-79

The Messiah and his forerunner

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he has visited and redeemed his people, and has raised up
a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David, as he spoke by the mouth
of his holy prophets from of old,
that we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all who hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant, the oath which he swore to our father Abraham,

to grant us
that we, being delivered from the hand
of our enemies,
might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness

before him all the days of our life.
And you, child, will be called
the prophet of the Most High;
for you will go before the Lord to prepare his ways, to give knowledge of salvation to his people in the forgiveness of their sins, through the tender mercy of our God, when the day shall dawn upon us from on high to give light to those who sit in darkness
and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Ant. All that the Father gives to me will come to me,
and whoever comes to me I shall not turn away.

Jn.6,37

Silent prayer. (Our Father, Hail Mary.)

Psalm 129 Out of the depths I cry
to you

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord,
Lord, hear my voice!

O let your ears be attentive
to the voice of my pleading.

If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt,
Lord, who would survive? But with you is found forgiveness: for this we revere you.

My soul is waiting for the Lord,
I count on his word.

My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchmen for daybreak. Let the watchmen count on daybreak and Israel
on the Lord.

Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption, Israel indeed he
will redeem from all its iniquity.

y. Grant them eternal rest, O Lord.

U/. And may your light shine on them for ever.

PRAYER: See page 422.

ACTS OF THE THEOLOGICAL VIRTUES.

Act of Faith.

I most firmly believe, because God, who is the infallible Truth, hath so revealed to the Holy Catholic Church, and through the Church reveals to us, that there is one only God in three divine Persons, equal and distinct, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost; that the Son became man by taking to Himself flesh and a human soul through the operation of the Holy Ghost in the womb of the most pure Virgin Mary that He died for us upon the cross, rose again, ascended into heaven, and from thence shall come again at the end of the world to judge all the living and the dead, to give Paradise for ever to the good, and hell to the wicked; moreover, upon the same motive I believe all that the same holy Church believes and teaches.

Act of Hope.

O my God, because Thou art almighty, infinitely good and merciful, I hope that by the merits of the Passion and Death of Jesus Christ our Saviour Thou wilt grant me eternal life, which Thou, who art the most faithful, hast promised to all those who shall do the works of a good Christian, as I purpose to do by Thy holy help.

Act of Charity.

O my God, because Thou art the highest and most perfect good, I love Thee with my whole heart, and above all things; and rather than offend Thee, I am ready to lose all things else; and moreover for Thy love I love and desire to love my neighbour as myself. - Raccolta

Alternative Hymns for the Divine Office

ALTERNATIVE HYMNS

These alternative hymns can be used in the place of any of the regular hymns of the Canonical Office or the Office of the Blessed Virgin. Although the hymns are grouped in appropriate categories, they can be used in ones other than those designated according to the discretion of the person using them.

MORNING Lord, God, your light which dims the stars
Awakes ail things,
And all that springs to life in you
Your glory sings.

Your peaceful presence, giving strength,
Is everywhere,
And fallen men may rise again
On wings of prayer.

You are the God whose mercy rests
On all you made;
You gave us Christ, whose love through death
Our ransom paid.

We praise you, Father, with your Son And Spirit blest,
In whom creation lives and moves, And finds its rest.

Stanbrook Abbey

O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come,

Our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home.

Under the shadow of your throne your saints have dwelt secure:
Sufficient is your arm alone,
and our defence is sure.

Before the hills in order stood or earth received her frame,
From everlasting you are God,
to endless years the same.

A thousand years in your sight are like an evening gone; Short as the watch that ends the night before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream, bears all its sons away; They fly forgotten, as a dream dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come: Be our guard while life shall last and our eternal home.

Isaac Watts

3

You read my heart. You see the secrets of my life, My lostness in lust and little things, not harmonised In loving worship of you alone, my Lord. O let me be within your loving spotless Son A worshipper in spirit and in truth. A candle burning brightly for the Lord.
Turn my days into a joyful celebration Of the Mystery that is my origin and end.

Unite me with you, high priest of humanity,
Alpha and Omega, beginning and end,
Firstborn of all creatures.
For you have chosen me
Before the foundation of the world,
You are the vibration of my soul.
Make me a priest of the universe
Blending all creatures inwardly
Into a song of praise and adoration.
Let the radiance of your worship
Shine upon my daily doings.
Change the world before my inner eye
Into a revelation of your splendor,
Shining forth most brightly
The destiny of all that is.

Adrian van Kaam, C.S.Sp.

I bind unto myself today The power of God to hold and lead, His eye to watch, his might to stay, His ear to hearken to my need. The wisdom of my God to teach, His hand to guide, his shield to ward; The word of God to give me speech, His heavenly host to be my guard.

Christ be with me, Christ within me,
Christ behind me, Christ before me,
Christ beside me, Christ to win me, Christ to comfort me and restore me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ in quiet, Christ in danger, Christ in hearts of all that love me, Christ in mouth of friend or stranger.

I bind unto myself the name,

The strong name of the Trinity; By invocation of the same, The Three in One,
the One in Three, Of whom all nature hath creation; Eternal Father, Spirit, Word, Praise to the Lord of my salvation;
Salvation is of Christ the Lord. Amen.

From the trans, of Mrs. C.F. Alexander.

O my God, Trinity, Whom I adore!
Help me to become utterly forgetful of self,
that I may bury myself in Thee,
as changeless and as calm as though my soul were already in eternity.

May nothing disturb my peace or draw me out of Thee,
O my Immutable Lord!
But may I at every moment penetrate more deeply into the depths of Thy mystery!

O my Christ! I beseech Thee to cloth me with Thyself, to identify my soul with all the movements of Thine Own.

Immerse me in Thyself; possess me wholly, substitute Thyself for me, that my life may be but a radiance of Thine own. Enter my soul as Adorer, as Restorer, as Savior!

O consuming Fire! Spirit of Love!
Descend within me and reproduce in me, as it were,
an incarnation of the Word:
That I may be to Him another humanity wherein He renews His mystery!

And Thou, O Father, bend down toward Thy poor creature and overshadow him, beholding in him none other than Thy beloved Son In Whom Thou hast set all Thy pleasure.

O my "Three", my All, my Beatitude, Infinite Solitude, Immensity wherein I lose myself!
Bury Thyself in me that I may be buried in Thee, Until I depart to contemplate in Thy light the abyss of thy greatness!

Prayer to the Holy Trinity by Bl. Elizabeth of the Trinity

DURING THE DAY

6

Staying with grace is staying with you, my Lord, The One who refreshes and makes new my day, Who lessens my fascination with futile things And awakens me to what only counts. Keep touching me inwardly until the light of insight dawns.

Do not allow the flicker of light to die Before it becomes a living flame consuming me. Make me treasure the dawn that grows in me, Make me dwell on the voice that speaks inaudibly, Make me cherish the moment of illumination, Attune me to the tender beginnings

of your inspiration.

Oasis in the wasteland of my life, Still the noise of daily chatter That I may hear anew the murmur of living waters Running through the universe. Mellow me, refine my receptivity That I may surrender graciously To the blessings you bestow on me.

Let me hear your invitation whispered gently like the rains of spring.
 Give me an angel's wing to rise with you,
 Eternal Lord,
 To light the shadows of this dying earth With candles of compassion.

Adrian van Kaam, C.S.Sp.

Come, Seraphim, with flaming swords, turn
 All futile thoughts from out my mind, burn
 All vain desires from out my heart! I call
 On thee, My God, to rectify my fall,
 To let my mind a hallowed sanctuary be
 Where thou mayest walk and I mayest worship thee.

What joy to know thee, to know thou madest me,
 What joy to know the Incarnation, to see
 The Cross as truth, to know the love which bore
 This death for me. What joy when we adore!
 O let my mind a hallowed sanctuary be
 Where thou mayest walk and I mayest worship thee.

A silent temple, words all held in peace,
 A breathless awe, a watchful love increase;
 A tranquil confidence that I shall find
 This paradise secure within my mind.
 Oh! May the Seraphim keep this spot free
 Where thou mayest walk and I mayest worship thee.

And will you ever read these words again?
 Or let them wash thy heart like the pounding main Washes the shining sand of futile weeds?
 For the pound of eternal waves, how my shore bleeds!
 At least let me one hallowed sanctuary be
 Where thou mayest walk and I mayest worship thee.

A Paradise of heart is where God dwells
And there his pleasure finds. And when he calls
May I not hide in shame. In confidence
May I approach newborn to innocence.
Oh! make my heart a Paradise for thee,
Where thou mayest walk and I mayest worship thee.

8

God mastering me;
Giver of breath and bread;
World's strand, sway of the sea;
Lord of living and dead;
Thou hast bound bones and veins in me, fastened me flesh, And after at times almost unmade me with dread, Thy doing; and dost Thou touch me afresh? Over again
I feel thy finger and find Thee.

G. M. Hopkins

9

An empty altar is each soul Whereon the Eternal Love Would place a quenchless, living coal From His own heart of Love;
To burn and yearn back whence it came
To union with the Parent Flame.
Christ is the Living, Purging Flame,
And thou the altar art; Forth from the Love of God He came And seeks thine empty heart. Receive this Lord from heaven above, In thee to live His life of love.

Hannah Hurnard

10

You are my manna and my drink, You are my heart's content: Wine for rest and bread to work, Both joy and nourishment.

O Hidden Guest, what bliss you knew
In torments borne for me!
The bliss beyond that moment due: Your bliss to set me free.

I cling to you with talons strong -
My hope and wretchedness.
You fold my soul within your song
-Abysmal blessedness.

I cry across the starry sky
In anguish and desire
That you would speed the moments by
That feed this hidden fire.

O Everlasting covenant That Mary first enjoyed, Uniting each with every heart Till God is glorified.

You are my mantle and my strength, You are my meaning sent; My heart, my hope and my delight: O Eternal Ravishment!

O Trinity encircled sign -
What awful sovereignty -
Yet joy with dread is linked in thine
Who praise thy majesty.

Out-heavenly fair, enangelled Host, Profoundest mystery -Dwell Father, Son and Holy Ghost In splendoured ecstasy!

11

O God of truth, prepare our minds To hear and heed your holy word; Fill every heart that longs for you With your mysterious presence, Lord.

Almighty Father, with your Son And blessed Spirit, hear our prayer: Teach us to love eternal truth And seek its freedom everywhere.

Stanbrook Abbey

EVENING

12

Let thy holy presence remain with us, O Lord!
Spread over us the tabernacle of thy presence. O surround us with the pure and holy radiance of thy glory!
Spread over our heads thy splendor As the eagle over the nest he stirreth up. Thence bid the stream of life flow in upon thy servant. O make me worthy to shelter trustingly Beneath the shadow of thy wings When death shall come to part me from the world.

Jewish Liturgy

13

Day is done, but Love unfailing
Dwells ever here;
Shadows fall, but hope, prevailing,
Calms every fear.
Loving Father, none forsaking,

Take our hearts, of Love's own making, Watch our sleeping, guard our waking, Be always near!

Dark descends, but Light unending Shines through our night; You are with us, ever lending New strength to sight; One in love, your truth confessing, One in hope of heaven's blessing, May we see, in love's possessing, Love's endless light!

James Quinn.

14

Blest are the pure in heart, For they shall see our God; The secret of the Lord is theirs, Their soul is Christ's abode.

The Lord, who left the heavens, Our life and peace to bring, To dwell in lowliness with men, Their pattern and their King:

Still to the lowly soul
He does himself impart,
And for his dwelling and his throne
Chooses the pure in heart.

Lord, we thy presence seek; May ours this blessing be; Give us a pure and lowly heart, A temple fit for thee.

J.Keble.

15 Abide with me; fast falls the eventide;

The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide;
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee, Help of the helpless, O abide with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day; Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away; Change and decay in all around I see;
O thou who changest not, abide with me.

Hold thou thy Cross before my closing eyes; Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies; Heaven's morning breaks,

and earth's vain shadows flee; In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

H. F. Lyte.

16

Lead, kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom, Lead thou me on;
The night is dark, and I am far from home,
Lead thou me on.

Keep thou my feet; I do not ask to see
The distant scene; one step enough for me.

I was not ever thus, nor prayed that thou Shouldst lead me on;
I loved to choose and see my path; but now
Lead thou me on.

I loved the garish day, and, spite of fears, Pride ruled my will: remember not past years.

So long thy power hath blest me, sure it still Will lead me on

O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
The night is gone,

And with the morn those angel faces smile,
Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile.

J. H. Newman

17

Too few the mornings be, Too scant the nights, No lodging can be had For the delights That come to earth to stay, But no apartment find And ride away.

SEASONS

ADVENT

18

In the beginning God created the world. Waste and void. Waste and void. And darkness was upon the face of the deep.

Then came, at a predetermined moment, a moment in time and of time,

A moment not out of time, but in time, in what we call history: transecting, bisecting the world of time, a moment in time but not like a moment of time,

A moment in time, but time was made through that moment: for without the meaning there is no time, and that moment of tune gave the meaning.

T. S. Eliot

19

Unto us a Child is given,
Christ our Savior brings release;
Counsellor, Eternal Father,
God made man and Prince of Peace.

Born of Mary, gentle Virgin, By the Spirit of the Lord; From eternal ages spoken: This, the mighty Father's Word.

Love and truth in him shall flower, From his strength their vigor take. Branches that are bare shall blossom; Joy that slept begins to wake.

Praise the everlasting Father And the Word, his only Son; Praise them with the Holy Spirit, Perfect Trinity in One.

Stanbrook Abbey

20

Let folly praise that fancy loves, I praise and love that Child Whose heart no thought, whose tongue no word, whose hand no deed defiled. I praise him most, I love him best, all praise and love is his; While him I love, in him I live, and cannot live amiss.

Love's sweetest mark, laud's highest theme, man's most desired light,

To love him life, to leave him death, to live in him delight. He mine
by gift, I his by debt, thus each to other due, First friend he was, best friend he is,
all times will try him true.

Though young, yet wise, though small, yet strong, though man, yet God he is; As wise he knows, as strong he can, as God he loves to bless. His knowledge rules, his strength defends, his love doth cherish all; His birth
our joy, his life our light, his death our end of thrall.

Alas! He weeps, he sighs, he pants, yet do his angels sing; Out of his tears,
his sighs and throbs, doth bud a joyful spring. Almighty Babe, whose tender arms can force all foes to fly, Correct my faults, protect my life, direct me when I die.

Robert Southwell

EPIPHANY

21

In the bleak mid-winter
Frosty wind made moan,
Earth stood hard as iron, Water like a stone; Snow had fallen, snow on snow, Snow on snow, In the bleak mid-winter
Long ago.

Our God, Heaven cannot hold him,
Nor earth sustain; Heaven and earth shall flee away
When he comes to reign: •
In the bleak mid-winter
A stable-place sufficed The Lord God Almighty
Jesus Christ.
Enough for him, whom cherubim Worship night and day, A breastful of milk
And a mangerful of hay; Enough for him, whom angels Fall down before, The ox and ass and camel
Which adore.
Angels and archangels
May have gathered there;
Cherubim and Seraphim
Thronged the air;
But only his mother
In her maiden bliss
Worshipped the beloved
With a kiss.
What can I give him,
Poor as I am? If I were a shepherd
I would bring a lamb, If I were a Wise Man
I would do my part, Yet what I can I give Him,
Give my heart.

Christina Rossetti

22

When I survey the wondrous cross On which the Prince of glory died, My richest gain I count but loss, And pour contempt on all my pride.

Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast, Save in the death of Christ my God; The vain delights that charm me most: I sacrifice them to his blood.

See from his head, his hands, his feet What grief and love flow mingling down; Did e'er such Love and sorrow meet, Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Were all the realm of nature mine,
That were a present far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine, Demands my soul, my life, my all.

Isaac Watts

23

Soul of my Savior, Sanctify my breast, Body of Christ be thou my saving guest, Blood of my Savior, bathe me in Thy tide, Wash me with water flowing from thy side.

Strength and Protection may Thy Passion be; O Blessed Jesus, hear and answer me; Deep in Thy wounds, Lord, hide and shelter me, So shall I never, never part from Thee.

Guard and defend me from the wicked foe; In death's dread moments only Thee to know;

Call me and bid me to Thy throne draw nigh; That I may praise Thee with Thy saints on high.

Amen.

St. Ignatius of Loyola

(Any other approved version can be used.)

24

O Cross of Christ, immortal tree On which our Savior died, The world is sheltered by your arms That bore the Crucified.

From bitter death and barren wood The tree of life is made; Its branches bear unfailing fruit And leaves that never fade.

O faithful Cross, you stand unmoved
While ages run their course; Foundation of the universe, Creation's binding force.

Give glory to the risen Christ And to his Cross give praise, The sign of God's unfathomed love, The hope of all our days.

Stanbrook Abbey

EASTER

25

Most glorious Lord of life, that on this day Didst make thy triumph over death and sin; And having harrowed hell didst bring away Captivity thence captive, us to win:
This joyous day, dear Lord, with joy begin,

And grant that we for whom thou didst die Being with thy dear blood clean washed from sin, May live forever in felicity.
 And that thy love we weighing worthily, May likewise love thee for the same again; And for thy sake that all like dear didst buy, With love may one another entertain.
 So let us love, dear love, like as we ought.
 Love is the lesson which the Lord us taught.

Edward Spenser

26

Man, who from the first did fail to reach
 His goal, in time threw up one perfect Man
 Who realized this goal and thus could teach
 In life, in death, the quality of man.
 God's Son by nature; ours by need: did we Not cry for Him "Oh drop down dew, sweet sky"?
 At last epitomized in Him we see Ourselves: our birth, our pain, our death; and high Above the Tree, behold, transfigured through,
 Man enters God's domain! Our future lies
 In Him; in Him our end. And with our true Self born anew we walk through parted skies.

Lead on, great Son of Man, our human goal: In life, in death, our resurrected soul!

De Trinitate

ASCENSION

27

Christ is the world's redeemer,
 The lover of the pure,
 The font of heavenly wisdom,

Our trust and hope secure, The armor of his soldiers, The Lord of earth and sky, Our health while we are living, Our life when we shall die.

Down in the realm of darkness He lay a captive bound, But at the hour appointed He rose a victor crowned.

And now, to heaven ascended, He sits upon a throne, Whence he had ne'er departed, His Father's and his own.

All glory to the Father, The unbegotten One, All honor be to Jesus, His sole-begotten Son; And to the Holy Spirit, The perfect Trinity, Let all the worlds give answer, Amen - so let it be.

English Divine Office

PENTECOST

28

Breathe on me, breath of God, Fill me with life anew, That I may love the things you love, And do what you would do.

Breathe on me, breath of God, Until my heart is pure, Until with you I have one will, To live and to endure.

Breathe on me, breath of God, My soul with grace refine, Until this earthly part of me Glows with your fire divine.

Breathe on me, breath of God, So I shall never die, But live with you the perfect life In your eternity.

Edwin Hatch

29

Come, Holy Ghost, send down those beams, which sweetly flow in silent streams from Thy bright throne above.

O come, thou Father of the poor; O come, thou source of all our store; Come, fill our hearts with love.

O Thou, of comforters the best; O Thou, the soul's delightful guest, The pilgrim's sweet relief.

Rest art Thou in our toil, most sweet refreshment in the noonday heat, and solace in our grief.

O blessed Light of life Thou art; Fill with thy light the inmost heart of those who hope in Thee.

Without thy Godhead nothing can have any price or worth in man, nothing can harmless be.

Lord, wash our sinful stains away, refresh from heaven our barren clay, our wounds and bruises heal.

To Thy sweet yoke our stiff necks bow, warm with Thy fire our hearts of snow, our wandering feet recall.

Grant to Thy faithful, dearest Lord, whose only hope is Thy sure word,
the sevenfold gifts of grace.

Grant us in life Thy grace that we in peace may die and ever be in joy before Thy face.

COMMON OF THE SAINTS

BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

30

(Can be divided between the various Little Hours.)

Wild air, world-mothering air, Nestling me everywhere, That each eyelash or hair Girdles; goes home betwixt The fleeci-est, frailest-flixed Snowflake; that's fairly mixed With, riddles, and is rife In every least thing's life; This needful, never spent, And nursing element; My more than meat and drink, My meal at every wink;
This air, which, by life's law, My lung must draw and draw Now but to breathe its praise, Minds me in many ways

Of her who not only Gave God's infinity Dwindled to infancy
Welcome in womb and breast, Birth, milk, and all the rest But mothers each new grace That does now reach our race — Mary Immaculate.

(Mary Immaculate) Merely a woman, yet Whose presence, power is Great as no goddess's Was deemed, dreamed; who This one work has to do — Let all God's glory through, God's glory which would go Through her and from her flow Off, and no way but so.

I say that we are wound With mercy round and round As if with air: the same Is Mary, more by name. She, wild web, wondrous robe, Mantles the guilty globe, Since God has let dispense Her prayers his providence:
Nay, more than almoner, The sweet aim's self is her And men are meant to share Her life as life does air.

If I have understood,
She holds high motherhood

Towards all our ghostly good And plays in grace her part About man's beating heart, Laying, like air's fine flood, • The deathdance in his blood; Yet no part but what will Be Christ our Saviour still. Of her flesh he took flesh: He does take fresh and fresh, Though much the mystery how,
Not flesh but spirit now And makes, O marvellous! New Nazareths in us, Where she shall yet conceive Him, morning, noon, and eve; New Bethlems, and he born
There, evening, noon, and morn — Bethlem or Nazareth, Men here may draw like breath More Christ and baffle death; Who, born so, comes to be New self and nobler me In each one and each one More makes, when all is done, Both God's and Mary's Son.

Again, look overhead How air is azured; O how! nay do but stand
Where you can lift your hand Skywards: rich, rich it laps Round the four fingergaps. Yet such a sapphire-shot, Charged, steeped sky will not Stain light. Yea, mark you this: It does no prejudice.

The glass-blue days are those
When every color glows,
Each shape and shadow shows.
Blue be it: this blue heaven
The seven or seven times seven Hued sunbeam will transmit Perfect, not alter it.
Or if there does some soft,
On things aloof, aloft,
Bloom breathe, that one breath more Earth is the fairer for.
Whereas did air not make
This bath of blue and slake
His fire, the sun would shake,
A blear and blinding ball
With blackness bound, and all
The thick stars round him roll
Flashing like flecks of coal,
Quartz-fret, or sparks of salt,
In grimy vasty vault.

So God was god of old: A mother came to mould Those limbs like ours which are What must make our daystar Much dearer to mankind; Whose glory bare would blind Or less would win man's mind. Through her we may see him Made sweeter, not made dim, And her hand leaves his light Sifted to suit our sight.

Be thou then, O thou dear Mother, my atmosphere; My happier world, wherein

To wend and meet no sin; Above me, round me lie Fronting my froward eye With sweet and scarless sky; • Stir in my ears, speak there Of God's love, O live air, Of patience, penance, prayer:
World-mothering air, air wild, Wound with thee, in thee isled, Fold home, fast fold thy child.

G. M. Hopkins

I my spirit I saw Mary, in bodily likeness; a simple maiden and a meek: young of age, little more than a child — in the same stature as she was when she conceived.

God also showed me, in part, the wisdom and the truth of her soul.

Wherein I understood the reverent beholding with which she beheld her God, who is her Maker;
She marvelled, with great reverence, that he willed to be born of her that was a simple creature of his making.

For this was her marvelling — that he who was her Maker, willed to be born of her who was made.

And this wisdom and truth — this knowing of the greatness of her Maker, and the littleness of herself that is made, made her to say full meekly to Gabriel: "Lo me here, God's handmaiden!"

Juliana of Norwich

Salvation to all that will is nigh;
That All, which always is All everywhere,
Which cannot sin, and yet all sins must bear,
Which cannot die, yet cannot chose but die,
Lo, faithful Virgin, yields himself to lie
In prison, in thy womb; and though he there Can take no sin, nor thou give, yet he will wear Taken from thence, flesh, which death's force may try.

Ere by the Spheres time was created, thou Wast in his mind, who is thy Son, and Brother; Whom thou conceiv'st, conceived; yea thou art now Thy Maker's maker, and thy Father's mother; Thou hast light in dark; and shutest in little room, Immensity cloistered in thy dear womb.

John Donne

In that, O Queen of queens, thy birth was free From guilt, which others doth of grace bereave, When in their mother's womb they life receive,
God as his sole born daughter loved thee.
To match thee like thy birth's nobility, He thee his Spirit for thy spouse did leave, Of whom thou didst his only Son conceive,
And so wast linked to all the Trinity.
Cease then, O queens, who earthly crowns do wear, To glory in the pomp of worldly things!
If men such high respect unto you bear, Which daughters, wives and mothers are of kings, What honour should unto that Queen be done, Who had your God for father, spouse and son?

Henry Constable

ANY SAINT

36

Lord God, we give you thanks for all your saints Who sought the trackless footprints of your feet, Who took into their own a hand unseen And heard a voice whose

In every word and deed they spoke of Christ, And in their life gave glory to his name; Their love was unconsumed, a burning bush Of which the Holy Spirit was the flame.

Blest Trinity, may yours be endless praise For all who lived so humbly in your sight; Your holy ones who walked dark ways in faith Now share the joy of your unfailing light.

APOSTLES

38

The Galilean fishers toil all night, and nothing take; But Jesus conies - a wondrous spoil is lifted from the lake! Lord, when our labors are in vain,
and vain the help of men, When fruitless is our care and pain
Come, blessed Jesus, then!

The night is dark, the surges fill the bark, the wild winds roar; But Jesus comes, and all is still - the ship is at the shore. O Lord, when storms around us howl and all is dark and drear, In all the tempests of the soul:
O blessed Jesus, hear!

A frail one, thrice denying thee, saw mercy in your eyes; The penitent upon the tree was borne to Paradise. In hours of sin and deep distress,
O show us, Lord, your face; In penitential loneliness,
O give us, Jesus, grace!

The faithful few retire in fear to their closed upper room;
But suddenly, with joyful cheer, they see their Master come.
Lord, come to us, unloose our bands, and bid our terrors cease;
Lift over us your blessed hands:

Speak, holy Jesus, peace!

Christopher Wordsworth

MARTYRS

BLESSING OF MEALS

BEFORE THE MEAL

The eyes of all look hopefully to you, O Lord, and you give them their food in due season. You open your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing.

Ps. 144,15-16

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning,
is now and will be for ever. Amen.

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Silent prayer.

Bless, ± O Lord, these your gifts which we are about to receive from your goodness, through Christ, our Lord. R/. Amen.

A few verses of Scripture of one's choosing are read here.

AFTER THE MEAL

A few verses of Scripture of one's choosing are read here.

Let all your works give you thanks, O Lord, and let your faithful bless you. Ps. 144,10

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning,
is now and will be for ever. Amen.

We give you thanks, almighty God, for all your blessings, who live and reign for ever and ever. R/. Amen.

A psalm of one's choosing is recited here.

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, Have mercy.

Silent prayer.

Openhanded, he gives to the poor;
his justice stands forever.
His head will be raised in glory. Ps. 111,9
I will bless the Lord at all tunes, his praise always on my lips. Ps. 33,2

Let my soul glory in the Lord.
The humble shall hear and be glad. Ps. 33,3 Glorify the Lord with me.

Together let us praise his name. Ps. 33,4

Blessed be the name of the Lord, both now and for ever.

Lord, grant to our benefactors everlasting life for the sake of your holy name.
Amen.

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest hi peace.
Amen.

Let us praise the Lord, and give him thanks.

DEVOTIONAL PRAYERS

BEFORE AN OFFICE SAID IN PRIVATE

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of your love. V/. Send forth your Spirit, ty. And renew the face of the earth.

PRAYER

Let us pray.

Father, you taught the hearts of your faithful people by sending them the light of your Holy Spirit. In that Spirit give us right judgment and the joy of his comfort and guidance. This we ask through Christ, our Lord. Amen. V/. Let us praise the Lord, B'. And give him thanks.

AFTER AN OFFICE IN PRIVATE

Psalm 116 Praise to the all-merciful Lord

O praise the Lord, all you nations, acclaim him all you peoples!

Strong is his love for us; he is faithful for ever.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning,
is now and will be for ever. Amen.

Acccept this Office, God of love, through the prayers and merits of the blessed and ever-virgin Mary and all the saints. Look kindly on anything I might have done well and mercifully overlook my negligences, you who live and reign for ever and ever, One God in perfect Trinity. Amen.

Good Jesus, have pity on us, you who suffered and died for us; bless us with all the faithful, living and dead. Amen.

V. May the divine help remain always with us. iy.
Amen.

AFTER COMPLINE AND LAUDS OF
THE BLESSED VIRGIN

To the most holy and undivided Trinity, to the humanity of our crucified Lord Jesus Christ, to the fruitful virginity of the most holy and glorious Mary ever-virgin, and to all the saints, be praise, honor, power and glory from all creation, and for us the forgiveness of our sins, for ever and ever. Amen.

V/. Blessed is the womb of the Virgin Mary: she carried the Son of the eternal Father.

R/. And blessed is the breast that nursed Christ the Lord.

Our Father. Hail Mary.

ANTIPHON OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

We fly to your protection, holy Mother of God; hear us as we implore your help in our need, and deliver us always from all dangers, O glorious and blessed Virgin.

Our Lady, our intercessor who pleads for us before your Son, reconcile us with him, commend us to him, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

V/. Make me worthy to praise you, most holy Virgin.

R/. Give me strength against your enemies.

PRAYER

Let us pray.

Through the prayers of the Blessed Virgin Mary keep this family from all harm. In the depths of our hearts we prostrate ourselves before you: protect us from the snares of the enemy. This we ask...

ANTIPHONS IN HONOR OF ST. BRUNO

Hail, light and model for all carthusians, fruitful olive tree bursting forth from the cleft in the rock, fragrant lily springing up in solitude, flowering and diffusing a life-giving perfume of sweetness. May we exult for ever in the mercy of him whose glory fills you with joy.

V/. The just man shall blossom like the lily,

R/. He shall strike root like the Lebanon cedar.

Hos. 14,6

PRAYER

Let us pray.

O God, to depart from you is to die, to walk with you is to live. You led our father Saint Bruno into solitude and raised him up to the heights of contemplation. Grant us your saving grace as we are moulded by his example, strengthened by his merits and helped by his prayers. Just as your call carried him to glory so may our devotion to him lead us to salvation. This we ask...

This is a saint worthy to be remembered, who has passed to the glory of the angels. While on his earthly pilgrimage, his thoughts and desires were turned towards the heavenly homeland. V/. The Lord led this holy man along a sure path. iy. He showed him the kingdom of God. Wis. 10,10

Let us pray.

O God, through the merits of Saint Bruno you enriched the beauty of the desert with a numerous family. May his prayers help us to forget what lies behind so that you may lead us to what lies ahead: the fulfilment of your promises. This we ask.
